Ar Ri Andhe Lucy Maroulleti,1996-09-01 There are still places in the world which are strife torn by religious intolerance ethnic separation These are heightened by the presence of a foreign occupying party which fans the fires which will eventually consume the warring parties to the advantage of foreigners Ariadne Ar ri andhe is a young freedom fighter incarcerated by the forces occupying her country as an accomplice to the murder of two military officers She is kept in isolation under primitive conditions interrogated pushed to the end of her endurance to the brink of madness When she does not succumb she is brutally beaten almost to death She is saved from being raped eventually she is set free Her harrowing experience serves as a catalyst upsetting her entire perception on which are real values in life In finding out who she really is she also finds herself in love She is not scared does not hesitate to accept the most controversial for her time place love affair knowing that she is above all normal mortal limitations The story could have happened in Bosnia Ireland Israel This supposed to have happened in Cyprus an island ethically cleansed separated since 1974 Visions 2000 23 50 27th St Astoria NY 11105 Tel 718 626 7896 FAX 718 545 1303
