Contradictions Of Culture Cities Culture Women:

The Contradictions of Culture Elizabeth Wilson, 2001 This volume regards contemporary culture as incoherent and confronts the contradictory nature of cultural relations. It illustrates the cultural contradiction with the furious debates within 1980s feminism on the nature and effects of pornography. The Contradictions of Culture Elizabeth Wilson, 2001-03-08 In this book one of the most accomplished and thoughtful cultural commentators of the day considers the contradictory nature of cultural relations. Elizabeth Wilson explores these themes through an examination of fashion feminism consumer culture representation and postmodernism. Debates within feminism on the nature and effects of pornography are used to illustrate a particular kind of cultural contradiction. Wilson recognizes that postmodernism permitted the reappropriation of subjects that were not previously considered worthy of attention or opposed to the idea of emancipation. Chief among these was fashion. She shows that the association of an interest in this culturally significant subject with a revisionist project raises doubt. Cities and Cultures Malcolm Miles, 2007-04-26 Cities and Cultures is a critical account of the relations between contemporary cities and the cultures they produce and which in turn shape them. The book questions received ideas of what constitutes a city's culture through case studies in which different kinds of culture, the arts, cultural institutions and heritage, distinctive ways of life are seen to be differently used in or affected by the development of particular cities. The book does not mask the complexity of this but explains it in ways accessible for undergraduates. The book begins with introductory chapters on the concepts of a city and a culture, the latter in the anthropological sense as well as denoting the arts, citing cases from modern literature. The book then moves from a critical account of cultural production in a metropolitan setting to the idea that a city too is produced through the characteristic ways of life of its inhabitants. The cultural industries are scrutinised for their relation to such cultures as well as to city marketing and attention is given to the European Cities of Culture initiative and to the hybridity of contemporary urban cultures in a period of globalisation and migration. In its penultimate chapter the book looks at incidental cultural forms and cultural means to identify formation and in its final chapter examines the permeability of urban cultures and cultural forms. Sources are introduced, positions clarified and contrasted and notes given for selective further reading. Playing on the two meanings of culture, Miles takes a unique approach by relating arguments around these meanings to specific cases of urban development today. The book includes both critical comment on a range of literatures, being a truly interdisciplinary study, and the outcome of the author's field research into urban cultures. Non-Conforming Women in Neoliberal Cities Shrimoyee Chattopadhyay, 2025-08-22 This book investigates the complex role space and movement play in the representation of South Asian diasporic communities in contemporary diaspora literature and films, the question of female empowerment in neoliberal Western cities and the impact of trauma on female identities. It highlights the literary and cinematic portrayal of South Asian people's migration to the UK and the US after the Second World War and discusses how the identities of the female characters are transformed in neoliberal cities Focusing on South Asian women writers and directors who are first and second generation immigrants in the West the volume analyses how their works depict female empowerment in both British and American settings The book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature film studies diaspora studies gender studies and South Asian studies

Odisea nº 22 Carmen María Bretones Callejas,2022-03-23 Anuario dirigido y gestionado por miembros del rea de Filología Inglesa del Departamento de Filología de la Universidad de Almería con el propósito de ofrecer un foro de intercambio de producción científica en campos del conocimiento tan diversos como la lengua inglesa literatura en lengua inglesa didáctica del inglés traducción inglés para fines específicos y otros igualmente vinculados a los estudios ingleses Comenzó a publicarse en el año 2001

Adorned in Dreams Elizabeth Wilson,2003 When Adorned in Dreams was first published in 1985 Angela Carter described the book as the best I have read on the subject bar none From haute couture to haberdashery deviant dress to Dior Elizabeth Wilson traces the social and cultural history of fashion and its complex relationship to modernity She also discusses fashion's vociferous opponents from the dress reform movement to certain strands of feminism Wilson delights in the power of fashion to mark out identity or subvert it This brand new edition of her book follows recent developments to bring the story of fashionable dress up to date exploring the grunge look inspired by bands like Nirvana the boho chic of the mid 90's retro dressing and the meanings of dress from the veil to soccer player David Beckham's pink varnished toenails

International Bibliography of Sociology Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,2002-12 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge on the social sciences

Urban Futures Tim Hall,Malcolm Miles,2004-11-23 Urban Futures brings together commentaries from a wide range of contemporary disciplines and fields relevant to urban culture form and society The book concerns cities in the broadest sense not just as buildings and spaces but also as processes and events or sites of occupation in which meanings are constructed in many ways The contributors draw on their specialist areas of research to inform current debate but they also speculate as to how cities will be shaped in the 21st century Specific areas of research include homeless people's organisations and restoration ecology in brownfield sites in the USA post industrial urban landscapes post industrial economics tourism and cultural planning The book allows each writer to state their own conclusions but together they suggest that tomorrow's cities will while remaining locations of difference and contestation be rapidly evolving systems in which dwellers assume increasing responsibilities and power

Unhomed Pamela Robertson Wojcik,2024-04-09 In this rich cultural history Pamela Robertson Wojcik examines America's ambivalent and shifting attitude toward homelessness She considers film cycles from five distinct historical moments that show characters who are unhomed and placeless mobile rather than fixed characters who fail resist or opt out of the mandate for a home of one's own From the tramp films of the silent era to the 2021 Oscar winning Nomadland Wojcik reveals a tension in the American imaginary between viewing homelessness as deviant and threatening or emblematic of freedom and independence Blending social history with insights drawn from a complex array of films both canonical and fringe Wojcik effectively unhomes dominant narratives that cast aspirations for success and social mobility as the focus of American cinema reminding us that genres of precarity have been central to American cinema and the American story all along Why Loiter? Shilpa Phadke, Sameera Khan, Shilpa Ranade, 2011 Presenting an original take on women's safety in the cities of twenty first century India Why Loiter maps the exclusions and negotiations that women from different classes and communities encounter in the nation's urban public spaces Basing this book on more than three years of research in Mumbai Shilpa Phadke Sameera Khan and Shilpa Ranade argue that though women's access to urban public space has increased they still do not have an equal claim to public space in the city And they raise the question can women's access to public space be viewed in isolation from that of other marginal groups Going beyond the problem of the real and implied risks associated with women's presence in public they draw from feminist theory to argue that only by celebrating loitering a radical act for most Indian women can a truly equal global city be created Geographies of Urban Female Labor and Nationhood in Spanish Culture, 1880-1975 Mar

Soria, 2020-05-01 Mar Soria presents an innovative cultural analysis of female workers in Spanish literature and films Drawing from nation building theories the work of feminist geographers and ideas about the construction of the marginal subject in society Soria examines how working women were perceived as Other in Spain from 1880 to 1975 By studying the representation of these marginalized individuals in a diverse array of cultural artifacts Soria contends that urban women workers symbolized the desires and anxieties of a nation caught between traditional values and rapidly shifting socioeconomic forces Specifically the representation of urban female work became a mode of reinforcing and contesting dominant discourses of gender class space and nationhood in critical moments after 1880 when social and economic upheavals resulted in fears of impending national instability Through these cultural artifacts Spaniards wrestled with the unresolved contradictions in the gender and class ideologies used to construct and maintain the national imaginary Whether for reasons of inattention or disregard of issues surrounding class dynamics nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish literary and cultural critics have assumed that working women played only a minimal role in the development of Spain as a modern nation As a result relatively few critics have investigated cultural narratives of female labor during this period Soria demonstrates that without considering the role working women played in the construction and modernization of Spain our understanding of Spanish culture and life at that time remains incomplete Re-reading The Alexandria Quartet of

Lawrence Durrell (Durrell Studies 8) Richard Pine, 2023-08-25 Lawrence Durrell's The Alexandria Quartet is regarded as the central work in his fiction It has provoked critical commentary ever since the appearance of its individual volumes Justine 1957 Balthazar 1958 Mountolive and Clea 1959 and the publication in a one volume edition in 1962 Scores of Master's and PhD dissertations have been written since the 1960s on this most compelling and provocative novel Today The Alexandria

Quartet stimulates critical discussion in works addressing the city Durrell's representation of Alexandria the theory of relativity the role of memory the recurring feature of the doppelgänger and the presence of the Gothic uncanny his frequent references to D H Lawrence his treatment of women characters his interest in Gnosticism and his own description of the Quartet as a strange mixture of sex and the secret service This volume of essays addresses all these themes and brings together the mature work of four scholars on this central work of Durrell's fiction together with two essays on its sequels Tunc Nunquam 1968/70 and The Avignon Quintet 1974/85 Cities And Urban Cultures Stevenson, Deborah, 2003-04-01 Explores cities and urban life from the perspectives of both sociology and cultural theory Through an interdisciplinary approach the book demonstrates that the real city of physicality and struggle and the imagined city of representations are entwined in the construction of urban cultures Technologies and Utopias Maren Hartmann, 2004 Die Aufmerksamkeit auf die Rolle des Web als eine neue Technologie ist momentan in der Aufmerksamkeit begriffen Vor zehn Jahren aber kam das Web mit diversen Utopien im Gepäck Insbesondere im Vokabular welches versucht das Neue zu beschreiben finden sich utopische Elemente In dieser Studie wurde eine spezifische Untergruppe des Vokabulars untersucht die Nutzertypen The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume I Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2022-10-28 For architecture and urban space to have relevance in the 21st Century we cannot merely reignite the approaches of thought and design that were operative in the last century This is despite or because of the nexus between politics and space often being theorized as a representation or by product of politics As a symbol or an effect the spatial dimension is depoliticized Consequently architecture and the urban are halted from fostering any systematic change as they are secondary to the event and therefore incapable of performing any political role This handbook explores how architecture and urban space can unsettle the unquestioned construct of the spatial politics of governing Considering both ongoing and unprecedented global problems from violence and urban warfare the refugee crisis borderization detention camps terrorist attacks to capitalist urbanization inequity social unrest and climate change this handbook provides a comprehensive and multidisciplinary research focused on the complex nexus of politics architecture and urban space Volume I starts by pointing out the need to explore the politics of spatialization to make sense of the operational nature of spatial oppression in contemporary times The operative and active political reading of space is disseminated through five thematics Violence and War Machines Security and Borders Race Identity and Ideology Spectacle and the Screen and Mapping Landscapes and Big Data This first volume of the handbook frames cutting edge contemporary debates and presents studies of actual theories and projects that address spatial politics This Handbook will be of interest to anyone seeking to meaningfully disrupt the reduction of space to an oppressive or neutral backdrop of political realities Chapters 1 and 23 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Introducing Urban Anthropology Rivke Jaffe, Anouk de Koning, 2015-10-30 This book provides an up to date

introduction to the important and growing field of urban anthropology This is an increasingly critical area of study as more than half of the world's population now lives in cities and anthropological research is increasingly done in an urban context Exploring contemporary anthropological approaches to the urban the authors consider How can we define urban anthropology What are the main themes of twenty first century urban anthropological research What are the possible future directions in the field The chapters cover topics such as urban mobilities place making and public space production and consumption politics and governance These are illustrated by lively case studies drawn from a diverse range of urban settings in the global North and South Accessible yet theoretically incisive Introducing Urban Anthropology will be a valuable resource for anthropology students as well as of interest to those working in urban studies and related disciplines such as sociology and geography

Cities, Slums and Gender in the Global South Sylvia Chant, Cathy McIlwaine, 2015-12-22 Developing regions are set to account for the vast majority of future urban growth and women and girls will become the majority inhabitants of these locations in the Global South This is one of the first books to detail the challenges facing poorer segments of the female population who commonly reside in slums It explores the variegated disadvantages of urban poverty and slum dwelling from a gender perspective This book revolves around conceptualisation of the gender urban slum interface which explains key elements to understanding women's experiences in slum environments It has a specific focus on the ways in which gender inequalities are can be entrenched but also alleviated Included is a review of the demographic factors which are increasingly making cities everywhere feminised spaces such as increased rural urban migration among women demographic ageing and rising proportions of female headed households in urban areas Discussions focus in particular on education paid and unpaid work access to land property and urban services violence intra urban mobility and political participation and representation This book will be of use to researchers and professionals concerned with gender and development urbanisation and rural urban migration

Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23
With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world

Sydney and Its Waterway in Australian Literary Modernism Meg Brayshaw, 2021-02-01 This book examines literary representations of Sydney and its waterway in the context of Australian modernism and modernity in the interwar period Then as now Sydney Harbour is both an ecological wonder and laden with economic cultural historical and aesthetic significance for the city by its shores In Australia s earliest canon of urban fiction writers including Christina Stead Dymphna Cusack Eleanor Dark Kylie Tennant and M Barnard Eldershaw explore the myth and the reality of the city built on water Mapping Sydney via its watery and littoral places these writers trace impacts of empire commercial capitalism global trade and technology on the city while drawing on estuarine logics of flow and blockage circulation and sedimentation to innovate modes of writing temporally geographically and aesthetically specific to Sydney s provincial modernity Contributing to the growing field of oceanic or aqueous studies Sydney and its Waterway and Australian Modernism shows the capacity of water and human water relations to make both generative and disruptive contributions to urban topography and narrative topology A Companion to Feminist
