Contrasting Languages The Scope Of Contrastive Linguistics:

Contrasting Languages Tomasz P. Krzeszowski, 2011-06-01 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language. The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages. It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints. High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing.

Contrasting Languages Tomasz P. Krzeszowski, 1990 Contrasting Languages Tomasz P. Krzeszowski, 1990 Languages in Contact and Contrast Vladimir Ivir, Damir Kalogjera, 2011-04-20 The papers in this collection throw fresh light on the relation between language contact and contrastive linguistics. The book focuses equally on the mutual influence of linguistic systems in contact and on the language contrasts that govern the linguistic behaviour of the bilingual speaker.

Contrastive Rhetoric Ulla Connor, Ed Nagelhout, William V. Rozycki, 2008 Shows how a person's first language and culture influence writing in a second language.

Universal Grammar in Second-Language Acquisition Margaret Thomas, 2004-07-31 This book discusses how scholars in the west have conceived that human languages share important properties and how westerners have understood the nature of second or foreign language learning.

Cognitive Exploration of Language and Linguistics René Dirven, Marjolyn Verspoor, 2004-01-01 Cognitive Exploration of Language and Linguistics is designed as a comprehensive introductory text for first and second year university students of language and linguistics. It provides a chapter on each of the more established areas in linguistics such as lexicology, morphology, syntax, phonetics and phonology, historical linguistics and language typology and on some of the newer areas such as cross cultural semantics, pragmatics, text linguistics and contrastive linguistics. In each of these areas language is explored as part of a cognitive system comprising perception, emotion, categorisation, abstraction, processes and reasoning. All these cognitive abilities may interact with language and be influenced by language. Thus the study of language in a sense becomes the study of the way we express and exchange ideas and thoughts. This Second Revised Edition is corrected, updated and expanded.

Cognitive Exploration of Language and Linguistics is clearly presented and organized after having been tested in several courses in various countries. Includes exercises, solutions to be found on the Internet.

Out of Corpora , 2023-11-20 The new media revolution has led to a comprehensive digitization of our textual universe and the pervasive incorporation of the media into our everyday lives from mobile telephony to social media This calls for a concerted research effort uniting linguistics and other disciplines involved in language related research The massive growth in the amount diversity and availability of textual and multimodal language data for many of the world s languages poses several challenges In terms of theory and methods it forces us to rethink traditional notions of what linguistic corpora are and what role they play in linguistic description Established corpus linguistic methods such as concordancing and textual statistics are increasingly being complemented by visualization and geolocation of digital language data Empirically there is a growing need to document and analyse what people do with language in the increasingly technologized communicative ecology of the 21st century Language and Computers Studies in Digital Linguistics invites contributions which explore innovative intelligent and creative ways of using digital language data resources and infrastructure for linguistic description contribute to the development and refinement of usage based models in linguistics using both quantitative and qualitative methods analyse all aspects of digitally mediated communication from orthography to pragmatics and sociolinguistics Corpus Studies in Contrastive Linguistics Stefania Marzo, Kris Heylen, Gert De Sutter, 2012 Contrastive Linguistics like other linguistic disciplines is becoming more and more data oriented relying increasingly on the statistical analysis of corpus data to reveal and investigate the similarities and dissimilarities between languages This title illustrates this trend with a representative sample of contrastive linguistic case studies Modern Schools of Linguistic Thought Zeki Hamawand, 2020-05-21 This textbook provides a clear and concise overview of the main schools of linguistic thought and scholarship from the late 18th century to the present day examining the key tenets and leading figures of each approach and assessing their impact on the field Combining theory with practice the author aims to familiarise students with the mechanisms used in analysing language structures to acquaint them with the history of the discipline and to demonstrate how different sometimes competing approaches can be combined to understand language and linguistics today Written in an engaging and accessible manner this textbook is an ideal primer for new students of linguistics at any level as well as more experienced researchers seeking to understand the history of their field or the arguments and theories of other sub disciplines Connectives and Discourse Relations Sandrine Zufferey, Liesbeth Degand, 2024-02-29 Provides a cutting edge yet accessible introduction to connectives and discourse relations with examples from a range of languages Salish Languages and Linguistics Ewa Czaykowska-Higgins, M. Linguistic Interference and First-language Attrition Gergely Toth, 2007 Studies on the interaction of languages are gaining importance in today's world which is characterized by accelerated migration and increasing cultural exchange In contrast to most research in this field which concentrates on one embedded language against a matrix language Gergely Toth examines the linguistic behaviors in two immigrant speech communities German and Hungarian against the background of English The results of linguistic interference and the ongoing attrition process in these communities are the main focus of this book By offering a thorough description of linguistic biographical and sociolinguistic data spanning three generations in each community and by contrasting the findings and the detailed error statistics yielded by 500 sentences from each of these two non related embedded languages this work contributes to our understanding of contact linguistic mechanisms and sheds light on specific grammatical and lexical features that are most prone to attritional forces An in depth historical portrayal of these two speech communities in San Francisco and a complete list of the 1 000 sentences with all identified speaker errors complement the volume

Linguistics Discourse Analysis Contrastive Studies      Beyond Descriptive Translation Studies Anthony Pym, Miriam Shlesinger, Daniel Simeoni, 2008 To go beyond the work of a leading intellectual is rarely an unambiguous tribute However when Gideon Toury founded Descriptive Translation Studies as a research based discipline he laid down precisely that intellectual challenge not just to describe translation but to explain it through reference to wider relations That call offers at once a common base an open and multidirectional ambition and many good reasons for unambiguous tribute The authors brought together in this volume include key players in Translation Studies who have responded to Toury s challenge in one way or another Their diverse contributions address issues such as the sociology of translators contemporary changes in intercultural relations the fundamental problem of defining translations the nature of explanation and case studies including pseudotranslation in Renaissance Italy Sherlock Holmes in Turkey and the coffee and sugar economy in Brazil All acknowledge Translation Studies as a research based space for conceptual coherence and creativity all seek to explain as well as describe In this sense we believe that Toury s call has been answered beyond expectations      Corpora and Cross-linguistic Research Stig Johansson, Signe Oksefjell Ebeling, Signe Oksefjell, 1998 From the contents On the role of corpora in cross linguistic research Stig Johansson Classifying translational correspondences Martha Thunes A translational basis for semantics Helge Dyvik Connectors and sentence openings in English and Swedish Bengt Altenberg Thematic structure in translation between English and Norwegian Hilde Hasselgard Epistemic predicates in contrast Karin Aijmer
