Armenian Literature:

The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S. Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Preserving Armenia's rich literary tradition from a multitude of viewpoints has been the aim of this three volume work This third volume joins the previous two in making excerpts of Armenian masterpieces accessible in beautifully rendered English translations while enabling readers to enjoy the immediacy of these works through lively discussions of the authors and their times Here the focus is on the eighteenth through twentieth centuries The volume begins with a comprehensive overview of the entire historical social and literary panorama of the periods covered the Armenian Renaissance the development of modern Armenian with its Western and Eastern versions the emergence of a national identity and democratic thinking with their impact on literature and theater and such literary schools as Romanticism Realism and Aestheticism Biographies of more than 130 prominent authors appear in these pages together with critical comments concerning their works and extensive excerpts from the works themselves The texts are edited annotated with footnotes and presented in a format that permits easy comprehension Literature unveils a rich pageant of works in historical perspective The varied experiences from the Armenian past come alive allowing for new understandings and comparisons to literatures of other nations

A Reference Guide to Modern Armenian Literature, 1500-1920 Kevork B. Bardakjian, 2000 A comprehensive guide to Armenian writers and literature spanning five centuries Combining features of a reference work bibliographic guide and literary history it records the output of almost 400 authors who wrote both in Armenia and in the communities of the Armenian diaspora Presents a general history of the literature with chapters devoted to a single century and prefaced by information on the era's social cultural and religious milieus followed by a section of biobibliographical entries for Armenian authors a section of bibliographies and reference works and a listing of anthologies of literature both in Armenian and in translation Includes references to earlier authors and to sources of influence both Armenian and non Armenian A final section contains bibliographies devoted to particular genres and periods such as minstrels folklore and prosody A thematic discussion of the works of more than 150 poets historians monks and others highlights the themes that captured the imagination of Armenian authors From publisher description

The Heritage of Armenian Literature: From the oral tradition to the Golden Age Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S. Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Armenian written literature originated almost 16 centuries ago with the invention of the Armenian alphabet This anthology translated into English takes a comprehensive approach to capturing the essence of the literature of the entire period covered

The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, 2000 The second volume of The Heritage of Armenian Literature continues the highly acclaimed and monumental project of presenting Armenia's literary treasures to an English speaking audience Nowhere else can students and general readers easily find a comprehensive English language guide to these masterpieces complete with important background information and vivid accurate translations of key sample passages Volume 2 takes readers through the medieval period up to the eighteenth century As in the previous volume the editors here offer a wide and varied range of readings that encompasses the literary panorama of this ancient civilization They situate each work as extensively as possible within its theological historical and philosophical contexts while highlighting aspects that will be meaningful to readers in light of modern scholarship

The Heritage of Armenian Literature: From the eighteenth century to modern times Agop Jack Hacikyan,2000 Armenia Vahé Oshagan,1984 Studies in Armenian Literature and Christianity Robert W. Thomson,1994 Professor Thomson deals here with the origins of Armenian Christian literature and its development as an individual literary culture At the same time these studies make available to students of Patristics and Byzantine history some of the wealth of information preserved in the Armenian sources One set of articles focusing on the question of origins looks at the influence and use made of Christian Syriac and Greek writings both theological and historical as well as those of late classical antiquity Others examine how the Armenians viewed themselves in their ambiguous position between Byzantium and Iran and how those views were expressed in their historical writing A key theme as the author would see it is the formulation of a received tradition and the ways in which later writers interacted with it and used it removed from its original context to create their own images of Armenian individuality History of Armenian Literature James Etmekjian,1985 Armenian Literature Robert Arnot, A History of Armenian Literature Srбуhi Pōghosi Hayrapetean,1995 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,1997 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
