Highfill, Jr., Philip H. Highfill, Kalman A. Burnim, Edward A. Langhans, 1973-12 Tobe completed in 12 volumes this monumental work here begins publication with the first two volumes Abaco to Bertie and Bertin to Byzard When completed it is expected that the biographical dictionary will include information on more than 8 500 individuals Hundreds of printed sources have been searched for this project and dozens of repositories combed and the names of personnel listed have been filtered through parish registers whenever possible From published and unpublished sources from wills archives of professional societies and guilds from records of colleges universities and clubs and from the contributions of selfless scholars the authors have here assembled material which il luminesces theatrical and musical activity in London in the 1660-1800 period. The information here amassed will doubtless be augmented by other specialists in Restoration and eighteenth century theatre and drama but it is not likely that the number of persons now known surely or conjectured finally to have been connected with theatrical enterprise in this period will ever be increased considerably. Certainly the contributions made here add immeasurably to existing knowledge and in a number of instances correct standard histories or reference works. The accompanying illustrations estimated to be some 1,400 likenesses at least one picture of each subject for whom a portrait exists may prove to be a useful feature of the work. The authors have gone beyond embellishment of the text and have attempted to list all original portraits any knowledge of which is now recoverable and have tried to ascertain the present location of portraits in every medium.

A Biographical Dictionary of Actors, Actresses, Musicians, Dancers, Managers & Other Stage Personnel in London, 1660-1800

Philip H. Highfill, Kalman A. Burnim, Edward A. Langhans, 1993. Volume 16 completes the magisterial Biographical Dictionary which provides information on some 8,500 of the people who contributed to the patent theatres, opera houses, fair booths, concert halls and pleasure gardens in and around London during the period from 1660 to 1800. The final volume centers on Margaret Woffington, the most beautiful woman that ever adorned a theatre, the judgment of Thomas Davies evidenced by the nine included portraits. Celebrity, Performance, Reception David Worrall, 2013-09-26. By 1800 London had as many theatre seats for sale as the city's population. This was the start of the capital's rise as a centre for performing arts. Bringing to life a period of extraordinary theatrical vitality, David Worrall re-examines the beginnings of celebrity culture amidst a monopolistic commercial theatrical marketplace. The book presents an innovative transposition of social assemblage theory into performance history. It argues that the cultural meaning of drama changes with every change in the performance location. This theoretical model is applied to a wide range of archival materials including censors.
