Applied Theosophy and Other Essays Henry Steel Olcott, 1975 Paschal Beverly Randolph John Patrick Deveney, 1997-01-01 His most enduring claim to fame is the crucial role he played in the transformation of spiritualism a medium's passive reception of messages from the spirits of the dead into occultism the active search for personal spiritual realization and inner vision The Theosophist ,1899 Outside the Fold Gauri Viswanathan, 2021-05-11 Outside the Fold is a radical reexamination of religious conversion Gauri Viswanathan skillfully argues that conversion is an interpretive act that belongs in the realm of cultural criticism To that end this work examines key moments in colonial and postcolonial history to show how conversion questions the limitations of secular ideologies particularly the discourse of rights central to both the British empire and the British nation state Implicit in such questioning is an attempt to construct an alternative epistemological and ethical foundation of national community Viswanathan grounds her study in an examination of two simultaneous and she asserts linked events the legal emancipation of religious minorities in England and the acculturation of colonial subjects to British rule The author views these two apparently disparate events as part of a common pattern of national consolidation that produced the English state She seeks to explain why resistance in both cases frequently took the form of religious conversion especially to minority or alternative religions Confronting the general characterization of conversion as assimilative and annihilating of identity Viswanathan demonstrates that a willful change of religion can be seen instead as an act of opposition Outside the Fold concludes that as a form of cultural crossing conversion comes to represent a vital release into difference Through the figure of the convert Viswanathan addresses the vexing question of the role of belief and minority discourse in modern society She establishes new points of contact between the convert as religious dissenter and as colonial subject This convergence provides a transcultural perspective not otherwise visible in literary and historical texts It allows for radically new readings of significant figures as diverse as John Henry Newman Pandita Ramabai Annie Besant and B R Ambedkar as well as close studies of court cases census reports and popular English fiction These varying texts illuminate the means by which discourses of religious identity are produced contained or opposed by the languages of law reason and classificatory knowledge Outside the Fold is a challenging provocative contribution to the multidisciplinary field of cultural studies Presenting Japanese Buddhism to the West Judith Snodgrass, 2003-12-04 Japanese Buddhism was introduced to a wide Western audience when a delegation of Buddhist priests attended the World's Parliament of Religions part of the 1893 Columbian Exposition in Chicago In describing and analyzing this event Judith Snodgrass challenges the predominant view of Orientalism as a one way process by which Asian cultures are understood strictly through Western ideas Restoring agency to the Buddhists themselves she shows how they helped reformulate Buddhism as a modern world religion with specific appeal to the West while simultaneously reclaiming authority for the tradition within a rapidly changing Japan Snodgrass explains how the Buddhism presented in Chicago was shaped by the institutional social and political imperatives of the Meiji Buddhist revival movement in Japan and was further determined by the Parliament itself which despite its rhetoric of fostering universal brotherhood and international goodwill was thoroughly permeated with confidence in the superiority of American Protestantism Additionally in the context of Japan's intensive diplomatic campaign to renegotiate its treaties with Western nations the nature of Japanese religion was not simply a religious issue Snodgrass argues but an integral part of Japan's bid for acceptance by the international community A Collection of Fiction and Essays by Occult Writers on Supernatural, Metaphysical and Esoteric Subjects Manly P. Hall, Helena P. Blavatsky, Aleister Crowley, Algernon Blackwood, Arthur Machen, Franz Hartmann, Lafcadio Hearn, Lord Dunsany, C. W. Leadbeater, William Q.
