Song in Gold Pavilions Ronald Stevenson, 2009-10-01 There is an undeniable fascination in reading the words that composers write Whenever a composer puts finger to typewriter rather than pencil to manuscript paper we inevitably hope that he might proffer us some insights into the workings of the creative musical mind that source of much mystery since the act of composition left the realm of low artisanship for that of High Art some two or three centuries ago Composers who deal with words as naturally as they write notes are however a breed of exceeding rarity Ronald Stevenson belongs amongst them and the proof of it is to be found amply in this book
