The Past, Present, and Future of Higher Education in the Arabian Gulf Region Awad Ibrahim,Osman Z. Barnawi,2022-08-29 This edited volume contributes a novel understanding of the past present and future of higher education across the six countries that make up the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC Against the backdrop of intense political ideological and epistemological disruptions across the Arabian Gulf Region over the last two decades this volume adopts critical comparative perspectives in order to chart the history present day and future realities of higher education in Saudi Arabia the United Arab Emirates Oman Qatar Bahrain and Kuwait By focusing on dynamics relating to neoliberalism and using the notions of tensionality and locality to situate topics such as curricula policies practices the volume engages with current discourses controversies and themes such as the internationalization and marketization of higher education in these countries In doing so the book offers a theoretical framework to enable greater understanding of the contemporary functioning of higher education in the Arabian Gulf Region This text will benefit scholars academics and students in the fields of higher education and international and comparative education more broadly Those involved with educational policy and politics and Middle Eastern studies in general will also benefit from this volume

The International Politics of the Persian Gulf Mehran Kamrava, 2011-06-29 For much of the contemporary history of the Middle East the Persian Gulf has stood at the center of the region's strategic significance At the same time the Gulf has been wracked by political instability and tension As far back as the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Britain zeroed in on the Persian Gulf as a critical passageway to its crown jewel India and entered into protectorate agreements with local ruling families thus bestowing on them international legitimacy and eventually the resources and support necessary to ascend to kingships Today the region is undergoing profound changes that range from rapid economic and infrastructural development to tumultuous social and cultural transformations Far from eroding the area's political significance these changes have only accentuated rivalries and tensions and have brought to the forefront new challenges to international security and stability Together the essays in this volume present a comprehensive detailed and accessible account of the international politics of the region Focusing on the key factors that give the Persian Gulf its strategic significance contributors look at the influence of vast deposits of oil and natural gas on international politics the impact of the competing centers of power of Iran and Saudi Arabia the nature of relationships among countries within the Persian Gulf and the evolving interaction between Islam and politics Throughout the collection issues of internal and international security are shown to be central Drawing on the comprehensive knowledge and experience of experts in the region The International Politics of the Persian Gulf shines a bright light on this area offering insights and thoughtful analyses on the critical importance of this troubled region to global politics

Transnational Connections and the Arab Gulf Madawi Al-Rasheed, 2005 Transnational Connections and the Arab Gulf presents a study of transnational cultural flows in the Gulf region and beyond It combines an understanding of the region's historical connections with the outside world and an assessment of contemporary consequences of these connections The contributors collected here analyze and map historical and contemporary manifestations of transnational networks within this region linking them to wider debates on society identity and political culture Chip in the Madrasa : A Novel Vivek Sinha,2018-11-03 Computers introduced in a madrasa Wahhabis rattled by the prospect of a rational Muslim mind Chip in the Madrasa is an insightful tale that unravels the vicious game of Wahhabis and their vice like grip on Muslim minds across the globe It s the story of resilience of discerning Muslims against the lethal onslaught of Wahhabism The Suez Canal: Past Lessons and Future Challenges Carmela

Lutmar,Ziv Rubinovitz,2023-01-05 This open access book seeks to provide a survey of historical geopolitical economic and environmental developments in the last 150 years and to highlight future challenges it faces as it pertains to the areas mentioned earlier It argues that the centrality of the canal geo strategically and otherwise requires a shift in scholarly focus to study the various aspects from an interdisciplinary perspective This book addresses several gaps in the literature the first being a lack of a systematic examination of historical aspects in the development of the canal in 150 years The second is a careful study of the canal s geostrategic importance The third is a combination of several disciplines that examine the centrality of the Suez Canal Science Education in the Arab Gulf States Nasser Mansour,Saeed

Al-Shamrani,2015-04-27 The book introduces the development of science education in the Arab Gulf states and presents a critical analysis of current issues and concerns in educational research in science education The key purpose is to provide some perspectives on the state of science education in Gulf and to share experiences with international scholars about the impact of the innovations and reforms implemented in science education in Arabian Gulf But Science Education in the Arab Gulf States also intends to present new visions and to make suggestions and recommendations about the contribution of science education to prepare students in the knowledge age The volume is organised into three main sections The first section addresses the current practices and challenges in science education in some of the Arab Gulf states This section sheds critically the light on the challenges and problems that hinder or constrain the implementation of innovations in science education The second section analyses the science educational reforms and innovations that are being implemented in the Arabian Gulf This section presents experiences and research with using new approaches to teaching and learning in science classrooms in some of the Arab Gulf states The third section discusses the socio cultural issues that have impacted on shaping and reshaping the science education in the Arabian Gulf This section focuses on exploring the socio cultural factors that influence engagement and non engagement in science education It also explores how socio cultural issues and contexts guide the reform of science education in the Arabian Gulf and presents various examples of how we can respond to cultural issues Introduction to Yemen Gilad James, PhD, Yemen is a small country situated in the southwestern part of the

Arabian Peninsula bordered by Saudi Arabia to the north Oman to the east and the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aden to the west and south respectively The country has a land area of about 527 970 sq km and a population of over 29 million people making it one of the poorest and most densely populated countries in the Middle East The capital of Yemen is Sana a which is also its largest city The country is largely composed of arid and rugged terrain with few fertile areas and its economy is heavily dependent on agriculture and oil export Yemen is a republic with a president elected for a five year term Its political system is based on a mix of Islamic and civil law The country is predominantly Muslim with the majority belonging to the Sunni sect although there is also a significant Shiite minority The official language is Arabic and the currency is the Yemeni rial Yemen has a rich cultural heritage with a long history dating back to ancient times when it was known as the Kingdom of Sheba Its historical legacy can still be seen in the old cities of Sana a and Zabid which are UNESCO World Heritage sites Despite its rich cultural heritage Yemen has been plagued by internal conflicts since the 1960s and the civil war that began in 2015 has only worsened the country s political and economic instability Yemen remains one of the poorest and most war torn countries in the world with a humanitarian crisis that has left millions of people in dire need of aid
