Arp on Arp: Poems, Essays, Memories Jean Arp, 1972 Arp on Arp: Poems, Essays, Memories by Jean Arp Marcel Jean, 1972 Arp on Arp: poems, essays, memories H. Arp, 1972 Manifesto Mary Ann Caws, The first anthology of its kind Manifesto features over two hundred artistic and cultural manifestos from a wide range of countries The manifesto a public statement that sets forth the tenets of a forthcoming existing or potential movement or ism or that plays on the idea of one became in various modernisms a crucial and forceful vehicle for artists writers and other intellectuals to express their ideas about the direction of aesthetics and society Included in this collection are texts ranging from Kurt Schwitters's Cow Manifesto to those written in the name of well known movements imagism cubism surrealism symbolism vorticism projectivism and less well known ones lettrism acmeism concretism rayonism Also covered are expressionist Dada and futurist movements from French Italian Russian Spanish and Latin American perspectives as well as local movements such as Brazilian hallucinism Influential startling unsettling amusing and continually engaging these modernist manifestos give voice to a fascinating array of ideas and opinions that will prove invaluable to scholars and students of nineteenth and twentieth century art literature and culture Genre and Extravagance in the Novel Jed Rasula, 2021 Examines the form of the novel capaciously defined and across its history exploring the interplay of conformity and experimentation in classic and outlier examples of the genre with a focus on Joseph Conrad Henry James and Virginia Woolf A Companion to Dada and Surrealism David Hopkins, 2022-01-06 This excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism blends expert synthesis of the latest scholarship with completely new research offering historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender This book provides an excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism from some of the finest established and up and coming scholars in the field Offers historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender One of the first studies to produce global coverage of the two movements it also includes a section dealing with the critical and cultural aftermath of Dada and Surrealism in the later twentieth century Dada and Surrealism are arguably the most popular areas of modern art both in the academic and public spheres Uncertainty and Risk Gabriele Bammer, Michael Smithson, 2012-05-04 This is a major and deeply thoughtful contribution to understanding uncertainty and risk Our world and its unprecedented challenges need such ways of thinking Much more than a set of contributions from different disciplines this book leads you to explore your own way of perceiving your own area of work An outstanding contribution that will stay on my shelves for many years Dr Neil T M Hamilton Director WWF International Arctic Programme This collection of essays provides a unique and fascinating overview of perspectives on uncertainty and risk across a wide variety of disciplines It is a valuable and accessible sourcebook for specialists and laypeople alike Professor Renate Schubert Head of the Institute for Environmental Decisions and Chair of Economics at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology This comprehensive collection of disciplinary perspectives on uncertainty is a definitive guide to contemporary insights into this Achilles heel of modernity and the endemic hubris of institutional science in its role as public authority It gives firm foundations to the fundamental historic shift now underway in the world towards normalizing acceptance of the immanent condition of ignorance and of its practical corollaries contingency uncontrol and respect for difference Brian Wynne Professor of Science Studies Lancaster University Bamber and Smithson have assembled a fascinating important collection of papers on uncertainty and its management The integrative nature of Uncertainty and Risk makes it a landmark in the intellectual history of this vital cross disciplinary concept George Cvetkovich Director Center for Cross Cultural Research Western Washington University Uncertainty governs our lives From the unknowns of living with the risks of terrorism to developing policies on genetically modified foods or disaster planning for catastrophic climate change how we conceptualize evaluate and cope with uncertainty drives our actions and deployment of resources decisions and priorities In this thorough and wide ranging volume theoretical perspectives are drawn from art history complexity science economics futures history law philosophy physics psychology statistics and theology On a practical level uncertainty is examined in emergency management intelligence law enforcement music policy and politics Key problems that are a subject of focus are environmental management communicable diseases and illicit drugs Opening and closing sections of the book provide major conceptual strands in uncertainty thinking and develop an integrated view of the nature of uncertainty uncertainty as a motivating or de motivating force and strategies for coping and managing under uncertainty

In Search of the Primitive Stanley Diamond, 2017-06-21 Anthropology is a kind of debate between human possibilities a dialectical movement between the anthropologist as a modern man and the primitive peoples he studies In Search of the Primitive is a tough minded book containing chapters ranging from encounters in the field to essays on the nature of law schizophrenia and civilization and the evolution of the work of Claude Lévi Strauss Above all it is reflective and self critical critical of the discipline of anthropology and of the civilization that produced that discipline Diamond views the anthropologist who refuses to become a searching critic of his own civilizations as not merely irresponsible but a tool of Western civilization He rejects the associations which have been made in the ideology of our civilization consciously or unconsciously between Western dominance and progress imperialism and evolution evolution and progress

Primitivism and Twentieth-Century Art Jack Flam, Miriam Deutch, 2003-03-27 This is a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive. In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions. I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable. Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West. An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort. Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures. The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized. Recent texts included are all germane. This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic. Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress. An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art. Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam's essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years ideas about Primitivism. Rich timely illuminating. Herbert M Cole author of Icons Ideals and Power in the Art of Africa. Lipstick Traces Greil Marcus, 1990. Greil Marcus author of Mystery Train widely acclaimed as the best book ever written about America as seen through its music began work on this new book out of a fascination with the Sex Pistols that scandalous antimusical group invented in London in 1975 and dead within two years which sparked the emergence of the culture called punk. eoel am an antichrist e shouted singer Johnny Rotten ewhere in the world of pop music did that come from. Looking for an answer with a high sense of the drama of the journey Marcus takes us down the dark paths of counterhistory a route of blasphemy adventure and surprise. This is no mere search for cultural antecedents. Instead what Marcus so brilliantly shows is that various kinds of angry absolute demands edemands on society art and all the governing structures of everyday life eseem to be coded in phrases images and actions passed on invisibly but inevitably by people quite unaware of each other. Marcus lets us hear strange yet familiar voices of such heretics as the Brethren of the Free Spirit in medieval Europe and the Ranters in seventeenth century England the dadaists in Zurich in 1916 and Berlin in 1918 wearing death masks chanting glossolalia one Michel Mourre who in 1950 took over Easter Mass at Notre Dame to proclaim the death of God the Lettrist International and the Situationist International small groups of Paris ebased artists and writers surrounding Guy Debord who produced blank screen films prophetic graffiti and perhaps the most provocative social criticism of the 1950s and e tm 60s the rioting students and workers of May e tm 68 scrawling cryptic slogans on city walls and bringing France to a halt the Sex Pistols in London recording the savage eoeAnarchy in the U K e and eoeGod Save the Queen e. Although the Sex Pistols shape the beginning and the end of the story Lipstick Traces is not a book about music it is about a common voice discovered and transmitted in many forms Working from scores of previously unexamined and untranslated essays manifestos and filmscripts from old photographs dada sound poetry punk songs collages and classic texts from Marx to Henri Lefebvre Marcus takes us deep behind the acknowledged events of our era into a hidden tradition of moments that would seem imaginary except for the fact that they are real a tradition of shared utopias solitary refusals impossible demands and unexplained disappearances Written with grace and force humor and an insistent sense of tragedy and danger Lipstick Traces tells a story as disruptive and compelling as the century itself New Opportunities for Artistic Practice in Virtual Worlds Doyle, Denise, 2015-06-26 Although virtual worlds continue to grow in popularity a substantial amount of research is needed to determine best practices in virtual spaces The artistic community is one field where virtual worlds can be utilized to the greatest effect New Opportunities for Artistic Practice in Virtual Worlds provides a coherent account of artistic practices in virtual worlds and considers the contribution the Second Life platform has made in a historical theoretical and critical context within the fields of art and technology This volume is intended for both artists and scholars in the areas of digital art art and technology media arts history virtual worlds and games studies as well as a broader academic audience who are interested in the philosophical implications of virtual spaces Flight Out of Time Hugo Ball, 1996-05-06 A key document Indispensable for an understanding of the beginnings of the Dada movement and Dada in Zurich Rudolf Kuenzli Director International Dada Archive In Flight Out of Time one can follow Dada s unfolding and expansion almost day by day Charles Haxthausen coeditor Berlin Culture and Metropolis Memoirs of a Dada Drummer Richard Huelsenbeck, 1991-06-06 Huelsenbeck s memoirs bring to life the concerns intellectual artistic and political of the individuals involved in the Dada movement and document the controversies within the movement and in response to it Stardust Melody Richard M. Sudhalter, 2003-10-30 Georgia on My Mind Rockin Chair Skylark Lazybones and of course the incomparable Star Dust who else could have composed these classic American songs but Hoagy Carmichael He remains for millions the voice of heartland America eternal counterpoint to the urban sensibility of Cole Porter and George Gershwin Now trumpeter and historian Richard M Sudhalter has penned the first book length biography of the man Alec Wilder hailed as the most talented inventive sophisticated and jazz oriented of all the great songwriters the greatest of the great craftsmen Stardust Melody follows Carmichael from his roaring twenties Indiana youth to bandstands and recording studios across the nation playing piano and singing alongside jazz greats Jack Teagarden Benny Goodman Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey and close friends Bix Beiderbecke and Louis Armstrong It illuminates his peak Hollywood years starring in such films as To Have and Have Not and The Best Years of Our Lives and on radio records and TV With compassionate insight Sudhalter depicts Hoagy s triumphs and tragedies and his mounting despair as rock and roll drowns out and lays waste to the last days of a brilliant career With an insider s clarity Sudhalter explores the songs themselves still fresh and appealing while reminding us of our innocent American yesterdays Drawing on Carmichael s private papers and on interviews with family friends and colleagues he reveals that The Old Music Master was almost as gifted a wordsmith as a shaper of melodies In all Stardust Melody offers a richly textured portrait of one of our greatest musical figures an inspiring American icon Kurt Schwitters Merzbau Elizabeth Burns Gamard,2000-04 The Building Studies series examines important buildings through original documents detailed text photography and drawings in an affordable format Inventing Abstraction, 1910-1925 Leah Dickerman,Matthew Affron,2012 This book explores the development of abstraction from the moment of its declaration around 1912 to its establishment as the foundation of avant garde practice in the mid 1920s The book brings together many of the most influential works in abstractions early history to draw a cross media portrait of this watershed moment in which traditional art was reinvented in a wholesale way Works are presented in groups that serve as case studies each engaging a key topic in abstractions first years an artist a movement an exhibition or thematic concern Key focal points include Vasily Kandinskys ambitious Compositions V VI and VII a selection of Piet Mondrians work that offers a distilled narrative of his trajectory to Neo plasticism and all the extant Suprematist pictures that Kazimir Malevich showed in the landmark 0 10 exhibition in 1915 0Exhibition MoMA New York USA 23 12 2012 15 4 2013 Modern Arts Criticism ,1991 A biographical and critical guide to painters sculptors photographers and architects from the beginning of the modern era to the present Exploring the Invisible Lynn Gamwell,2002 This sumptuous and stunningly illustrated book shows through words and images how directly profoundly and indisputably modern science has transformed modern art Beginning in the mid nineteenth century a strange and exciting new world came into focus a world of microorganisms in myriad shapes and colors prehistoric fossils bizarre undersea creatures spectrums of light and sound molecules of water and atomic particles Exploring the Invisible reveals that the world beyond the naked eye made visible by advances in science has been a major inspiration for artists ever since influencing the subjects they choose as well as their techniques and modes of representation Lynn Gamwell traces the evolution of abstract art through several waves beginning with Romanticism She shows how new windows into telescopic and microscopic realms combined with the growing explanatory importance of mathematics and new definitions of beauty derived from science broadly and profoundly influenced Western art Art increasingly reflected our more complex understanding of reality through increasing abstraction For example a German physiologist s famous demonstration that color is not in the world but in the mind influenced Monet s revolutionary painting with light As the first wave of enthusiasm for science crested abstract art emerged in Brussels and Munich By 1914 it could be found from Moscow to Paris Throughout the book are beautiful images from both science and art some well known others rare that reveal the scientific sources mined by Impressionist and Symbolist painters Art Nouveau sculptors and architects Cubists and other nineteenth and twentieth century artists With a foreword by astronomer Neil deGrasse Tyson Exploring the Invisible appears in an age when both artists and scientists are exploring the deepest meanings of life consciousness and the universe DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder,2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema's lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film's provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media's materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author's previous Harmony and Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema

Eating Architecture

Jamie Horwitz, Paulette Singley, 2006-02-17 A highly original collection of essays that explore the relationship between food and architecture the preparation of meals and the production of space The contributors to this highly original collection of essays explore the relationship between food and architecture asking what can be learned by examining the often metaphorical intersection of the preparation of meals and the production of space In a culture that includes the Food Channel and the knife juggling chefs of Benihana food has become not only an obsession but an alternative art form The nineteen essays and Gallery of Recipes in Eating Architecture seize this moment to investigate how art and architecture engage issues of identity ideology conviviality memory and loss that cookery evokes This is a book for all those who opt for the combination platter of cultural inquiry as well as for the readers of M F K Fisher and Ruth Reichl The essays are organized into four sections that lead the reader from the landscape to the kitchen the table and finally the mouth The essays in Place Settings examine the relationships between food and location that arise in culinary colonialism and the global economy of tourism Philosophy in the Kitchen traces the routines that create a site for aesthetic experimentation including an examination of gingerbread houses as art food and architectural space The essays in Table Rules consider the spatial and performative aspects of eating and the ways in which shared meals are among the most perishable and preserved cultural artifacts Finally Embodied Taste considers the sensual apprehension of food and what it means to consume a work of art The Gallery of Recipes contains images by contemporary architects on the subject of eating architecture
