Bibliographic Guide to Latin American Studies 1996 G K HALL, G. K. Hall and Co. Staff, 1997-07 International Accounting, General Issues and Classification Christopher Nobes, 1996 This volume contains 21 papers divided into three parts introductory issues the measurement and effects of diversity and classification The final parts look at the scope of and the reasons for studying international accounting There are also some papers on the causes of international differences in particular the effects of international influences on a country's accounting practices. The papers in the second part examine the degree of accounting difference internationally and the reactions to this of companies and users of financial statements. The third part looks at several attempts to put countries into groups by similarities and differences in accounting. Several of these papers refer critically to others in the group so that a corpus of knowledge in this field has been built up.

Developments in International Accounting Christopher Nobes, 2004. The contributors to this volume present a thorough overview of recent developments in the area of international accounting. International Accounting M. Zafar Iqbal, 2002. This text contains current and relevant information about the global marketplace free from regional and cultural bias. Written by authors with multinational and multicultural backgrounds this text is free of cultural bias and therefore provides complete coverage of every issue from every viewpoint.

Developments in the International Harmonization of Accounting Christopher Nobes, 2004. The measurement of harmonization became a well established area of academic research from the late 1980s and the discerning selection of papers in this volume reveal a continuing interest in the topic by a large number of researchers. The coverage is divided into two parts. The first part concerns the measurement of harmonisation and the second contains analysis of and comment on harmonization. This authoritative new volume will be of great interest to all those concerned with the issue of harmonization in international accounting.

International Accounting and Reporting Thomas G. Evans, Martin E. Taylor, Robert J. Rolfe, 1999. American Book Publishing Record, 2003. Review Copy International Accounting Choi, Mueller, 1998-11. Training of Foreign Affairs Personnel United States. Congress. Senate. Developments in Financial Reporting by Multinationals Clare B. Roberts, 2004. This volume is concerned with financial reporting issues resulting from the growth and spread of multinational corporations. The book consists of up to date readings from a broad range of international journals which look at and evaluate the financial accounting techniques adopted in different parts of the world for dealing with issues such as segment reporting, disclosure standards, financial reporting and stock markets. The final part deals with the reporting practices of individual companies over time. This insightful volume will be of value to researchers and practitioners alike.

Journal of Economic Literature, 2004. Training of Foreign Affairs Personnel. Hearings ... 88-1 ... April 4, 5, 29; May 1, 1963 United States. Congress. Senate. Foreign Relations, 1963. International Accounting Frederick D. S. Choi, Carol Ann Frost, Gary K. Meek, 2002. In countries such as the UK the energy used in constructing, occupying and operating buildings represents approximately 50% of greenhouse gas emissions. Pressure to improve the environmental performance of buildings during both construction and occupancy, particularly to reduce carbon emissions from buildings, has become intense. Understandably legislation and regulation are driving green development and compliance. And this is happening in a wide variety of ways. This review of the law in key jurisdictions for the research community, lawyers, the construction industry and government examines some of the mechanisms in place from the more traditional building regulation controls to green leases and the law relating to buildings and their natural environment Members of the CIB TG69 research group on Green Buildings and the Law review aspects of the law relating to green development in a range of jurisdictions Financial Reporting by Multinationals Carol A. Adams, Clare B. Roberts, 1996 Financial Reporting by Multinationals is concerned with financial reporting issues resulting from the growth and spread of multinational corporations The book consists of up to date readings from a broad range of international journals which look at and evaluate the financial accounting techniques adopted in different parts of the world for dealing with issues such as group accounting segmental reporting foreign currency translation and inflation accounting It also includes articles concerned with financial reporting issues resulting from the globalization of world stock markets from a corporate investor and stock market perspective The final section considers issues for other users of multinational financial reports such as host governments and employees Adoption of Anglo-American models of corporate governance and financial reporting in China Huiying Wu, Christopher Patel, 2015-01-16 This monograph examines the adoption of Anglo American models of corporate governance and financial reporting in China It shows how the loose coupling between regulations and actual operations is shaped by the interplay between institutional pressures and organizations conflicts of interest and power dependence within the local context
