Cowboys are My Weakness Pam Houston,1992 Presents a collection of twelve stories about women in the West
Pam Houston's Cowboys are My Weakness ,2002      Landscapes of the New West Krista Comer,1999 In the early 1970s empowered by the civil rights and women s movements a new group of women writers began speaking to the American public Their topic broadly defined was the postmodern American West By the mid 1980s their combined works made for a bona fide literary groundswell in both critical and commercial terms However as Krista Comer notes despite the attentions of publishers the media and millions of readers literary scholars have rarely addressed this movement or its writers Too many critics Comer argues still enamored of western images that are both masculine and antimodern have been slow to reckon with the emergence of a new far more feminine postmodern multiracial and urban west Here she calls for a redesign of the field of western cultural studies one that engages issues of gender and race and is more self conscious about space itself_ especially that cherished symbol of western authenticity open landscape Surveying works by Joan Didion Wanda Coleman Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Barbara Kingsolver Pam Houston Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros and Mary Clearman Blew Comer shows how these and other contemporary women writers have mapped new geographical imaginations upon the cultural and social spaces of today s American West      New Westers Michael L. Johnson,1996 These New Westers Johnson reveals line dance and two step listen to Garth Brooks and George Strait drink beer from long neck bottles wear clothes ordered from Sheplers watch rodeo on ESPN play Wild West arcade games eat fajitas and tacos in stuccoed Mexican cafes collect Western art and Native American crafts and vacation in and move to the West New Westers rewrite the history and biography of the West They reimagine the West in Cowboy sagas and poetry Native American novels Mexican American drama nature writing revisionist films eclectic visual artwork and neo traditional music They flock to movies like Thelma and Louise Unforgiven and Dances with Wolves watch mini series like Lonesome Dove and read bestsellers like The Crossing and All The Pretty Horses New Westers are men and women who may or may not have ever hitched up a horse but who crave connection with the West At the end of a century of urbanization technological change and cultural confusion they seek a more natural home a fuller and wider sense of place and a deeper and more colorful personal identity They also want to revive the dream of the mythic West but on different terms They overrun the Old West and yet strive to preserve it raising troubling new concerns about the differences between the mythic and the real between traditional and contemporary cultural influences      Laughing at the Darkness: Postmodernism and Optimism in American Humour Paul McDonald,2010-01-01 Paul McDonald s book is the second in our Contemporary American Literature series edited by Christopher Gair and Aliki Varvogli Given that postmodernism has been associated with doubt chaos relativism and the disappearance of reality it may appear difficult to reconcile with American optimism Laughing at the Darkness demonstrates that this is not always the case In examining the work of among others Sherman Alexie Woody Allen Douglas

Coupland Jonathan Safran Foer Bill Hicks David Mamet and Philip Roth McDonald shows how American humorists bring their comedy to bear on some of the negative implications of philosophical postmodernism and in so doing explore ways of reclaiming value

Fast Cars and Bad Girls Deborah Paes de Barros, 2004 Fast Cars and Bad Girls Nomadic Subjects and Women's Road Stories explores the road narratives of women and the various ways they work re maps American space Moving from Mary Rowlandson's famous captivity narrative to the frontier texts of the American West to the postapocalyptic novels of postmodern experience Fast Cars and Bad Girls interrogates the intersections of nomadic theory and contemporary feminism What would happen the text queries the reader if Jack Kerouac had gone on the road with a baby in the back seat Women's road texts are different insists author Deborah Paes de Barros notions such as resistance to the West the revision of the natural world mother daughter relationships avant garde angst and feminist utopias construct this discussion of women travel writers

A Little More About Me Pam Houston, 2000-10 The author of Cowboys Are My Weakness and Waltzing the Cat turns to nonfiction with essays that celebrate real life adventures spanning five years and five continents Through her stories readers meet some good dogs a few good men and the occasional grizzly as Houston proves that fiction has nothing on real life featured masculine figures who choose love and community over the path of the stoic loner committed solely to duty The American heroic quest of the past 25 years increasingly has involved a reclamation of home creating a place for the Hero at the hearth part of a more intimate community with less restrictive gender and racial boundaries The author presents pieces of contemporary popular culture that create the complex mosaic of the present day American heroic ideal Hollywood popular films are examined that best represent the often painful shift from traditional heroic masculinity to a masculinity that is less exceptional and more vulnerable There are also chapters on how issues of race and gender intersect with the new masculinity and on subgenres of 1990s films that also developed this postfeminist masculinity Faith Victoria

Zackheim,2015-02-24 Whether believer skeptic agnostic atheist or something other these twenty four authors share a fascinating daring and multifaceted perspective on what faith means or doesn't mean The collection of personal essays includes bestselling authors such as Anne Perry who writes about a deeply spiritual faith that embraces and sustains her through every step of her life Caroline Leavitt writes about tarot cards mediums and quantum physics to explain her concept of faith Afghan American author Tamim Ansary beautifully captures his childhood curiosity amidst his Islamic views There is the irrepressible Malachy McCourt's anti religion rant and then Pam Houston's signature wit and sense of irony which gives the question of faith a surprising twist West of 98 Lynn Stegner,Russell Rowland,2012-07-25 What does it mean to be a westerner With all the mythology that has grown up about the American West is it even possible to describe how it was how it is here in the West just that in the words of Lynn Stegner Starting with that challenge Stegner and Russell Rowland invited several dozen members of the western literary tribe to write about living in the West and being a western writer in particular West of 98 gathers sixty six literary testimonies in essays and poetry from a stellar collection of writers who represent every state west of the 98th parallel a kind of Greek chorus of the most prominent voices in western literature today who seek to characterize the West as each of us grew to know it and equally important the West that is still becoming In West of 98 western writers speak to the ways in which the West imprints itself on the people who live there as well as how the people of the West create the personality of the region The writers explore the western landscape how it has been revered and abused across centuries and the inescapable limitations its aridity puts on all dreams of conquest and development They dismantle the boosterism of manifest destiny and the cowboy and mountain man ethos of every man for himself and show instead how we must create new narratives of cooperation if we are to survive in this spare and beautiful country The writers seek to define the essence of both actual and metaphoric wilderness as they journey toward a West that might honestly be called home A collective declaration not of our independence but of our interdependence with the land and with each other West of 98 opens up a whole new panorama of the western experience The Brokeback Book William R.
