Arabian Exodus Margaret Greely, 1976 Made to Order Margaret E. Derry, 2022-03-01 Animal breeding has been complicated by persisting factors across species cultures geography and time In Made to Order Margaret E Derry explains these factors and other breeding concerns in relation to both animals and society in North America and Europe over the past three centuries Made to Order addresses how breeding methodology evolved what characterized the aims of breeding and the way structures were put in place to regulate the occupation Illustrated by case studies on important farm animals and companion species the book presents a synthetic overview of livestock breeding as a whole It gives considerable emphasis to genetics and animal breeding in the post 1960 period the relationship between environmental and improvement breeding and regulation of breeding as seen through pedigrees In doing so Made to Order shows how studying the ancient human practice of animal breeding can illuminate the ways in which human thinking theorizing and evolving characterize our interactions with all natural processes Bred for Perfection Margaret E. Derry, 2003-11-11 How did animal breeding emerge as a movement Who took part and for what reasons How do the pedigree and market systems work What light might the movement shed on the assumptions behind human eugenics In Bred for Perfection Margaret Derry provides the most comprehensive and accessible book yet published on the human quest to improve and develop livestock Derry herself a breeder and trained historian of science explores the triangle of genetics eugenics and practical breeding focusing on Shorthorn cattle show dogs and working dogs and one type of purebred horse the Arabian By examining specific breeders and the animals they produced she illuminates the role of technology genetics culture and economics in the system of purebred breeding Bred for Perfection also provides the historical context in which this system arose adding to our understanding of how domestication works and how our welfare since the dawn of time has been intertwined with the lives of animals International Law, Necropolitics, and Arab Lives Khaled Al-Kassimi, 2022-10-27 International Relations and International Law continue to be accented by epistemic violence by naturalizing a separation between law and morality What does such positivist juridical ethos make possible when considering that both disciplines reify a secular immanent ontology International Law Necropolitics and Arab Lives emphasizes that positivist jurisprudence re conquered Arabia by subjugating Arab life to the power of death using extrajudicial techniques of violence seeking the implementation of a New Middle East that is no longer resistant to Latin European modernity but amenable to such exclusionary telos The monograph goes beyond the limited remonstrance asserting that the problem with both disciplines is that they are primarily Eurocentric Rather the epistemic inquiry uncovers that legalizing necropower is necessary for the temporal coherence of secular modernity since a humanitarian logic masks sovereignty inherently being necropolitical by categorizing Arab Islamic epistemology as an internal external enemy from which nationalist citizenship must be defended This creates a sense of danger around which to unite modern epistemology whilst reinforcing the purity of a particular ontology at the expense of banning and de
