Maritime law in the second half of the 20th century. Selected articles Jan Łopuski, 2008 The book contains a selection of articles written in the years 1962-2004 and published in English or French languages. They provide information and present views of the author on matters relating to the development and transformations which occurred in maritime law in the second half of the 20th century. Articles on Polish maritime law are presented separately from many numerous articles on international and transnational maritime law. The articles compiled in this book illustrate the process of important changes and developments occurred in maritime law in the said period. They indicate how problems created by the progress in the organisation of maritime trade, technical innovations and political changes on the map of the world were identified, considered and sometimes solved. In the latter case, the relevant article may have only a historical significance. At the same time, some traditional institutions of maritime law were changing their role and needed a reappraisal and revision.

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
