Approaching The Crossroads 4 Stories Of Adolescence:

NARRATIVE APPROACHES IN SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE Edith M. Freeman, 2015-08-01 The purpose of this book is to explain the process in which individuals tell and retell their narratives especially during developmental and other transitions in order to create meaning and continuity in their lives The other goal is to clarify the nature and types of narratives that emerge in people's natural environments during such transitions and during counseling sessions with social workers psychologists psychiatrists counselors nurses and other service providers Further it also describes practical narratives and approaches and includes relevant case examples to illustrate how those approaches have been applied effectively in social work and other helping professions The text is organized in two sections Part One is focused on the theoretical foundations of narrative practice and on five basic principles The five chapters of Part Two demonstrate the application of advanced narrative skills in practice with clients who are challenged by various life span transitions Clients narratives are included in each chapter to illustrate particular advanced narrative skills and major discussion points The cultural context of such narratives may involve a combination of such factors as clients race and ethnicity language religion and spirituality gender age sexual orientation disabling conditions social class and location Tables and figures included in each chapter illustrate specifically how particular narrative strategies can be used with clients and also clarify how to use those approaches in combination with other practice frameworks including family systems task centered crisis solution focused group mutual aid cognitive behavioral and brief theoretical approaches In addition to the individual family community organizational and cultural narratives the book also includes other story forms such as poetry metaphors proverbs parables letters personal journals art and music Resources in Education ,2000-04 Communication, Race, and Family Thomas J. Socha, Rhunette C. Diggs, 1999-08 This volume examines how family communication affects our understanding of race and race relations For scholars studying diversity issues intercultural communication family communication and related areas Approaching The Crossroads J. L. Goldsworthy, 2000-12-01 Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 Time-limited Psychodynamic Psychotherapy with Children and Adolescents Ruth Schmidt Neven, 2016-08-12 At a time when there is increasing concern about the escalation of child and adolescent mental health problems Time limited Psychodynamic Psychotherapy with Children and Adolescents provides an innovative contextual model that engages the child or young person and their parents The core of the model is the recognition of the dynamic capacity for growth in the child and how this in itself creates opportunities for effective treatment over a relatively short period of time Based on evidence that the most enduring therapeutic outcomes involve a shift in the parents relational understanding of themselves as well as a change in the child the book uses case examples to show how this model can be applied in everyday therapeutic practice Time limited Psychodynamic Psychotherapy with Children and Adolescents is aimed at practitioners in the field of child adolescent parent and family psychotherapy It will interest psychologists child psychotherapists doctors psychiatrists social workers and mental health workers EMDR Therapy and Adjunct Approaches with Children Ana Gomez, 2012-07-27 This volume is a welcome and excellent resource for all clinicians working with severely traumatized children Francine Shapiro PhD Founder EMDR Humanitarian Assistance Programs Over the past 15 years Ms Gomez has developed highly original and brilliant interventions for working with these very difficult to treat children This book will be an enormous great gift to our field Dr Susan Coates Clinical Professor of Psychology in Psychiatry College of Physicians and Surgeons Columbia University This is the first book to provide a wide range of leading edge step by step strategies for clinicians using EMDR therapy and adjunct approaches with children with severe dysregulation of the affective system Written by an author internationally known for her innovative work with children the book offers developmentally appropriate and advanced tools for using EMDR therapy in treating children with complex trauma attachment wounds dissociative tendencies and compromised social engagement The book also presents the theoretical framework for case conceptualization in EMDR therapy and in the use of the Adaptive Information Processing model with children Principles and concepts derived from the Polyvagal Theory affective neuroscience attachment theory interpersonal neurobiology developmental neuroscience and the neurosequential model of therapeutics which can greatly support and expand our understanding of the AIP model and complex trauma are presented The text also offers an original and pioneering EMDR therapy based model to working with parents with abdicated caregiving systems The model is directed at assisting parents in developing the ability for mentalization insightfulness and reflective capacities linked to infant s development of attachment security A unique and innovative feature of this book is the masterful integration of strategies from other therapeutic approaches such as Play therapy Sandtray therapy Sensorimotor psychotherapy Theraplay and Internal Family Systems IFS into a comprehensive EMDR treatment maintaining appropriate adherence to the AIP model and EMDR therapy methodology Key Features Provides creative step by step how to information about the use of EMDR therapy with children with complex trauma from an internationally known and innovative leader in the field Explores thoroughly the eight phases of EMDR therapy in helping children with attachment wounds dissociative tendencies and high dysregulation Incorporates adjunct approaches into a comprehensive EMDR therapy while maintaining fidelity to the AIP model and EMDR therapy methodology Contains an original EMDR therapy based model for helping parents with abdicated caregiving systems to develop metalizing and reflective capacities Psychological and Biological Approaches to Emotion Nancy L. Stein, Bennett Leventhal, Tom Trabasso, 1990 First Published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Evidence for Reductionist or Anti-Reductionist Approaches of Mental Processing Francesca Strappini, Mark Couch, Antonino Carcione, Marialuisa Martelli, 2024-02-16 As scientists or clinicians we all have an implicit theory about how the mind relates to the nervous system which infuses our research and practice This theory entails what has been traditionally known as the mind body problem Intrinsically connected to the question of potentials and constraints of human and conscious artificial life it still represents an open and highly debated philosophical and empirical question The common assumption for many cognitive neuropsychologists and neuropsychiatrists is that by looking at the anatomical brain function or malfunction it is possible to predict the behavioral experience of individuals This view often called reductionism has dominated the research trajectories in neuroscience and psychiatry in the past decades

Resilience as Heritage in Asia Michael Herzfeld, Rita Padawangi, 2025-10-01 Resilience as Heritage in Asia analyzes forms of collective resilience through manifestations of strength in fragility in selected communities in Asia Indonesia Japan Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand Persistent resistance to communal erasure taking place through repressive policies and commercialized multinational urban development insensitive to local communities and values often presents an uphill battle Some of these collective efforts to survive through persistent everyday actions encounters and constant struggles have successful outcomes while others are ephemeral at best The authors argue that persisting vernacular spaces located between resistance and co optation are themselves a form of local cultural heritage in the rapidly urbanizing region Recognizing these nonconformist forms of resilience as heritage acknowledges the creativity involved in challenging social and political inequalities Supporting the cultural autonomy of local communities by acknowledging resilience as heritage contributes to social justice in the region

From Breakdown to Breakthrough Danielle Knafo, Michael Selzer, 2023-11-22 As a clear and user friendly guide for clinicians who work with patients affected by psychosis this book challenges the false notion that psychosis is untreatable through talk therapy The authors contend that since psychotic symptoms are features of survival adaptation they naturally serve as a valuable source of information providing clues about the origins of people s psychic derailment along with a path to its cure The authors advise therapists not only to read and respond to the messages embedded in the symptoms but also to recognize and utilise the non psychotic aspects of the patient in facilitating recovery The overall aim is to recruit the patient as a collaborator in their treatment thus wresting a meaningful and redemptive narrative from the psychotic experience All aspects and phases of treatment from initial encounters through the middle phase to termination and even supervision are covered in this volume Abundant with clinical examples theoretical and technical points and treatment methods this book is essential reading for all psychotherapists psychoanalysts and other mental health clinicians working with psychosis

Social Geographies of Educational Change F. Hernandez, I.F. Goodson, 2004-10-11 Social Geographies as spatial location is a factor relevant to understanding the variety of people s interpretations and appropriations of educational innovations and changes Their location in the social space also influences their response to change In the field of educational change social space means for example skin colour gender distribution of teachers in one school children s self cultural representations or parents religious attitudes By using the notion of Social Geographies in the context of educational change the authors address the following questions How initiatives in a classroom or department are influenced by the surrounding context of the school the district or the nation How innovation spreads or diffuses from one school to another How and whether reforms can be scaled up from a few schools to a whole system How seemingly standardised reforms affect schools differently depending on where they are located How schools influence one another How the identities of and interrelationships among schools are affected by technology principles of market competition and choice and other initiatives This volume is relevant to educationalists policy makers teachers and students interested in a more complex approach to understand and intervene in educational change processes Adolescent Boys Niobe Way, Judy Y. Chu, 2004 A look at diverse boys across American cultures The Voice of the Past Paul Thompson, Joanna Bornat, 2017 Oral history gives history back to the people in their own words And in giving a past it also helps them towards a future of their own making Oral history and life stories help to create a truer picture of the past and the changing present documenting the lives and feelings of all kinds of people many otherwise hidden from history It explores personal and family relationships and uncovers the secret cultures of work It connects public and private experience and it highlights the experiences of migrating between cultures At the same time it can bring courage to the old meaning to communities and contact between generations Sometimes it can offer a path for healing divided communities and those with traumatic memories Without it the history and sociology of our time would be poor and narrow In this fourth edition of his pioneering work fully revised with Joanna Bornat Paul Thompson challenges the accepted myths of historical scholarship He discusses the reliability of oral evidence in comparison with other sources and considers the social context of its development He looks at the relationship between memory the self and identity He traces oral history through its own past and weighs up the recent achievements of a movement which has become international with notably strong developments in North America Europe Australia Latin America South Africa and the Far East despite resistance from more conservative academics This new edition combines the classic text of The Voice of the Past with many new sections including especially the worldwide development of different forms of oral history and the parallel memory boom as well as discussions of theory in oral history and of memory trauma and reconciliation It offers a deep social and historical interpretation along with succinct practical advice on designing and carrying out a project The Voice of the Past remains an invaluable tool for anyone setting out to use oral history and life stories to construct a more authentic and balanced record of the past and the present
