experiences traveling working and creating a family while living outside their home country In Niger and Kenya Bruce worked as a Peace Corps staff physician caring for volunteers in many countries Jan worked as an applied research anthropologist in international public health focusing on maternal and child health issues After three years in Niger they started their family in their mid 30s Their first child returned to Niger at the age of six weeks after his birth in Florida Their second child was born in Nairobi By the time the family returned permanently to the States in 1991 the children were nearly five and three Jan continued to work internationally from a US base in HIV AIDS prevention for an additional six years as a program evaluator and qualitative researcher using her medical anthropology training In the latter part of her career she continued working in program evaluation for an academic medical research institute Bruce s career evolved to a focus on medical informatics in academic settings and in the private sector The book is an edited set of stories and memories from their African experiences based on reading documentation preserved for thirty years in basement boxes Jan and Bruce now live in rural Virginia in a forest Choice ,1989 My Song: Memoir of an ER Physician Craig Dean, MD,2014-05-12

Thirty years in the making one hundred thousand patients later the hundred numinous patients I will forever treasure It has been said that memoirs are the narratives of our life and as such become the manner and method of how we make sense out of our life s journey Indeed I could not imagine my life without my career in the ER since without it I would truly feel like a naked wizened skeleton devoid of skin flesh or viscera The ER experience was the alchemist s stone that touched my ordinary life and in so many ways made it exquisitely gilded Many were the patients that stirred the invisible fabric of my soul and made the ordinary universe seem so much more expansive and unequalled The magnificence of the ER flows from the commanding variety of patients not unlike the arresting diversity of flora in the plant kingdom renders a regal awe upon the eyes and souls of the beholder
