The Arab-Israel Conflict and its Resolution: Selected Documents Moshe Hirsch,Ruth Lapidoth,2023-11-27 There is an urgent need for a solution to the Arab Israel conflict but so far no comprehensive solution has been found The search for a solution must be based on knowledge of the facts and of the relevant documents There might be exist disagreement among the various parties on the facts and the documents may be subject to differing interpretations but it is indispensable that those who study the conflict and those who deal with it have the plain text of the basic documents readily available This collection includes a wide range of documents including inter alia texts of agreements of official documents of the League of Nations and of the United Nations of official proposals and of relevant national documents It covers a period of almost one hundred years but it focuses mainly on documents dating from recent decades The editors have put together an objective collection including about ninety of the main relevant texts irrespective of whose claim may find support in them This volume will be of help to scholars and to students to historians and to political scientists to experts in international law and international relations to journalists to politicians and to diplomats The availability of this collection may make it easier for the conflict to be studied and to be solved

The Arab-Israeli Accords: Legal Perspectives Eugene Cotran, Chibli Mallat, 2023-12-11 This book brings together for the first time independent and highly respected lawyers and jurists from both sides of this century old conflict to identify and assess areas of common interest As violence diminishes in favour of negotiation and compromise all issues covered by the ongoing discussions will be determined by emerging rule of law The book contains original contributions from an experienced team of Palestinian and Israeli lawyers and scholars in the field and covers a range of strategic issues including history and law key international treaties the domestic dimensions of the peace process water arrangements economic issues and the legal institutions which are being created and must adapt to the new scene An important feature of the book is that it succeeds in showing that the traditional opposition of Israeli and Arab views may be giving way to a common informed reflection on modes of coexistence primarily determined by law Contributors include Raja Shehadeh Ruth Gavison Eyal Benvenisti Eugene Cotran David Kretzmer Anis Al Qasem Celia Fassberg Sharif Elmusa Mahmud El Jaafari Eran Feitelson Ruth Levush and Mona Rishmawi

This will help the reader to understand the difficulties and may assist in the search for solutions There may be differences of opinion over historical facts and documents may be subject to differing interpretations Convenient access to the relevant documents is a prerequisite for any attempt to understand the problem and seek solutions The collection includes documents concerning the status of Jerusalem from the point of view of Israel's law and administration as well as documents from the Arab world and from the international sphere The editors have focused on official documents and in particular on those that have had a practical influence on the status of the city or are likely to do so in the future The collection will assist students and scholars who seek to understand the special status of Jerusalem as well as politicians and diplomats who are responsible for ensuring its welfare and prosperity
