Arab Voices in Diaspora, 2009-01-01 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig's Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wal S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarrou Fadia Fayezy Suyoufie

Islamophobia in Australia Alice Aslan, 2009 Islamophobia is a contemporary form of cultural racism against Muslims It has emerged in Australia as an outcome of general public opposition to multiculturalism and migration as well as in response to international conflicts involving Muslims ISLAMOPHOBIA IN AUSTRALIA is a timely book that traces the rise of racism against Muslims through an extensive analysis of critical events and issues including the Gulf War the September 11 terror attacks the Bali bombings ethnic crime ethnic gang rapes Middle Eastern asylum seekers the Cronulla riots and the negative portrayals of Muslims and Muslim women in the Australian media and public discourse Since tolerance does not offer minorities social acceptance or equality in contemporary multicultural societies this book suggests that the recognition of Muslims and minorities as real Australians and as one of us and giving them a fair go are the key ingredients of a more democratic equal and truly multicultural Australia in the 21st century Identity, Education and Belonging Fethi Mansouri, Sally Percival

Wood, 2008-12-15 Identity Education and Belonging examines the social and educational experiences of Arab and Muslim Australian youth against a wider political backdrop Arab and Muslim Australian youth have long faced considerable social obstacles in their journey towards full integration but as the discourse of insecurity surrounding these conflicts intensifies so too do the difficulties they face in Australian society Events such as the war in Iraq Australia's presence in Afghanistan and perceptions of Iran as a nuclear threat together with domestic events such as the Cronulla riots place Arabs and Muslims at the centre of global instability and exacerbate feelings of tension and anxiety At a time when fear and confusion permeate their experiences Identity Education and Belonging is an all important study of the lives of Muslim and Arab youth in Australia Islamic Studies Series Volume 2 Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2015-04-17

Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf Faces of Hate Chris Cunneen, David Fraser, Stephen Tomsen, 1997 This book offers the first collection of essays dedicated to the issue of hate crimes in Australia Contributions address crimes against Aborigines members of Australia's Arabic communities Jews and lesbians and gay men Through a systemic approach to explaining social and political marginalisation they also look at histories of racism and neo Nazi organisations in Australia and the widening base of support and legitimisation for hate crimes in the symbolic violence of popular contemporary discourse about minorities and an imagined homogeneous community of white Christian and heterosexual Australians Jews and Australian Politics

Geoffrey Brahm Levey, 2004-12-13 Explains the contemporary politics of Australian Jewry This book situates the politics of Australian Jews through comparisons with general patterns in Australian politics the politics of other minorities in Australia and the politics of other Western Jewish communities It contains an appendix of Jewish Parliamentarians Racism in Australia Today Amanuel Elias, Fethi Mansouri, Yin Paradies, 2021-06-23 This book focuses on historical and current data to examine racism in Australia Making use of the latest state and federal data sets it critically synthesises contemporary research on race relations with a focus on racism and anti racism initiatives Employing innovative analytical methods the book provides students and researchers with a current and up to date analytical framework and benchmark empirical evidence on race relations In addition the book also analyses research data from other countries in order to generate some comparative insights and draw possible lessons and policy implications for Australia Muslims In Australia Nahid Kabir,2013-01-11 Muslims in Australia investigates the basis of Australian society s fear of Muslims by tracing their history since the Afghan settlement in 1860 The author investigates how events such as September 11 and Bali terrorist attacks reinforce suspicion and fear giving an insight into what it means to be a Muslim in contemporary Australia and how the actions of militant Islamic groups have impacted upon Muslims in general in Western society A Companion to the Anthropology of the Middle East Soraya Altorki,2015-07-07 A Companion to the Anthropology of the Middle East presents a comprehensive overview of current trends and future directions in anthropological research and activism in the modern Middle East Named as one of Choice s Outstanding Academic Titles of 2016 Offers critical perspectives on the theoretical methodological and pedagogical goals of anthropology in the Middle East Analyzes the conditions of cultural and social transformation in the Middle Eastern region and its relations with other areas of the world Features contributions by top experts in various Middle East anthropological specialties Features in depth coverage of issues drawn from religion the arts language politics political economy the law human rights multiculturalism and globalization The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world 'Targeted' Tanja Dreher,2006-01-01 Targeted researches experiences of racism in New South Wales after September 11 2001 The monograph analyses data collected by the anti racism hotline established by the Community Relations Commission For a Multicultural NSW CRC It details a significant increase in racially motivated violence and verbal abuse in NSW in the months following the US 2001 September 11 attacks and finds these incidents produced a climate of fear and insecurity which continues to impact these communities and denies them the chance to enjoy a true sense of Australian citizenship Ties to the Homeland Helen Lee,2009-05-05 Ties to the Homeland examines the connections maintained across national borders by the children of migrants the second generation In the context of globalisation and increasing population mobility migrants transnational ties have become an important topic of research yet until recently we have heard little about the reproduction of such ties in the second generation The transnational engagements of migrants children are crucial for understanding future trends in the global movement of people money goods and ideas and they also can have a significant impact on issues of cultural identity and belonging for these children who grow up outside their parents homelands but may have dual or even multiple notions of home The detailed case studies in Tie to the Homeland explore the diverse transnational practices and attitudes of members of the second generation and reveal significant intergenerational differences that bring into question some of the key assumptions underlying existing work on transnationalism The case studies focus on the children of migrants originating in regions such as Europe the Middle East and the South Pacific and they bring an Australian perspective to a field that has been dominated by a European and North American focus My Mother's Table Nelia Hyndman-Rizk, 2011-05-25 In the era of globalisation studies of migration focus on mobility deterritorialised identities and diasporic forms of belonging across nation state boundaries Indeed uprootedness from the soil of home and place has resulted in a general condition of homelessness in late modernity referred to as the diasporic condition This study explores the construction of home amongst immigrants from Hadchit and their descendants in Australia and America and shows how their strategies of home building depend upon the capacity to imagine themselves as being united by kinship a shared village of origins and as part of the broader communal Maronite identity Mwarne which now transcends nation state boundaries Patrilineage bayt village day aa and sect ta eefa have historically defined Lebanese sectarian identities and now as this study shows are deployed as a strategy of home building and community construction in diaspora However capitalist social relations of production in Australia and America have transformed bayt day aa and ta eefa amongst the second third and fourth generations through the gendered renegotiation of the marriage contract from relations of descent to relations of consent Thus the Hadchitis now face a crisis of re production and attribute this in the case of Australia to the state being hukum niswen ruled by women an inversion of the gendered order of power in Lebanon Through pilgrimages to the ancestral village however migr s seek a spiritual resolution to the contradictions of migration through the restoration of their connection to place but find they cannot seamlessly belong in Hadchit Meanwhile multicultural crisis and a milieu of anti Lebanese racism limit their claims to national belonging in Australia and America This study finds therefore that the contradictions of the migration process are unresolvable through physical mobility because the feeling of home is a metaphysical state of being which transcends place and is defined by its affective social and spiritual dimensions The elusive quality that defines home and provides a sense of unconditional belonging is in fact socially constructed by women through their daily practices of care within the home and the most important woman for the construction of homeliness is the matriarch sit el bayt the power of the house Thus the place where the immigrant can be at home is metaphorically at their mother s table Sociology in Today's World Brian Furze, Cengage Learning Australia, Pauline Savy, 2014 Sociology in Today's World explores why sociology is important and relevant to everyday life It teaches students how to think sociologically not just what to think and shows how sociology can help us make sense of our lives It comprehensively covers key aspects and current issues in Australian and New Zealand society whilst emphasising the importance of diversity and a global perspective Women in Islam Terence Lovat, 2012-06-12 The role of women in Islamic societies not to mention in the religion itself is a defining issue It is also one that remains resistant to universal dogma with a wide range of responses to women s social roles across the Islamic world Reflecting this heterogeneity the editor of this volume has assembled the latest research on the issue which combines contemporary with historical data The material comes from around the world as well as from Muslim and non Muslim researchers It takes in work from majority Muslim nations such as Bangladesh Iran Iraq Lebanon Pakistan Palestine Tunisia and Turkey as well as countries with troubled interfaith relations such as India and Israel Nations with minority Muslim populations such as France the UK Canada and Australia are also represented The work also features varying Islamic sub groups such as the two main ones Sunni and Shi a as well as less well known populations such as the Ismaili Muslims In each case the work is underpinned by the very latest socio theological insights and empirical data

Youth Cultures and Subcultures Sarah Baker,Brady Robards,2016-02-11 This volume critically examines subculture in a variety of Australian contexts exploring the ways in which the terrain of youth cultures and subcultures has changed over the past two decades and considering whether subculture still works as a viable conceptual framework for studying youth culture Richly illustrated with concrete case studies the book is thematically organised into four sections addressing i theoretical concerns and global debates over the continued usefulness of subculture as a concept ii the important place of belonging in subcultural experience and the ways in which belonging is played out across an array of youth cultures iii the gendered experiences of young men and women and their ways of navigating subcultural participation and iv the ethical and methodological considerations that arise in relation to researching and teaching youth culture and subculture Bringing together the latest interdisciplinary research to combine theoretical considerations with recent empirical studies of subcultural experience Youth Cultures and Subcultures will appeal to scholars and students across the social sciences

South Sudanese Diaspora in Australia and New Zealand Daniel Harris,Tanya Lyons,Jay Marlowe,2014-10-02 Since 1996 approximately 30 000 South Sudanese people have immigrated to Australia and New Zealand via humanitarian pathways This text offers insight into these associated communities resettlement experiences and provides a broader sociological context in which the South Sudanese diaspora can be seen within global migration studies The text s strength is its close relationship to the work of culturally and disciplinarily diverse scholars bringing contemporary research on South Sudanese resettlement together in one book This collection provides Contemporary research that critically examines the experiences of South Sudanese settlement and its associated successes concerns and challenges Social theoretical historical and policy implications associated with resettlement An informed and reflective focus on substantive resettlement issues such as education health housing Australian and customary law employment integration and discrimination Current demographics of the South Sudanese not available elsewhere The South Sudanese community is one of Australia s fastest growing new populations and yet there are limited understandings of their experiences concerns aspirations and the associated implications for being able to meaningfully participate in Australian and New Zealand public life This edited text provides a focused collection of research by established and emerging researchers who offer insight into the complexities opportunities and challenges related to the lived experiences of resettlement Migrant Men Mike Donaldson, Raymond Hibbins, Richard Howson, Bob Pease, 2009-09-11 This edited volume contributes an important collection of chapters to the growing theoretical and empirical work being undertaken at the international level on men and migration The chapters presented here focus on what we might call migratory masculinities the experiences men have of masculinity upon immigration into another national ethnic and cultural context How do these men re construct their conceptions of masculinity Where are the points of tension ambivalence or assimilation in this process Featuring interviews and data drawn from migrants working and living in Australia this book explores how the gender identity of men from non English speaking backgrounds is influenced by the experiences of migration and settlement in an English speaking culture across various cultural spheres such as work leisure family life and religion
