A year ago St Jude Children's Research Hospital in partnership with the American University of Beirut opened the Children's Cancer Clinic to treat Lebanese and Syrian children This marked the fulfillment of the dream of our founder Danny Thomas who was of Lebanese ancestry to bring the science and technology of St Jude to the land of his ancestors St Jude covers all medical costs not covered by insurance regardless of ability to pay Book jacket Between Arab and White Sarah Gualtieri, 2009-05-06 This multifaceted study of Syrian immigration to the United States places Syrians and Arabs more generally at the center of discussions about race and racial formation from which they have long been marginalized Between Arab and White focuses on the first wave of Arab immigration and settlement in the United States in the years before World War II but also continues the story up to the present It presents an original analysis of the ways in which people mainly from current day Lebanon and Syria the largest group of Arabic speaking immigrants before World War II came to view themselves in racial terms and position themselves within racial hierarchies as part of a broader process of ethnic identity formation Representing Minorities Soumia Boutkhil, Larbi Touaf, 2009-01-14 The papers in this volume include not only the traditional view of what constitutes a minority but also any individual or group recalcitrant and reluctant not to say resistant to the generalized lobotomy operated by the rampant uniformisation of cultures around the world For in the ruins of the end of history and its context of violence and Manichean politics any opposition to the general consensus could be dismissed as anti historical and atavistic The objective of the book is precisely to counter such rhetoric and underscore the necessity of cultural diversity and the right to difference This book contains what can amount to a critical response to the current context of confusion surrounding the postmodern condition that arguably dominates most societies It stresses the issue of ethics not only in world politics but also in literature and criticism which are the main focus here In fact the interest in minority issues is in itself an ethical concern that contributes to give substance to the idea that postmodernity opens the gates for the long suppressed identities and sensibilities to emerge and demand recognition This volume intends therefore to contribute to the recent ethical turn that seems to take place in scholarship worldwide Operated mainly by what is referred to as postcolonial studies this shift turned literary criticism and cultural studies into the site where a sense of literature can be envisioned that is not at all universalist or reflecting the hegemonic temptations of the new world order It seeks to present a patchwork of minor literatures in the sense that besides the major literatures languages there are myriads of minor voices that express dissimilarity oftentimes under the umbrella of those major languages and literatures themselves History of the Islamic Centre of Southern California 1950-1977 Mostafa Hashem Sherif, 2024-02-09 This book documents the history of the Muslim community in the United States and particularly in California and the foundation and evolution of the Southern California Islamic Center The associated digital archive was built in an ongoing project with the University of California Los Angeles This substantial work of social history analyses the Islamic Center's work from 1953 to 1977 as it tries to establish itself within the mosaic of Southern Californian society The work of the Islamic Centre has hardly been documented in the literature and the social history of the wider Muslim Community in the USA is arguably under researched This is a unique and important contribution of interest to historians social scientists and students of race and religion in America
