Research Methods for Contract Law and Scholarship Yuliya Chernykh,Joshua Karton,2025-09-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 License It is free to read download and share on Elgaronline com This timely and comprehensive book reveals the multifaceted nature of modern contract law and practice Providing a broad overview of research methods in contemporary contract law it identifies the various modes of inquiry and argumentative techniques in this dynamic field providing theoretical depth and practical tools for legal scholarship Yuliya Chernykh and Joshua Karton bring together a range of specialists in contract law research to address emerging topics within legal scholarship that work well with a combination of methodological approaches Summary of Progress - National Cooperative Highway Research Program National Cooperative Highway Research Program,1993 Handbook of Trial Consulting Richard L. Wiener,Brian H. Bornstein,2011-05-06 This volume will be a handbook that treats trial consulting as applied psychology The purpose of the volume will be to collect the viewpoints of leaders in the field of psychology and law who apply the discipline's theoretical models, methods, and ethics to assist litigators to try cases in the most effective way possible. As a whole, the collection of chapters will describe the theory, business, and mechanics of trial consulting for those interested in learning and practicing the profession. However, it will do so from the perspective of organized theories of jury decision making. In other words, the work of juror researchers will inform the recommendations and suggestions in the handbook. The volume consists of six sections, each pertaining to a different topic. Multiple chapters with different authors will cover each topic. The topics and corresponding seven sections will be: 1. An Introduction to the Theory and Psychology of Jury Decision Making; 2. Applied Research Methodologies for Trial Consultants; 3. Education and Ethical Considerations for Trial Consultants; 4. Preparing and Cross Examining Witnesses; 5. Technology and Demonstrative Evidence at Trial; and 6. Special Topics in Trial Consulting. Each section will begin with the editors' short introduction reviewing that section and explaining its goals, objectives, and content. Separate individuals recognized as leaders in their areas will write the remaining chapters in each section. These individuals come from the fields of both psychology and law and represent viewpoints on these topics from a practice-oriented perspective but a perspective that emerges from research results. They are affiliated with a number of academic institutions including University of Nebraska, John Jay College of Criminal Justice, University of Texas, University of Chicago, Simon Fraser University, and private law firms.

McCallum's Top Workplace Relations Cases CCH Australia, Limited, 2011-01-05 McCallum's Top Workplace Relations Cases Ronald Clive McCallum, 2008. McCallum's Top Workplace Relations Cases was previously published by CCH Australia. Destined to be a classic, this title by renowned IR authority Professor Ron McCallum examines the facts, the reasoning, and the holdings in 35 decisions, graphically illustrating how labour law and especially the employment relationship really works in Australia. The book covers Rules governing when a worker is an employee or contractor; Sources of labour and employment law; Awards, agreements, statutes; Incorporation of material into employment contracts; Duties placed on employees and employers including the ownership of intellectual property and mutual trust and confidence; Matters beyond employment simplicities such as working from home and Termination of employment including notice and the nature of unfair dismissal.

Construction Delay Claims Barry B. Bramble, Michael T. Callahan, 2010-10. Contracts can be your first line of defense against delays. But they have to be drafted very carefully. Construction Delay Claims gives you an in-depth analysis of all the pertinent clauses and details that they can and can't do to minimize delays and avoid litigation. Construction Delay Claims, Fourth Edition by Barry B. Bramble and Michael T. Callahan is written for everyone involved with delay and impact construction claims, the most common form of disputes in the construction industry. You'll find that this resource presents the most thorough, detailed review of delay claims liability available, including a complete description of the entire process for filing and pursuing claims, along with more than 1,950 cases and analyses. Construction Delay Claims gives you the information you need to determine your best course of action. The book presents detailed knowledge drawn from the authors' thirty-five years of experience in the industry. You'll learn how to anticipate delays and mitigate damages through the use of advanced planning and immediate responses by the parties involved You will also receive helpful instructions about the best use of construction schedules to avert delays or to prove their impact if they do occur Construction Delay Claims keeps you completely up to date with the changes in the construction industry and the construction litigation process Coverage includes Effective ways to challenge a claimant's use of the Total Cost Method of Calculation The effectiveness of no damages for delay clauses The use of ADR methods to resolve delay claims The meaning and implication of concurrent delays Cumulative impact effect of multiple change orders The impact and probability of delays in design build construction management and multiple prime contracting Latest research into the effect and measurement of lost productivity The most recent assessments of how states are applying the Eichleay formula ABA Journal ,1976-05 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association ABA Journal ,1980-04 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association Report of the Job Evaluation and Pay Review Task Force to the United States Civil Service Commission United States Civil Service Commission.
