Contrastive Rhetoric Revisited And Redefined:

Contrastive Rhetoric Revisited and Redefined Clayann Gilliam Panetta, 2000 The theory of contrastive rhetoric was first put forth by Robert Kaplan in the mid 1960s to explain the differences in writing and discourse between students who were native speakers of English and their international counterparts Over the past three decades contrastive rhetoric theory has been used primarily by linguists in language centers and involved in ESL teaching As the number of international students in American universities has continued to grow contrastive rhetoric has become increasingly relevant to all disciplines and to rhetoric and composition in particular This volume breaks important new ground in its examination of contrastive rhetoric in the exclusive context of composition The editor has assembled contributors with varying areas of specialty to demonstrate how the traditional definition of contrastive rhetoric theory can be applied to composition in new and innovative ways and how it can be redefined through the lens of addressing difference issues in writing Thus the volume as a whole clarifies how the basic principles of contrastive rhetoric theory can help composition instructors to understand writing and rhetorical decisions With the inclusion of current research on multicultural issues this collection is appropriate for all instructors in ESL writing including teachers in rhetoric composition and linguistics It can also be used as an advanced text for students in these areas Wherever it is employed it is certain to offer significant new insights into the application of contrastive rhetoric within the composition discipline

Contrastive Rhetoric Revisited and Redefined Clayann Gilliam Panetta, 2000-11 This volume demonstrates the role of contrastive rhetoric in ESL courses and offers suggestions for using CR toward cultural understanding of rhetorical decisions For scholars and educators in composition rhetoric education ESL and related areas

Exploring the Dynamics of Second Language Writing Barbara Kroll, 2003-04-14 A collection of 13 original articles this book is intended to provide a series of discussions about multiple aspects of second language writing presenting chapters that collectively address a range of issues that are important to new teachers at the post secondary level The chapters provide scholarly visions insight and interpretation oriented toward explaining the field of teaching academic writing to non native speakers The book is designed to provide foundational content knowledge in this area each chapter authored by recognized experts in the field Throughout the chapters presentation and review of scholarship is presented primarily in the interest of understanding how such knowledge directly or potentially impart teaching making this a pedagogically relevant book In addition to helping train new teachers the book will serve as an updated reference book for practicing teachers and scholars to consult

Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning Eli Hinkel, 2005-03-23 This landmark volume provides a broad based state of the art overview of current knowledge and research into second language teaching and learning Fifty seven chapters are organized in eight thematic sections social contexts of second language learning research methodologies in second language learning acquisition and teaching contributions of applied linguistics to the teaching and learning of second language skills second language processes and development teaching methods and curricula issues in second or foreign language testing and assessment identity culture and critical pedagogy in second language teaching and learning and important considerations in language planning and policies The Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning is intended for researchers practitioners graduate students and faculty in teacher education and applied linguistics programs teachers teacher trainers teacher trainees curriculum and material developers and all other professionals in the field of second language teaching and learning IT Outsourcing: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications St.Amant, Kirk,2009-07-31 This book covers a wide range of topics involved in the outsourcing of information technology through state of the art collaborations of international field experts Provided by publisher Assessment in the Second Language Writing Classroom Deborah Crusan,2010-07

Assessment in the Second Language Writing Classroom is a teacher and prospective teacher friendly book uncomplicated by the language of statistics The book is for those who teach and assess second language writing in several different contexts the IEP the developmental writing classroom and the sheltered composition classroom In addition teachers who experience a mixed population or teach cross cultural composition will find the book a valuable resource Other books have thoroughly covered the theoretical aspects of writing assessment but none have focused as heavily as this book does on pragmatic classroom aspects of writing assessment Further no book to date has included an in depth examination of the machine scoring of writing and its effects on second language writers Crusan not only makes a compelling case for becoming knowledgeable about L2 writing assessment but offers the means to do so Her highly accessible thought provoking presentation of the conceptual and practical dimensions of writing assessment both for the classroom and on a larger scale promises to engage readers who have previously found the technical detail of other works on assessment off putting as well as those who have had no previous exposure to the study of assessment at all Linguistic and Cultural Online

Communication Issues in the Global Age St.Amant, Kirk,2007-03-31 This book provides readers with in depth information on the various linguistic cultural technological legal and other factors that affect interactions in online exchanges It provides information that implements effective decisions related to the uses and designs of online media when interacting with individuals from other cultures Provided by publisher Writing, Imitation, and Performance Irene L. Clark,2022-12-02 This book reconsiders imitation as a valuable pedagogical approach in Writing Studies Countering concerns about product oriented teaching formulaic writing paternalistic or elitist pedagogy and plagiarism the book maintains that the use of imitation can offer a writer greater insight and help to develop a clear writerly identity Positing that writers often use imitation as a step toward developing new directions structures and styles and that this imitation is indeed a form of performance the author explores the neuropsychological aspect of imitation to show how it is a valid form of writing instruction She explains how learning experience and role playing are manifested in the brain and influence one's sense of self one's identity The book emphasizes that imitation can provide students with opportunities to perform habitually as writers readers and critical thinkers enabling them to develop new understandings and confidence in their ability to improve It also includes suggestions for classroom application written by Craig A Meyer This book offers important insights for scholars and teachers of writing and composition education and communication studies Writing Spaces Dana Driscoll,Matthew Vetter,2020-03-07 Volumes in Writing Spaces Readings on Writing offer multiple perspectives on a wide range of topics about writing In each chapter authors present their unique views insights and strategies for writing by addressing the undergraduate reader directly Drawing on their own experiences these teachers as writers invite students to join in the larger conversation about the craft of writing Consequently each essay functions as a standalone text that can easily complement other selected readings in first year writing or writing intensive courses across the disciplines at any level Volume 3 continues the tradition of previous volumes with topics such as voice and style in writing rhetorical appeals discourse communities multimodal composing visual rhetoric credibility exigency working with personal experience in academic writing globalized writing and rhetoric constructing scholarly ethos imitation and style and rhetorical punctuation

Encyclopedia of Virtual Communities and Technologies Dasgupta, Subhasish,2005-10-31 This encyclopedia of virtual communities and technologies provides a much needed integrated overview of all the critical concepts technologies and issues in the area of virtual communities Provided by publisher Literacy as Translingual Practice Suresh Canagarajah,2013-03-05 The term translingual highlights the reality that people always shuttle across languages communicate in hybrid languages and thus enjoy multilingual competence In the context of migration transnational economic and cultural relations digital communication and globalism increasing contact is taking place between languages and communities In these contact zones new genres of writing and new textual conventions are emerging that go beyond traditional dichotomies that treat languages as separated from each other and texts and writers as determined by one language or the other Pushing forward a translingual orientation to writing one that is in tune with the new literacies and communicative practices flowing into writing classrooms and demanding new pedagogies and policies this volume is structured around five concerns refining the theoretical premises learning from community practices debating the role of code meshed products identifying new research directions and developing sound pedagogical applications These themes are explored by leading scholars from L1 and L2 composition rhetoric and applied linguistics education theory and classroom practice and diverse ethnic rhetorics Timely and much needed Literacy as Translingual Practice is essential reading for students researchers and practitioners across these fields Bridging Transcultural Divides Xianlin Song,Kate Cadman,2012 The impressive and stimulating essays in Bridging Transcultural Divides deal with the cultural and educational issues in the Australian context The books central message is that education for Asian students in Australia and more broadly in the West can no longer been seen as a one way transfer of knowledge but must be understood as a process of reciprocal learning in which both teachers and students are changed by the experience Prof Tim Wright University of Sheffield
