Arabian Nights A Companion:

The Arabian Nights Robert Irwin, 2003-10-24 This literary companion guides the reader into the labyrinth of storytelling within The Arabian Nights The Arabian Nights has become a synonym for the fabulous and the exotic Every child is familiar with the stories of Aladdin Sinbad the Sailor and Ali Baba Yet very few people even specialists in oriental literature have a clear idea of when the book was written or what exactly it is Far from being a batch of stories for children The Arabian Nights contains hundreds of narratives of all kinds fables epics erotica debates fairy tales political allegories mystical anecdotes and comedies It is a labyrinth of stories within stories Widely held in contempt in the Middle East for its frivolity and occasional obscenity the work has nevertheless had a major influence on European and American culture to the extent that the story collection must be considered as a key work in Western literature A full understanding of the writings of Voltaire Dickens Melville Proust and Borges or indeed of the origins of science fiction is impossible without some familiarity with the stories of the Nights This guide traces the development of the stories from prehistoric India and Pharaonic Egypt to modern times and explores the history of translation and imitation Above all the book uses the stories as a guide to the social history and counter culture of the medieval Near East and the world of the storyteller the snake charmer the burglar the sorcerer the drug addict the treasure hunter and the adulterer countless authors from Charles Dickens and Edgar Allan Poe to Naguib Mahfouz Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter Now in this lavishly designed and illustrated edition of The Annotated Arabian Nights the acclaimed literary historian Paulo Lemos Horta and the brilliant poet and translator Yasmine Seale present a splendid new selection of tales from the Nights featuring treasured original stories as well as later additions including Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp and Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves and definitively bringing the Nights out of Victorian antiquarianism and into the twenty first century For centuries readers have been haunted by the homicidal King Shahriyar thrilled by gripping tales of Sinbad s seafaring adventures and held utterly exquisitely captive by Shahrazad s stories of passionate romances and otherworldly escapades Yet for too long the English speaking world has relied on dated translations by Richard Burton Edward Lane and other nineteenth century adventurers Seale s distinctly contemporary and lyrical translations break decisively with this masculine dynasty finally stripping away the deliberate exoticism of Orientalist renderings while reclaiming the vitality and delight of the stories as she works with equal skill in both Arabic and French Included within are famous tales from The Story of Sinbad the Sailor to The Story of the Fisherman and the Jinni as well as lesser known stories such as The Story of Dalila the Crafty in which the cunning heroine takes readers into the everyday life of merchants and shopkeepers in a crowded metropolis and The Story of the Merchant and the Jinni an example of a ransom frame tale in which stories are exchanged to save a life Grounded in the latest scholarship The Annotated Arabian Nights also incorporates the Hanna Diyab stories for centuries seen as French forgeries but now acknowledged largely as a result of Horta s pathbreaking research as being firmly rooted in the Arabic narrative tradition Horta not only takes us into the astonishing twists and turns of the stories evolution He also offers comprehensive notes on just about everything readers need to know to appreciate the tales in context and guides us through the origins of ghouls jinn and other supernatural elements that have always drawn in and delighted readers Beautifully illustrated throughout with art from Europe and the Arab and Persian world the latter often ignored in English language editions The Annotated Arabian Nights expands the visual dimensions of the stories revealing how the Nights have always been and still are in dialogue with fine artists With a poignant autobiographical foreword from best selling novelist Omar El Akkad and an illuminating afterword on the Middle Eastern roots of Hanna Diyab s tales from noted scholar Robert Irwin Horta and Seale have created a stunning edition of the Arabian Nights that will enchant and inform both devoted and novice readers alike

The Thousand and One Days: A Companion to the "Arabian Nights" Miss Pardoe, 2019-11-26 In The Thousand and One Days A Companion to the Arabian Nights Miss Pardoe offers readers an intricate exploration of the enchanting tales that permeate Middle Eastern folklore drawing parallels with the illustrious Arabian Nights Pardoe s literary style is characterized by rich imagery and an engaging narrative voice making the complex cultural and thematic elements of these stories accessible and compelling Rooted in the 19th century fascination with the East the book situates itself within a broader context of Orientalism as it seeks to demystify and illuminate the narratives that have captivated audiences for centuries Miss Pardoe an accomplished novelist and travel writer immersed herself in the study of Eastern cultures during a time when Western interest in the Orient surged Her own travels and extensive research allowed her to bridge the gap between the exotic settings of these tales and her contemporary readership This background imbues her work with authenticity and depth as she draws on historical insights while weaving captivating narratives that reflect her keen observational skills This illuminating companion is a must read for anyone intrigued by the multifaceted world of the Arabian Nights and its influence on literature and culture Pardoe s work not only enriches the reader s understanding of these timeless tales but also serves as a gateway to the broader literary traditions of the East Enter into a world of magic wisdom and timeless storytelling that continues to resonate with modern readers In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read

Legacies of Orientalism and Slavery in European Intellectual and Literary History John Docker, 2024-09-25 This book is an exercise in ethical criticism It draws on and works with ideas and suggestions from two of its notable exponents Wayne C Booth and Martha C Nussbaum who propose that we regard cultural texts as friends with whom we can enjoy productive conversations that address contemporary challenges and developments such as coercive control in gender relations imperial and colonial thinking and the centuries long history of slavery Throughout attention is drawn to female agency in figures from Joan of Arc Lady Mary Wortley Montagu and Rebecca in Sir Walter Scott s Ivanhoe through to Princess Diana The book begins by looking closely at The Thousand and One Nights in terms of its wayward narratology its displays of female power and its significance for arguments over the relationship between the Enlightenment and the conceptual underpinnings of the Holocaust Montesquieu in Persian Letters and Voltaire in Zadig destabilise any certainty that the Enlightenment was straightforward or easily definable After evoking a slavery thread in chapters on Jane Austen s Persuasion and Mansfield Park Patricia Rozema s film Mansfield Park and Jamaica Kincaid s Annie John the book concludes with a radical re reading of Middlemarch

European Modernity and the Arab Mediterranean Karla Mallette, 2011-06-06 Over the past decade scholars have vigorously reconsidered the history of Orientalism and though Edward Said s hugely influential work remains a touchstone of the discussion Karla Mallette notes it can no longer be taken as the final word on Western perceptions of the Islamic East The French and British Orientalisms that Said studied in particular were shaped by the French and British colonial projects in Muslim regions nations that did not have such investments in the Middle East generated significantly different perceptions of Islamic and Arabic culture European Modernity and the Arab Mediterranean examines Orientalist philological scholarship of southern Europe produced between the mid nineteenth and mid twentieth century In Italy Spain and Malta Mallette argues a regional history of Arab occupation during the Middle Ages gave scholars a focus different from that of their northern European colleagues in studying the Arab world they were not so much looking on a distant and radically different history as seeking to reconstruct the past of their own nations She demonstrates that in specific instances Orientalists wrote their nations Arab history as the origin of modern national identity depicting Islamic thought not as exterior to European modernity but rather as formative of and central to it Joining comparative insights to the analytic strategies and historical genius of philology Mallette ranges from the complex manuscript history of the Thousand and One Nights to the invention of the Maltese language and Spanish scholarship on Dante and Islam Throughout she reveals the profound influences Arab and Islamic traditions have had on the development of modern European culture European Modernity and the Arab Mediterranean is an engaging study that sheds new light on the history of Orientalism the future of philology and the postcolonial Middle Ages      Hassan Abdallah, Or, The Enchanted Keys Miss Pardoe (Julia), 1860
