Contingent Immaterialism Meaning Freedom Time And Mind:

Contingent Immaterialism Ben Lazare Mijuskovic, 1984-01-01 Consciousness and Loneliness: Theoria and Praxis Ben Mijuskovic, 2018-11-26 Current research claims loneliness is passively caused by external conditions environmental cultural situational and even chemical imbalances in the brain and hence avoidable In this book the author argues that loneliness is actively constituted by acts of reflexive self consciousness Kant and transcendent intentionality Husserl and is therefore unavoidable This work employs a historical conceptual and interdisciplinary approach philosophy psychology literature sociology etc criticizing both psychoanalysis and neuroscience The book pits materialism mechanism determinism empiricism phenomenalism behaviorism and the neurosciences against dualism both subjective and objective idealism rationalism freedom phenomenology and existentialism It offers a dynamic of loneliness whose spontaneous subconscious sources undercuts the unconscious of Freud and the computerism of the neurosciences by challenging their claims to be predictive sciences Mijuskovic demonstrates a psychological framework in which the self is motivated by a fear of loneliness and the desire for intimacy The author thoroughly substantiates his perspective via a History of Ideas format which engages Plato's metaphor of the Battle between the Gods and the Giants an allusion to the historical debate between idealists and materialists Ultimately these two groups and their allies attempt to address the question can senseless matter think The idealists with whom Mijuskovic identifies assert the reality of the self reflexive self consciousness and the spontaneity of the mind Joshua Marcus Cragle University of Amsterdam Journal of Thought Fall Winter 2019 Ben Mijuskovic continues his ambitious life project in this fifth installment of an interdisciplinary series in consciousness and loneliness within philosophical psychological and literary discourse Mijuskovic possesses the unique combination of academic clinical and professional experience to cross the aisle between philosophers and therapists Such a CV emboldens his argument for a return to a metaphysical argument for human consciousness culminating in intrinsic and inevitable loneliness Embracing this universal reality is the first step to philosophical grounding and psychological wholeness His methodology argumentation and conclusions tend to be highly provocative in the age of contemporary neuroscientific and pharmaceutical predominance Michael D Bobo Norco College Philosophy in Review 40 1 February 2020 Plato's Battle between the Gods and the Giants and Its Continuing Relevance in the Speculative Philosophy of History Ben Mijuskovic, 2024-12-16 This book discusses two general theories of human consciousness The methodology interdisciplinary and history of ideas oriented concentrates on two opposing theories one humanistic and the other scientific Leibniz's optimistic claim in the seventeenth century that this world was the best of all possible worlds is posed against nineteenth century Schopenhauer who argued pessimistically that it was the worst and that it was best not to survive Against this background the book compares the current danger of a civil war in the United States of America as patterned along the same lines that engulfed the former Yugoslavia thus demonstrating the insidious roots of that evil and its destructive engulfment and power Ultimately it

questions whether these same dynamic forces are leading today's world to annihilation as countries threaten each other with nuclear arms and the age of pessimism has become entrenched The Epistemological Skyhook Jim Slagle, 2016-05-20

Throughout philosophical history there has been a recurring argument to the effect that determinism, naturalism, or both are self-referentially incoherent. By accepting determinism or naturalism, one allegedly acquires a reason to reject determinism or naturalism. The Epistemological Skyhook brings together for the first time the principal expressions of this argument, focusing primarily on the last 150 years. This book addresses the versions of this argument as presented by Arthur Lovejoy, A. E. Taylor, Kurt G. del C. S. Lewis, Norman Malcolm, Karl Popper, J. R. Lucas, William Hasker, Thomas Nagel, Alvin Plantinga, and others, along with the objections presented by their many detractors. It concludes by presenting a new version of the argument that synthesizes the best aspects of the others while also rendering the argument immune to some of the most significant objections made to it. Theories of Consciousness and the Problem of Evil in the History of Ideas Ben Lazare Mijuskovic, 2023-04-08

In this book, Ben Lazare Mijuskovic uses both an interdisciplinary and History of Ideas approach to discuss four forms of intertwined theories of human consciousness and reflexive self-consciousness: Plato, Augustine, Descartes, Leibniz, Kant, and Hegel; Schopenhauer's subconscious irrational will; Brentano and Husserl's transcendent intentionality; and Freud's dynamic ego. Mijuskovic explores these theories within the context of psychological issues where the discussion is undergirded by the conflict between loneliness and intimacy. He also explores them in the context of ethics where the dynamic is between the values of good and evil. The book historically traces these issues in both a personal as well as a political framework. The Philosophical Roots of Loneliness and Intimacy Ben Lazare Mijuskovic, 2021-12-13

Ben Lazare Mijuskovic has spent 40 years researching theories of consciousness in relation to human loneliness using an interdisciplinary and history of ideas approach. In this book, Mijuskovic combines Kant's theory of reflexive self-consciousness with Husserl's transcendent principle of intentionality to describe the distinctive philosophical, psychological, and sociological roots of loneliness and intimacy. He argues that loneliness is innate, unavoidable, and constituted by the structure of self-consciousness itself. Loneliness in Philosophy, Psychology, and Literature Ben Lazare Mijuskovic, 2012. Drawing on the fields of psychology, literature, and philosophy, Loneliness in Philosophy, Psychology, and Literature argues that loneliness has been the universal concern of mankind since the Greek myths and dramas, the dialogues of Plato, and the treatises of Aristotle. Author Ben Lazare Mijuskovic, whose insights are culled from both his theoretical studies and his practical experiences, contends that loneliness has constituted a universal theme of Western thought from the Hellenic age into the contemporary period. In Loneliness in Philosophy, Psychology, and Literature, he shows how man has always felt alone and that the meaning of man is loneliness. Presenting both a discussion and a philosophical inquiry into the nature of loneliness, Mijuskovic cites examples from more than one hundred writers on loneliness, including Erich Fromm, Frieda Fromm-Reichmann, Clark Moustakas, Rollo May, and James Howard, in psychology; Thomas Hardy, Joseph Conrad, James Joyce, Thomas Wolfe, and William

Golding in literature and Descartes Kant Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Sartre in philosophy Insightful and comprehensive Loneliness in Philosophy Psychology and Literature demonstrates that loneliness is the basic nature of humans and is an unavoidable condition that all must face European Review 21 2 May 2013 309 311 Ben Mijuskovic Loneliness in Philosophy Psychology and Literature Bloomington IN iUniverse 2012 Ben Lazare Mijuskovic offers in his book a very different approach to loneliness According to him far from being an occasional or temporary phenomenon loneliness or better the fear of loneliness is the strongest motivational drive in human beings He argues that following the replenishment of air water nourishment and sleep the most insistent and immediate necessity is man desire to escape his loneliness to avoid the feeling of existential human isolation p xxx The Leibnizian image of the monad as a self enclosed windowless being gives an acute portrait of this oppressive prison To support this thesis Mijuskovic uses an interdisciplinary approach philosophy psychology and literature through which the picture of man as continually fighting to escape the quasi solipsistic prison of his frightening solitude reverberates Besides insisting on the primacy of our human concern to struggle with the spectre of loneliness Mijuskovic has sought to account for the reasons why this is the case The core of his argumentation relies on a theory of consciousness In Western thought three dominant models can be distinguished a the self consciousness or reflexive model b the empirical or behavioral model and c the intentional or phenomenological model According to the last two models it is difficult if not inconceivable to understand how loneliness is even possible Only the theory that attributes a reflexive nature to the powers of the mind can adequately explain loneliness The very constitution of our consciousness determines our confinement When a human being successfully reflects on his self reflexively captures his own intrinsically unique situation he grasps self consciously the nothingness of his existence as a transcendental condition universal necessary a priori structuring his entire being in the world This originary level of recognition is the ground source for his sensory cognitive awareness of loneliness p 13 Silvana Mandolesi

Philosophical Reviews ,1985 Feeling Lonesome Ben Lazare Mijuskovic,2015-06-23 This book presents an intricate interdisciplinary evaluation of loneliness that examines the relation of consciousness to loneliness It views loneliness from the inside as a universal human condition rather than attempting to explain it away as an aberration a mental disorder or a temporary state to be addressed by superficial therapy and psychiatric medication Loneliness is much more than just feeling sad or isolated It is the ultimate ground source of unhappiness the underlying reality of all negative human behavior that manifests as anxiety depression envy guilt hostility or shame It underlies aggression domestic violence murder PTSD suicide and other serious issues This book explains why the drive to avoid loneliness and secure intimacy is the most powerful psychological need in all human beings documents how human beings gravitate between two motivational poles loneliness and intimacy and advocates for an understanding of loneliness through the principles of idealism rationalism and insight Readers will understand the underlying theory of consciousness that explains why people are lonely thereby becoming better equipped to recognize sources of loneliness in themselves as well as others Written by a licensed social worker and former mental health therapist the book documents why whenever individuals or groups feel lonely alienated estranged disenfranchised or rejected they will either withdraw within and shut down or they will attack others with little thought of consequence to either themselves or others Perhaps most importantly the work identifies the antidotes to loneliness as achieving a sense of belonging togetherness and intimacy through empathic emotional attachments which come from a mutual sharing of lived experiences such as feelings meanings and values constant positive communication and equal decision making Uniform Trade List Annual ,1977 Medical and Health Care Books and Serials in Print ,1997
