Army Letters from an Officer's Wife, 1871-1888 Frances M. a. Roe, 2017-06-09 ARMY LETTERS FROM AN OFFICER S WIFE KIT CARSON COLORADO TERRITORY October 1871 IT is late so this can be only a note to tell you that we arrived here safely and will take the stage for Fort Lyon to morrow morning at six o clock I am thankful enough that our stay is short at this terrible place where one feels there is danger of being murdered any minute Not one woman have I seen here but there are men any number of dreadful looking men each one armed with big pistols and leather belts full of cartridges But the houses we saw as we came from the station were worse even than the men They looked in the moonlight like huge cakes of clay where spooks and creepy things might be found The hotel is much like the houses and appears to have been made of dirt and a few drygoods boxes Even the low roof is of dirt The whole place is horrible and dismal beyond description and just why anyone lives here I cannot understand I am all upset Faye has just been in to say that only one of my trunks can be taken on the stage with us and of course I had to select one that has all sorts of things in it and consequently leave my pretty dresses here to be sent for all but the Japanese silk which happens to be in that trunk But imagine my mortification in having to go with Faye to his regiment with only two dresses And then to make my shortcomings the more vexatious Faye will be simply fine all the time in his brand new uniform Perhaps I can send a long letter soon if I live to reach that army post that still seems so far away FORT LYON COLORADO TERRITORY October 1871 AFTER months of anticipation and days of weary travel we have at last got to our army home As you know Fort Lyon is fifty miles from Kit Carson and we came all that distance in a funny looking stage coach called a jerkey and a good name for it too for at times it seesawed back and forth and then sideways in an awful breakneck way The day was glorious and the atmosphere so clear we could see miles and miles in every direction But there was not one object to be seen on the vast rolling plains not a tree nor a house except the wretched ranch and stockade where we got fresh horses and a perfectly uneatable dinner It was dark when we reached the post so of course we could see nothing that night General and Mrs Phillips gave us a most cordial welcome just as though they had known us always Dinner was served soon after we arrived and the cheerful dining room and the table with its dainty china and bright silver was such a surprise so much nicer than anything we had expected to find here and all so different from the terrible places we had seen since reaching the plains It was apparent at once that this was not a place for spooks General Phillips is not a real general only so by brevet for gallant service during the war I was so disappointed when I was told this but Faye says that he is very much afraid that I will have cause sooner or later to think that the grade of captain is quite high enough

Captain Charles Rawn and the Frontier Infantry in Montana M. Brown PhD, 2016-07-11 Stationed in Montana during the height of the Indian Wars Captain Charles Rawn proved an unlikely hero and an indispensable leader in numerous battles He took command from a drunken Major Baker at the Battle of Pryor s Creek saving the 400 soldiers from possible annihilation at the hands of 1 000 Sioux As commander of Fort Missoula he led 35 soldiers and 200 volunteers in an attempt to halt 850 Nez Perce warriors When Colonel Gibbon suffered an injury at the Battle of the Big Hole Rawn s experience and leadership of the 7th Infantry helped prevent another Custer debacle Author Robert M Brown catalogues the career of this outstanding officer and the transformation of the frontier army from a Civil War legacy into an elite fighting force

Give Me Eighty Men Shannon D. Smith, 2021-12-08 With eighty men I could ride through the entire Sioux nation The story of what has become popularly known as the Fetterman Fight near Fort Phil Kearney in present day Wyoming in 1866 is based entirely on this infamous declaration attributed to Capt William J Fetterman Historical accounts cite this statement in support of the premise that bravado vainglory and contempt for the fort s commander Col Henry B Carrington compelled Fetterman to disobey direct orders from Carrington and lead his men into a perfectly executed ambush by an alliance of Plains Indians In the aftermath of the incident Carrington s superiors including generals Ulysses S Grant and William T Sherman positioned Carrington as solely accountable for the massacre by suppressing exonerating evidence In the face of this betrayal Carrington s first and second wives came to their husband s defense by publishing books presenting his version of the deadly encounter Although several of Fetterman s soldiers and fellow officers disagreed with the women s accounts their chivalrous deference to women s moral authority during this age of Victorian sensibilities enabled Carrington s wives to present their story without challenge Influenced by these early works historians focused on Fetterman s arrogance and ineptitude as the sole cause of the tragedy In Give Me Eighty Men Shannon D Smith reexamines the works of the two Mrs Carringtons in the context of contemporary evidence No longer seen as an arrogant firebrand Fetterman emerges as an outstanding officer who respected the Plains Indians superiority in numbers weaponry and battle skills Give Me Eighty Men both challenges standard interpretations of this American myth and shows the powerful influence of female writers in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Scouting with the Buffalo Soldiers John P. Langellier, 2020-10-15 On a hot summer s day in Montana a daring frontier cavalry officer Powhatan Henry Clarke died at the height of his promising career A member of the U S Military Academy s Class of 1884 Clarke graduated dead last and while short on academic application he was long on charm and bravado Clarke obtained a commission with the black troops of the Tenth Cavalry earning his spurs with these Buffalo Soldiers He evolved into a fearless field commander at the troop level gaining glory and first hand knowledge of what it took to campaign in the West During his brief action packed career Clarke saved a black trooper s life while under Apache fire and was awarded the Medal of Honor A chance meeting brought Clarke together with artist Frederic Remington who brought national attention to Clarke when he illustrated the exploit for an 1886 Harper s Weekly The officer and artist became friends and Clarke served as a model and consultant for future artwork by Remington Remington s many depictions of Clarke added greatly to the cavalryman s luster In turn the artist gained fame and fortune in part from drawing on Clarke as his muse The story of these two unlikely comrades tells much about the final stages of the Wild West and the United States emergence on the international scene Along the way Geronimo The Apache Kid Texas John Slaughter and others played their roles in Clarke s brief but compelling drama The Indian Territory Journals of Colonel Richard Irving Dodge Richard Irving Dodge, 2000 In these journals Colonel Richard Irving Dodge a well known chronicler of western history and an authority on Plains Indians provides an important account of conditions in Indian Territory from 1878 to 1880 a period of rapid transition The Cheyenne Arapaho reservation in present day western Oklahoma was the center of Dodge s activity His writings offer a firsthand record of the 1878 retreat of the Northern Cheyenne the conditions endured by Indians who remained on the reservation and the jurisdictional conflicts between Army personnel and representatives of the Office of Indian Affairs These journals also provide insight into Dodge s character with reports of his official duties as a military man and of several landmark events in his family life Extensive commentaries and notes by Wayne R Kime provide further detail including a history of Cantonment North Fork Canadian River a six company post Dodge established and commanded in the region [A Catalogue of the Everett D.
