Psychology and the Church Mark R. McMinn,Amy W. Dominguez,2005 Today s psychology with increasing openness to spirituality multiple ways of knowing cultural diversity and community emphases and provides a promising context for studying Christian communities And today s church with increasing reliance on technology and science growing engagement with contemporary culture and a willingness to elevate various Christian psychologists to a near prophetic role may be more open to the influence of psychology than ever before This book highlights exemplars who are blending the strengths of the church with the skills of psychology in applied settings to promote psychology and spiritual health The volume is divided into five sections The first section includes three survey and interview studies assessing psychologists and clergy perspectives on collaboration Each of remaining sections is comprised of three to six vignettes demonstrating how psychologists are working with the church organised by congregation based collaboration clinically focused collaboration research focused collaboration and community focused collaboration Feeling Felt in Pastoral Care Counselling and Supervision Wim Smeets, Sirkku Tukiainen, 2024-08 This book contains several scientific and professional contributions of the 13th Conference of the European Council on Pastoral Care and Counselling a network of organizations and individuals in the practice teaching or supervising of pastoral care and counselling in Europe The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving Larry VandeCreek, Arthur M. Lucas, 2014-01-02 Structure your ministry to start with patients needs hopes and resources and to be clear what difference your ministry can make Hospital chaplains value who they are and what they do as contributions to patients and families healing and well being And they are continually stretching to enhance their ministries Hospital administrators and other professionals on the care teams however often need help to grasp those same values in outcome oriented observable documentable changes for the better terms The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving Foundations for Outcome Oriented Chaplaincy offers a powerful new paradigm for enhancing supportive effective spiritual care for patients and families as well as communicating substantive outcomes to leaders and clinicians alike This is all the more important in these times when every possible resource must be well used for the good of our patients and their families By evaluating the pastoral care you offer you can become more aware of the discrete skills you exercise in the assessment planning intervention and reflection process Such evaluation efforts highlight the discrete differences excellent spiritual care makes This can help you track contributions you are making in terms of the patient's healing and well being Having a sound replicable way to make the process more conscious also helps you communicate your assessment strategies and contributions more clearly to other care team members Furthermore consistently using The Discipline over time will enable you to discover patterns of spiritual dynamics in how people live with different health care challenges in their lives These patterns translate into valuable insights as your care for others The process discussed in The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving calls on the chaplain to identify the patient's spiritual needs hopes and resources construct a patient profile through identifying the individual s sense of the holy sense of meaning sense of hope and sense of community design the desired outcome s you hope your care will contribute for example a person who has suffered a spinal cord injury integrates the effects of their injury in their sense of identity and meaning a person living with cystic fibrosis healthfully grieves the loss of others in the CF community a patient disabled by the absence of her support community regains use of her personal resources for coping and self care develop and share a plan for the patient's spiritual care choose interventions which may range from facilitating a life review to compassionate confrontation to reading Scripture to active listening to arranging a family care conference measure outcomes identifying and communicating the difference your care has made in terms of the patient's healing and well being The Discipline for Pastoral Care Giving offers case studies personal experiences helpful figures and charts and suggestions for dealing with patients experiencing unique complex health care challenges including adults living with cystic fibrosis and violent victims of violence The wise advice and practical suggestions in this book will help you recognize and document the solid value of your hospital ministry Educational Transactional Analysis Giles Barrow, Trudi Newton, 2015-09-07 While there are a small number of titles exploring Transactional Analysis in specific educational settings there is no comprehensive account of this practical psychology for learning Educational Transactional Analysis draws together a team of contributors from the international educational TA community offering perspectives from Europe India South Africa Australia Japan and the United States to explain and illustrate the practice of this exciting development in education Establishing a seminal overview that will make it the go to text the book covers four key sections Philosophy Politics Principles Educational Transactional Analysis The Identity of the Teacher Educational Transactional Analysis and Schooling Educational Transactional Analysis Adult learning and community development Aimed at educators in all contexts researchers students and trainers this book will be an essential resource for those that wish to deepen their understanding of educational TA or are involved in formal TA training Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care Emmanuel Y. Lartey, Hellena Moon, 2020-09-23 This anthology is about caring for all persons as a part of the revolutionary struggle against colonialism in its many forms In recognition of the varied ways in which different forms of oppression injustice and violence in the world today are traceable to the legacy and continuing effects of colonialism various authors have contributed to the volume from diverse backgrounds including differing ethnic identities religious and cultural traditions gender and sexual orientations as well as communal and personal realities As a postcolonial critique of spiritual care it highlights the plurality of voices and concerns that have been overlooked or obscured because of the politics of race religion sexuality nationalism and other structures of power that have shaped what discursive spiritual care entails today Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care presents voices of practical and pastoral theologians academics spiritual care providers religious leaders students and activists working to provide greater intercultural spiritual care and awareness in the areas of healthcare community work and education The volume as such expands the discourse of spiritual care and participates in the ongoing paradigm shifts in the field of pastoral and practical theology Short-term Counselling in Higher Education David Mair, 2015-11-19 As demand for counselling from students across Higher Education HE increases year on year counselling services are continually seeking to explore creative ways of working under the pressure that results from this rise in client numbers One of the most frequent responses to increased demand is limiting the number of sessions that individual students may have Until Short term Counselling in Higher Education there has been no text which provides a contextual theoretical and practical input to this evolving way of working This book explores constructive ways of providing very short term counselling within a Higher Education context Using case studies and employing up to date statistics from the sector the book gives readers a clear understanding of the nature of the professional challenges and offers ways of addressing these including managing waiting lists developing policies to facilitate timely intervention and understanding the limitations of what short term therapy can offer Short term Counselling in Higher Education explores the implications of working in Higher Education counselling services in this very short term way and as such it will be an essential resource for counsellors heads of counselling services and student services managers in Higher Education helping to find ways of delivering effective short term interventions within existing counselling services A Roman Catholic Theology of Pastoral Care Regis A. Duffy OFM,2010-05-01 Drawing upon the long history of care in the sacramental mission of the clergy especially since the reforms of Vatican II Father Duffy offers a new model that can stimulate both Catholic and Protestant pastoral care to fresh thinking and imaginative reconstruction The model derives from the catechumenate that lengthy process of study and service which down through the ages has preceded baptism and guided Christian formation Reflecting a judicious use of interdisciplinary insights and praxis theology Father Duffy's vision represents an ecumenical contribution to sharpened focus and strengthened identity for pastoral care and practice Evidence-Based Healthcare Chaplaincy George Fitchett, Kelsey White, Kathryn Lyndes, 2018-07-19 Research literacy is now a requirement for Board Certified chaplains in the US and a growing field in the UK This reader gives an overview and introduction to the field of healthcare chaplaincy research The 21 carefully chosen articles in this book illustrate techniques critical to chaplaincy research case studies qualitative research cross sectional and longitudinal quantitative research and randomized clinical trials The selected articles also address wide ranging topics in chaplaincy research for a comprehensive overview of the field To help readers engage with the research each article includes a discussion guide highlighting crucial content as well as important background information and implications for further research This book is the perfect primary text for healthcare chaplaincy research courses bringing together key articles from peer reviewed journals in one student friendly format Handbook of Religion and Health Harold G. Koenig, Michael E. McCullough, David B. Larson, 2001-01-11 What effect does religion have on physical and mental health In answering this question this book reviews and discusses research on the relationship between religion and a variety of mental and physical health outcomes including depression and anxiety heart disease stroke and cancer and health related behaviors such as smoking and substance abuse The authors examine the positive and negative effects of religion on health throughout the life span from childhood to old age Based on their findings they build theoretical models illustrating the behavioral psychological social and physiological pathways through which religion may influence health The authors also review research on the impact of religious affiliation belief and practice on the use of health services and compliance with medical treatment In conclusion they discuss the clinical relevance of their findings and make recommendations for future research priorities Offering the first comprehensive examination of its topic this volume is an indispensable resource for
