methodological journey to the present day through issues of repatriation museum exhibitions and globalization Apostolos Cappadona suggests that the fluidity and flexibility of the study of religion and the arts has expanded like an umbrella since the 1970s and the understanding that art was simply a visual exegesis of texts to now support the study of material popular and visual culture as well as gender She also delivers a careful analysis of the evolution of thought from traditional iconographies to the transformations once scholars were influenced by response theory and challenged by globalization and technology Religion and the Arts History and Method offers an indispensable introduction to the questions and perspectives essential to the study of this field

Nabokov and the Russian Diaspora Bryan Karetnyk, 2025-11-01 This book presents a sustained and systematic analysis of the totalitarian topos across Vladimir Nabokov's life and career Contributing to the ongoing reappraisal of Nabokov's writing in its engagement with politics and ideology this study contends that the rise of totalitarianism constituted one of the most urgent substantial and complex issues with which Nabokov and his peers in emigration had to contend Yet while the precarious exilic status of the Russian diaspora not only made the spread of totalitarian ideologies and dictatorships an acute and tangible danger it also perversely afforded its members exceptionally free scope to respond intellectually and creatively as individuals outside and on the limits of these systems This is the first book that critically and comprehensively examines Nabokov's literary and intellectual responses to the rise of totalitarian systems and ideologies contextualizing them within those of his peers in the first wave of Russian emigration
