Bagnall,2004-05-31 This work is concerned with appraising the contemporary ethical impact of lifelong learning ideology and advocacy on education through focusing on trends in educational policy and management that flow from the ideology It has its origins in the author s concern that many of those trends are being defined and promoted or opposed without an adequate understanding of their ethical dimensions The 21 trends examined in this work are seen as defining important dimensions of the quite radical changes in educational policy and management that are flowing from the practical realisation of lifelong learning ideology and advocacy In here evaluating those trends from an ethical perspective the thesis is developed that they lead inevitably to distinctive ethical dilemmas or tensions in the lived experience of educational participants The dilemmas though are not seen as realities that can intelligently be either avoided or resolved They are rather inescapable features of the trends although they and the experience of them may be managed intelligently to a greater or lesser extent This analysis is premised on the belief that an understanding of the dilemmas may be of practical value in assisting educators and policy makers and managers to live and work more intelligently with them and to better manage the educational changes that are defined by the trends It may thereby contribute to moderating the excesses sillinesses and inanities so often evident in the directing and managing of reforms associated with the trends and to reduce the anguish and pain associated with them
