Language in Modern Arabic Literature Sasson Somekh, 1991 Religion, Mysticism and Modern Arabic Literature Reuven Snir, 2006 One of the significant phenomena in modern Arabic literature since the 1960s has been the use of mystical concepts figures and motifs for the expression of contemporary experiences philosophies and ideologies The book investigates this phenomenon mainly with regard to the creative poetic process and the use of literary masks It also deals with the complicated relationship between Arabic literature and Islam as well as with the literary activities by religious traditional circles In a welter of publications committed Muslim authors try to prove that there is no inherent contradiction between art and Islam and at the same time to lay the theoretical foundations for an Islamist poetics encompassing the various branches of literary production Within the secular canonical circles however these activities and texts are considered extremely marginal and none of the authors concerned has gained any canonical status The growing number of cases in which attempts at censorship on religious and moral grounds have been challenged prove also that Arabic literature has become more and more secular The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature Esad Durakovic, 2015-04-24

Through analysing ancient and classical Arabic literature including the Qur'an from within the Arabic literary tradition this book provides an original interpretation of poetics and of other important aspects of Arab culture Ancient Arabic literature is a realm of poetry prose literary forms emerged rather late and even then remained in the shadow of poetic creative efforts Traditionally this literature has been viewed through a philologist's lens and has often been represented as materialistic in the sense that its poetry lacked imagination As a result Arabic poetry was often evaluated negatively in relation to other poetic traditions The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature argues that old Arabic literature is remarkably coherent in poetical terms and has its own individuality and that claims of its materialism arise from a failure to grasp the poetic principles of the Arabic tradition Analysing the Qur'an which is known for confronting the poetry of the time this book reveals that post-Qur'anic literature came to be defined against it Thus the constitution and interpretation of Arabic literature imposed itself as a particular exegesis of the sacred Text Disputing traditional interpretations by arguing that Arabic literature can only be assessed from within and not through comparison with other literary traditions this book is of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Arabic Studies and Literary Studies Intertextuality in Modern
