Cultural Property Law and Restitution Irini A. Stamatoudi, 2011-01-01 This invaluable book for the first time brings together the international and European Union legal framework on cultural property law and the restitution of cultural property Drawing on the author's extensive experience of international disputes it provides a very comprehensive and useful commentary Theories of cultural nationalism and cultural internationalism and their founding principles are explored Irini Stamatoudi also draws on soft law sources ethics morality public feeling and the role of international organisations to create a complete picture of the principles and trends emerging today The American Book Collector, 1970 Making History with Manuscripts in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Johannes Junge Ruhland, 2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium Language and Power in the Early Middle Ages Patrick J. Geary, 2013 Language and ideology in the scholarship of the late Middle Ages In Search of the Culprit Lukas Rösli, Stefanie Gropper, 2021-12-06 Despite various poststructuralist rejections of the idea of a singular author genius the question of a textual archetype that can be assigned to a named author is still a common scholarly phantasm The Romantic idea that an author created a text or even a work autonomously is transferred even to pre modern literature today This ignores the fact that the transmission of medieval and early modern literature creates variances that could not be justified by means of singular authorships The present volume offers new theoretical approaches from English German and Scandinavian studies to provide a historically more adequate approach to the question of authorship in premodern literary cultures Authorship is no longer equated with an extra textual entity but is instead considered a narratological inner and intertextual function that can be recognized in the retrospectively established beginnings of literature as well as in the medial transformation of texts during the early days of printing The volume is aimed at interested scholars of all philologies especially those dealing with the Middle Ages or Early Modern Period Sources of the History of North Africa, Asia and Oceania in Denmark Danish National Archives,C.
