The Continental Ethics Reader Matthew Calarco, Peter Atterton, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Ethics After Poststructuralism Lee Olsen, Brendan Johnston, Ann Keniston, 2020-03-11 The present era of economic devastation legacies of colonization and imperialism climate change and habitat loss calls for a new understanding of ethics These essays on otherness responsibility and hospitality raise urgent questions Contributors range from the prominent including Levinas Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida and Giorgio Agamben to recent theorists such as Judith Butler Enrique Dussell and Rosi Braidotti The essays emphasize the always vulnerable status of a radically different Other even as they question what responsibility to that Other might mean Unconditional Life Yoriko Otomo, 2016 Looking at how international law regulates and is itself influenced by technology and risk this book illustrates how and why international law has been unable to properly deal with large scale technological risk Through delving into its nature international law is shown itself to be a technology Zoographies Matthew Calarco, 2008 Calarco California State Univ Fullerton examines the question of the animal in major Continental thinkers like Heidegger Levinas Agamben and Derrida He takes to task the belief that Anglo philosophy alone boasts of a strong tradition on this issue He admits however that although these post Enlightenment thinkers were committed to examining and refiguring philosophical concepts and human existence most resort to dogmatic anthropocentric concepts specifically the traditional dualism of human animal a type of essentialism For example despite being critical of an ontotheological thesis of animals Heidegger nonetheless writes of an abyssal difference between human and animal life Calarco's basic thesis is that this binary is no longer defensible forever destroyed by the sciences and humanities Most promising is Derrida the only major Continental thinker to date who thoroughly rejects the human animal distinction and envisions the philosophically enormous task of rethinking politics and ethics outside this tradition Derrida begins with humankind's pre philosophical encounter with animals as fellow beings capable of suffering embodied and vulnerable although this last description is problematic as it is arguably a continuation of humans desire to infantilize animals This important analysis is long overdue Summing Up Highly recommended Upper level undergraduates through faculty researchers Upper division Undergraduates Graduate Students Researchers Faculty Reviewed by M A Betz

Blade Runner Amy Coplan, David Davies, 2015-05-08 Ridley Scott's Blade Runner is widely regarded as a masterpiece of modern cinema and is regularly ranked as one of the great films of all time Set in a dystopian future where the line between human beings and replicants is blurred the film raises a host of philosophical questions about what it is to be human the possibility of moral agency and freedom in created life forms and the capacity of cinema to make a genuine contribution to our engagement with these kinds of questions This volume of specially commissioned chapters systematically explores and addresses these issues from a philosophical point of view Beginning with a helpful introduction the seven chapters examine the following questions How is the theme of death explored in Blade Runner and with what implications for our understanding of the human condition What can we learn about the relationship between emotion and reason from the depiction of the replicants in Blade Runner How are memory empathy and moral agency related in Blade Runner How does the style and mood of Blade Runner bear upon its thematic and philosophical significance Is Blade Runner a meditation on the nature of film itself Including a brief biography of the director and a detailed list of references to other writings on the film Blade Runner is essential reading for students indeed anyone interested in philosophy and film studies Contributors Colin Allen Peter Atterton Amy Coplan David Davies Berys Gaut Stephen Mulhall C D C Reeve Nietzsche and Critical Social Theory, 2019-12-09 Nietzsche and Critical Social Theory Affirmation Animosity and Ambiguity brings together scholars from a variety of disciplinary background to assess the salience of Nietzsche for critical social theory today In the context of global economic crises and the rise of authoritarian regimes across the U S and Europe the question asked by these scholars is why Nietzsche now Containing several innovative interventions in the areas of queer theory political economy critical race theory labour history hip hop aesthetics sociology the Frankfurt School social movements studies science and technology studies pedagogy and ludic studies this volume pushes Nietzsche studies in new directions seeking to broaden the appeal of Nietzsche beyond philosophy and political theory Critical Management Ethics T. Klikauer, 2010-07-01 Written in the European tradition of Kant s philosophical trilogy on critique and Hegel s concept of ethical life it outlines the great traditions in ethical philosophy Aristotelian virtue ethics Kantian ethics and utilitarianism It presents modern ethics from Nietzsche Adorno and Habermas to Kohlberg s stages of moral development Derrida and the Future of the Liberal Arts Mary Caputi, Vincent J. Del Casino, Jr., 2013-04-11 Derrida and the Future of the Liberal Arts highlights the Derridean assertion that the university must exist without condition as a bastion of intellectual freedom and oppositional activity whose job it is to question mainstream society Derrida argued that only if the life of the mind is kept free from excessive corporate influence and political control can we be certain that the basic tenets of democracy are being respected within the very societies that claim to defend democratic principles This collection contains eleven essays drawn from international scholars working in both the humanities and social sciences and makes a well grounded and comprehensive case for the importance of Derridean thought within the liberal arts today Written by specialists in the fields of philosophy literature history sociology geography political science animal studies and gender studies each essay traces deconstruction s contribution to their discipline explaining how it helps keep alive the unconditional contrapuntal mission of the university The book offers a forceful and persuasive corrective to the current assault on the liberal arts Seven Management Moralities T. Klikauer, 2012-09-18 For the first time Seven Management Moralities delivers a comprehensive overview of all forms of moral and immoral behaviour displayed by management Utilising Kohlberg s ascending scale of seven moralities the book includes the ethics of Aristotle Kant Utilitarianism Bauman Habermas and Singer Rethinking Philosophers' Responsibility Lydia Amir, 2017-11-06 Calling on philosophers as the custodians of rationality to reconsider their responsibility toward their communities and the state of civilization at large this book considers philosophy to be a practical discipline Largely foreign to philosophers and non philosophers alike this conception of philosophy discloses the relevance of its unique contributions to contemporary society The book offers a compelling and accessible analysis of philosophy also in relation to religion psychology the New Age Movement and globalization and exemplifies through a wide range of current problems how philosophers can fulfil their responsibility Its argument that responsibility lies where one is capable of doing what is needed and even more so when no one else can do it targets philosophers However its innovative study of contemporary philosophy coupled with its original contributions to the problems at hand will engage academics and students from other disciplines as well as a general readership

A Companion to Spanish Women's Studies Xon de Ros, Geraldine Hazbun, 2014 This volume presents an overview of the issues and critical debates in the field of women s studies including original essays by pioneering scholars as well as by younger specialists New pathfinding models of theoretical analysis are balanced with a careful revisiting of the historical foundations of women s studies

Philosophy, Humor, and the Human Condition Lydia Amir, 2019-12-19 This book presents an original worldview Homo risibilis wherein self referential humor is proposed as the path leading from a tragic view of life to a liberating embrace of human ridicule Humor is presented as a conceptual tool for holding together contradictions and managing the unresolvable conflict of the human condition till Homo risibilis resolves the inherent tension without epistemological cost This original approach to the human condition allows us to effectively address life s ambiguities without losing sight of its tragic overtones and brings along far ranging personal and social benefits By defining the problem that other philosophies and many religions attempt to solve in terms we can all relate to Homo risibilis enables an understanding of the Other that surpasses mere tolerance Its egalitarian vision roots an ethic of compassion without requiring metaphysical or religious assumptions and liberates the individual for action on others behalf It offers a new model of rationality which effectively handles and eventually resolves the tension between oneself others and the world at large Amir s view of the human condition transcends the field of philosophy of humor An original worldview that fits the requirements of traditional philosophy Homo risibilis is especially apt to answer contemporary concerns It embodies the minimal consensus we need in order to live together and the active role philosophy should responsibly play in a global world Here developed for the first time in a complete way the Homo risibilis worldview is not only liberating in nature but also illuminates the shortcomings of other philosophies in their attempts to secure harmony in a disharmonious world for a disharmonious human being Leadership at the Crossroads Joanne B.
