Cowley And East Oxford Past And Present:

Cowley and East Oxford Past and Present Malcolm Graham, Lawrence Walker, 2001-02-05 Across Magdalen Bridge and away from the architectural delights of the University City there exist other areas of Oxford less picturesque perhaps but each with a fascinating history of its own St Clement's developed as a mediaeval suburb which grew suddenly in the early 1800s and became part of Oxford City in 1836 East Oxford now an extraordinarily cosmopolitan area of the city was mostly built across open countryside in Victorian times Cowley still a quite separate village at the end of the First World War became a large industrial and residential suburb of Oxford within a decade thanks to William Morris and his burgeoning motor industry Blackbird Leys was farmland until the 1950s when it became the site for a large housing estate The development of these contrasting areas is explored through this fine collection of over 230 photographs which compares views dating from the 1820s to the 1970s with their present day equivalents Well known Oxford local historian Malcolm Graham has selected the historic images and his informative captions give a real context to the old and new views The modern photographs some revealing massive change others a surprising degree of continuity are the work of Laurence Waters a professional photographer and keen railway historian Their combined efforts have created a book which will appeal to everyone with an interest in Oxford Town rather than Gown London, Past and Present Henry Benjamin

Music and Identity in Postcolonial British South-Asian Literature Christin Hoene, 2014-08-27 This book examines the role of music in British South Asian postcolonial literature asking how music relates to the construction of postcolonial identity It focuses on novels that explore the postcolonial condition in India Pakistan and the United Kingdom Vikram Seth's A Suitable Boy Amit Chaudhuri's Afternoon Raag Suhayl Saadi's Psychoraag Hanif Kureishi's The Buddha of Suburbia and The Black Album and Salman Rushdie's The Ground Beneath Her Feet with reference to other texts such as E M Forster's A Passage to India and Vikram Seth's An Equal Music The analyzed novels feature different kinds of music from Indian classical to non classical traditions and from Western classical music to pop music and rock n roll Music is depicted as a cultural artifact and as a purely aestheticized art form at the same time As a cultural artifact music derives meaning from its socio cultural context of production and serves as a frame of reference to explore postcolonial identities on their own terms As purely aesthetic art music escapes its contextual meaning The transgressive qualities of music render it capable of expressing identities irrespective of origin and politics of location Thereby music in the novels marks a very productive space to imagine the postcolonial nation and to rewrite imperial history to express the cultural hybridity of characters in between nations to analyze the state of the nation and life in the multicultural diaspora of contemporary Great Britain and to explore the ramifications of cultural globalization versus cultural imperialism It will be a useful research and teaching tool for those interested in postcolonial literature music studies cultural studies contemporary literature and South Asian literature The

Thomas,M. Tvrđý,2012-12-06 This book is about the ways in which two western European countries attempt to cope with the changing demands of urban development In particular it is concerned with the differences in approach of the Dutch and English planning systems and the contrasting ways in which they are used to guide promote and control development The book results from a research study in which members of staff at Delft of Technology and Oxford Polytechnic compared local planning and University development in the Netherlands and England The aim was to investigate ways in which development was promoted and controlled under different planning systems The research was subsequently developed along two converging lines One was an examination of over twenty case studies of plan making and the control of development in the cities of Leiden and Oxford The other was a study of the two planning systems and the ways in which the respective approaches to planning were seen to relate closely to the contrasting legal and administrative systems and differences in development practice The convergence of the two lines of enquiry produced a tension between empirical observations and theoretical supposition which led to a fruitful development of ideas about the nature of the two planning systems and how they promote and control development Kinship and Continuity Alison Shaw,2014-02-04 Kinship and Continuity is a vivid ethnographic account of the development of the Pakistani presence in Oxford from after World War II to the present day Alison Shaw addresses the dynamics of migration patterns of residence and kinship ideas about health and illness and notions of political and religious authority and discusses the transformations and continuities of the lives of British Pakistanis against the backdrop of rural Pakistan and local socio economic changes This is a fully updated revised edition of the book first published in 1988 The Almanac of British Politics Byron Criddle,2005-08-19 This new edition of The Almanac of British Politics has been thoroughly revised and updated since the second successive Labour election victory in 2001 It is firmly established as the definitive guide to the political map of the United Kingdom covering in detail each of the constituencies sending representatives to the House of Commons It also contains insightful biographical sketches of every single Member of Parliament The Almanac gives a comprehensive seat by seat analysis of all parliamentary constituencies describing their social economic and political characteristics This edition also includes new statistics for each seat including electorate and turnout average property values per constituency unemployment premature mortality index and rank order financial deprivation This is the essential reference work on British politics for students academics journalists and psephologists Oral History,1984 A History of the Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,2024-12-31 This book the first history of the Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity traces the origins of the order in the late nineteenth century through today Though clergy were the theological voice of the Oxford Movement the role of sisterhoods included advancing the catholic faith among the laity through religious education parish mission guilds for women and children spiritual guidance instruction in the sacraments the ecclesiastical arts and humanitarian relief Feminist Comedy Willow White,2024-06-14 Feminist Comedy argues that the development of modern feminist thought is closely linked to theatrical comedy Through analysis of plays by Catherine Clive Frances Brooke Frances Burney Hannah Cowley and Elizabeth Inchbald the book demonstrates that these authors turned to comedy as a site of feminist critique practice and experimentation Reading Between the Lines Kenneth Brophy,2015-10-05 Reading Between the Lines The Neolithic Cursus Monuments of Scotland is the first systematic analysis of Scotland s cursus monuments and is written by one of the foremost scholars of the Neolithic in Scotland Drawing on fifteen years of experience of cropmark interpretation as well as his involvement in several excavations of cursus monuments and contemporary sites Kenneth Brophy uncovers some of the secrets of the Neolithic landscape While outlining the physical characteristics of the cursus this book also addresses the limitations of this kind of typological description when applied to monuments which varied so remarkably in terms of materiality and size Moving beyond a morphological account Brophy considers what can be said of this diverse group of sites and how they were actually built and used in prehistory in light of several decades of aerial reconnaissance and excavation in Scotland Through a close study of the differences as well as the similarities between these structures this book offers a nuanced account of cursus monuments finally allowing this important monument type to be better understood and placed alongside others of the period Offering exciting new ways of thinking about these enigmatic yet important monuments Reading Between the Lines The Neolithic Cursus Monuments of Scotland is an essential resource for students and specialists in British prehistory providing an introduction to the Early Neolithic archaeology of lowland Scotland as well as a meditation on broader aspects of monumentality and architecture
