Arab Border-villages in Israel Abner Cohen,1965      Arab Border-villages in Israel Abner Cohen,1965      Nomadic Societies in the Middle East and North Africa Dawn Chatty,2018-11-12 A scholarly volume devoted to an understanding of contemporary nomadic and pastoral societies in the Middle East and North Africa This volume recognizes the variable mobile quality of the ways of life of these societies which persist in accommodating the nation state of the 20th and 21st century but remain firmly transnational and highly adaptive Composed of four sections around the theme of contestation it includes examinations of contested authority and power space and social transformation development and economic transformation and cultures and engendered spaces      Through the Lens of Israel Joel S. Migdal,2012-02-01 Through the Lens of Israel illuminates Israeli history through the use of the author s unique state in society approach and at the same time refines develops and expands that approach The book provides a window for the formation of Israeli state and society during the twentieth century while using the Israeli experience to ask how social scientists can better investigate and understand other societies as well Three central themes of Israeli history are at the core of the analysis state formation society formation and the mutually constitutive roles of state and society By analyzing how Israel s state and society continually reconstruct one another Migdal addresses larger questions with resonance far beyond Israel How do particular societies and states end up with their distinctive character How are the rules that shape everyday behavior determined Who gains from these rules and who loses And how and when do these rules and patterns of privilege change      Custom and Politics in Urban Africa Abner Cohen,2013-06-17 Based on Cohen s fieldwork in the 1960s among the Hausa migrants a people of the Yoruba area then the western region of the Federation of Nigeria Custom and Politics in Urban Africa looks at how ethnic groups use elements of tradition in jostling for power and privilege in new urban situations This is a landmark work in urban anthropology and provides a comparative framework for studying political processes in African societies      Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini,2004-11-23 In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929 1948 Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book s award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests The rulers Empire wide conceptions of the White man s burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices a considerable bibliography and extensive index With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning agriculture forestry land the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies      Near East and North Africa Foreign Service Institute (U.S.). Center for Area and Country Studies,1968      The Invention of Ancient Israel Keith W. Whitelam,2013-11-19 The Invention of Ancient Israel shows how the true history of ancient Palestine has been obscured by the search for Israel Keith W Whitelam shows how ancient Israel has been invented by scholars in the image of a European nation state influenced by the realisation of the state of Israel in 1948 He explores the theological and political assumptions which have shaped research into ancient Israel by Biblical scholars and contributed to the vast network of scholarship which Said identified as Orientalist discourse This study concentrates on two crucial periods from the end of the late Bronze Age to the Iron Age a so called period of the emergence of ancient Israel and the rise of an Israelite state under David It explores the prospects for developing the study of Palestinian history as a subject in its own right divorced from the history of the Bible and argues that Biblical scholars through their traditional view of this area have contributed to dispossession both of a Palestinian land and a Palestinian past This controversial book is important reading for historians Biblical specialists social anthropologists and all those who are interested in the history of ancient Israel and Palestine      The Object of Memory Susan Slyomovics,1998-06 Well researched and written with passion and elegance International Journal of Middle East Studies      Intimate Selving in Arab Families Suad Joseph,1999-12-01 The study of relationships a topic which has received considerable attention in Europe the United States and parts of Asia until now has not been addressed in the Arab world Here for the first time are articles written by native feminist scholars that focus on intimate Arab familial relationships and provide a scholarly discussion of gendering of the self the process of intimate selving in the Arab community The book is divided into three parts biographical and autobiographical ethnographic and literary accounts in which the authors identify key family relationships mother son brother sister mother daughter granddaughter co wives and father daughter and explore them in terms of shaping and defining gender in relation to others      The Bedouin of Cyrenaica Emrys L. Peters,1990 This collection brings together Emrys Peters major writings on the Bedouin of Libya      Women and Islamic Law in a Non-Muslim State Ahron Layish,2017-09-04 This book is methodologically unique in scholarly literature on Muslim society Its originality lies in the fact that the rich material offered by the shari a courts is given a thorough analysis with a view to drawing conclusions about the present day phenomena in Arab society and processes that the society has been undergoing in modern times Aharon Layish examines every aspect of the social status of Muslim women that finds expression in the shari a courts the age of marriage stipulations inserted in the marriage contract dower polygamy maintenance and obedience divorce custody of the children guardianship and succession Each chapter opens with a short legal introduction based on all the sources of law applying in shari a courts followed by social analyses and a study of the attitudes and approaches of the qadis or Muslim religious judges Layish examines the relationship between shari a and Israeli legislation Do shari a courts have regard to the provisions of Israeli law What is the relationship between shari a and social custom and which is decisive in regard to Israeli Muslim women To what extent does Israeli law actually affect Israeli Muslim women What is the attitude of the qadis toward Israeli legislation Women and Islamic Law in a Non Muslim State is an important and original study that will be of interest to students and scholars of Islamic law comparative law sociology and modernization Law and Identity in Mandate Palestine Assaf Likhovski,2006 One of the major questions facing the world today is the role of law in shaping identity and in balancing tradition with modernity In an arid corner of the Mediterranean region in the first decades of the twentieth century Mandate Palestine was confront Palestinian Refugees Are Knudsen,Sari Hanafi,2010-11-05 More than four million Palestinian refugees live in protracted exile across the Middle East Taking a regional approach to Palestinian refugee exile and alienation across the Levant this book proposes a new understanding of the spatial and political dimensions of refugee camps across the Middle East Combining critical scholarship with ethnographic insight the essays uncover host states marginalisation of stateless refugees and shed light on new terminology on refugees migration and diaspora studies The impact on the refugee community is detailed in novel studies of refugee identity memory and practice and new legal approaches to compensation and right of return The book opens a critical debate on key concepts and proposes a new understanding of the spatial and political dimensions of refugee camps better understood as laboratories of Palestinian society and state in making This strong collection of original essays is an essential resource for scholars and students in refugee studies forced migration disaster studies legal anthropology urban studies international law and Middle East history Understanding Early Civilizations Bruce G. Trigger,2003-05-05 This book offers the first detailed comparative study of the seven best documented early civilizations ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia Shang China the Aztecs and adjacent peoples in the Valley of Mexico the Classic Maya the Inka and the Yoruba Unlike previous studies equal attention is paid to similarities and differences in their sociopolitical organization economic systems religion and culture Many of this study s findings are surprising and provocative Agricultural systems technologies and economic behaviour turn out to have been far more diverse than was expected These findings and many others challenge not only current understandings of early civilizations but also the theoretical foundations of modern archaeology and anthropology The key to understanding early civilizations lies not in their historical connections but in what they can tell us about similarities and differences in human behaviour The Fruit of the Vine Carey Ellen Walsh,2018-07-17 The practice of viticulture from planting vines to drinking wine in Israelite culture is the focus of Walsh s investigation Viticulture no less than drinking marked the social sphere of Israelite practitioners and so its details were often enlisted to describe social relations in the Hebrew Bible These features of everyday life offer important clues for the reconstruction of Israelite social history the literary constructions of the oral transmitters authors and redactors and for thematic and theological meanings attached to biblical representations of the vine and wine imagery Birthing the Nation Rhoda Ann Kanaaneh,2002 The Palestinian author an anthropologist based this book upon her field work under Palestinian women in Galilee Israel in which the Palestinian Israeli conflict is vividly alive The content of this book corresponds roughly to five interrelated fields of meaning and power in which reproduction is caught up and constructed nation economy difference body and gender A Companion to Border Studies Thomas M. Wilson, Hastings Donnan, 2016-01-19 A Companion to Border Studies Taking into consideration all aspects this book has a very important role in the professional literature of border studies Cross Border Review Yearbook of the European Institute Summing Up Highly recommended Upper division undergraduates and above Choice This book with its interdisciplinary team of authors from many world regions shows the state of the art in this research field admirably Ulf Hannerz Stockholm University This volume will be the definitive work on borders and border related processes for years into the future The editors have done an outstanding job of identifying key themes and of assembling influential scholars to address these themes David Nugent Emory University This urgently needed Companion edited by two leading figures of border studies reflects past insights and showcases new directions a must read for understanding territory power and the state Dr Nick Vaughan Williams University of Warwick This impressive collection will have a broad appeal beyond specialist border studies Anyone with an interest in the nation state nationalism ethnicity political geography or indeed the whole historical project of the modern world system will want to have access to a copy The substantive scope is global and the intellectual reach deep and wide Simply indispensable Richard Jenkins University of Sheffield Dramatic growth in the number of international borders has coincided in recent years with greater mobility than ever before of goods people and ideas As a result interest in borders as a focus of academic study has developed into a dynamic multi disciplinary field embracing perspectives from anthropology development studies geography history political science and sociology Authors provide a comprehensive examination of key characteristics of borders and frontiers including cross border cooperation security and controls migration and population displacements hybridity and transnationalism A Companion to Border Studies brings together these disciplines and viewpoints through the writing of an international collection of preeminent border scholars Drawing on research from Africa Asia the Middle East Europe and the Americas the contributors argue that the future of Border Studies lies within such diverse collaborations which approach comparatively the features of borders worldwide Marriage, Divorce, and Succession in the Druze Family Aharôn Layiš, 1982 The Palestinian Refugees in Jordan 1948-1957 Avi Plascov, 2017-05-18 There is perhaps no aspect of the Arab Israeli conflict that is more complex and more emotionally charged than the problem of the Palestinian refugees The atmosphere surrounding the discussion has led to confusion so that the facts have become unclear and the problems more difficult to treat This book first published in 1981 examines the complex interlocking issues that surround the topic of the Palestinian refugees in the country that adopted most of them Jordan
