Yusuf, 2005-11-01 Founded in 1993 the African Yearbook now published under the auspices of the African Foundation for International Law is the only scholarly publication devoted exclusively to the study development dissemination and wider appreciation of international law in Africa as a whole Through the scholarly analysis of international legal issues of particular relevance to the African continent it also contributes to the acceptance of and respect for the rule of law in intra African relations and for the principles of international law in general Its uniqueness however goes beyond this for through its special themes and general articles it has succeeded over the years to serve as an intellectual forum where the development of international law is viewed as being integral to Africa's own development Through the study and analysis of emerging legal issues of particular relevance to Africa such as the creation of viable continental institutions capable of promoting unity and security for the peoples of the continent the effective protection of human rights the need for accountability for mass killings and massive violations of the rule of law the promotion of a rule based democratic culture the role of African countries in a globalizing world economy and in international trade relations the Yearbook strives to be responsive to the intellectual needs of African countries in the area of international law and to the continuing struggle for creating an environment conducive to the rule of law throughout the continent The Yearbook also provides ready access to the basic documents of African international organizations by regularly publishing the resolutions and decisions of regional and sub regional organizations as well as the conventions protocols and declarations adopted by pan african agencies Progrès de la coopération dans le domaine des eaux transfrontières Economic Commission for Europe, UN Water, UNECE, UNESCO, 2019-12-31

Géopolitique et Puissance par la Géographie: Analyse des Dynamiques de la Politique Mondiale Boreas M.L.

Saage, G opolitique et Puissance par la G ographie offre une analyse approfondie des m canismes qui r gissent les relations internationales travers le prisme de la g ographie politique Cet ouvrage examine comment la configuration spatiale influence les dynamiques de pouvoir entre les tats et fa onne la politique mondiale contemporaine Le livre s articule autour de cinq axes majeurs Dans un premier temps il explore les fondements th oriques de la g opolitique en analysant comment les ressources naturelles la topographie et le climat constituent des facteurs déterminants dans l'exercice de la puissance tatique. L'évolution historique des concepts géopolitiques y est également retracée et théorise par les approches modernes. La deuxième partie aborde les dimensions spatiales de la politique mondiale en étudiant les dynamiques propres aux grands blocs continentaux. L'importance stratégique des espaces maritimes et les zones frontalières comme foyers potentiels de tensions internationales. L'ouvrage analyse ensuite les stratégies géopolitiques contemporaines notamment la politique d'isolement adoptée par certains pays. Les approches expansionnistes et les initiatives multilatérales. Cette section met en lumière comment les acteurs internationaux instrumentalisent l'espace pour servir leurs intérêts. Une attention particulière est accordée aux ressources comme facteurs de puissance géopolitique qu'il s'agisse des enjeux énergétiques des dépendances en eau ou de la sécurité alimentaire. Ces ressources constituent des leviers d'influence majeurs dans les relations internationales. Enfin, le livre propose des recommandations concrètes pour les acteurs géopolitiques allant de la planification stratégique des infrastructures à l'évaluation des risques territoriaux en passant par l'élaboration de stratégies spatiales durables. Cet ouvrage constitue une référence pour comprendre comment la géographie politique structure les rapports de force internationaux et influence les stratégies d'isolement ou d'expansion des pays dans le système mondial actuel.
