Davis,2011-04-25 This book focuses on the 2001 2002 crisis that brought India and Pakistan to the brink of war Authors focus on the political history that led to the crisis the conventional military environment the nuclear environment and coercive diplomacy and de escalation during the crisis and how South Asia can avoid similar crises in the future Transformation of the Indian Armed Forces: 2025 Maj Gen A K Lal (Retd),2012-05-09 Transformation should lie at the heart of our new approach to defense The development of transformational capabilities processes and force structures should be given strategic focus to meet the principal challenges under our defense strategy India is already ceased with the necessity of transformation albeit without any documented national security guidelines or operating instructions which are legislated or have the validation of at least the Cabinet

Committee on Security CCS In other words the first step would be to create a draft security strategy based on many assumptions like the foreign policy or the cumulative emerging threat scenario as appreciated by the Defence Intelligence Agency DIA This well researched book is a result of the project allotted by the USI under the Field Marshal K M Cariappa chair The book is therefore more as an idea or a theoretical construct basically to bring in more clarity to the various options available for this great transformation of the Indian military The author has deliberated upon various landmarks of transformation milestones achieved so far by the three services and given recommendations to further build upon ongoing modernization plan and shift to a higher plane of transformational activities
