The contributors in this volume examine themes such as literary cosmopolitanism Sri Lankan identity diasporic identity race and racism home and belonging trauma in the Sri Lankan civil war war games and uncertainty theory. An important contribution to Ondaatje studies, the book is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of Sri Lankan literature diasporic and world literatures South Asian and Canadian studies cultural studies postcolonial fiction and history.

Year 1966 Katarzyna Chmielewska, Tomasz Żukowski, 2025-05-30 Year 1966 analyzes the breakthrough moment in the culture of the Polish People's Republic when revolutionary social and cultural changes slowed down in the mid 1960s leading to a turn toward the idea of a nation as a field of ideological dispute between different social actors. The book explores the question of what happened in Polish culture at that time: how social ties were defined where sources of legitimization of power for the new order were sought beyond the slogans of the revolution equality advancement or prosperity how historical politics participated in this process the fate of the great emancipation projects of the 1950s such as emancipation of women or equality for ethnic minorities and how the meanings of the related narratives changed. It also shows how all important actors the diverse power camp the emerging opposition the Church participated in this process adapted their own narratives and built a new understanding of society social ties history and collective identity with effects that would weigh heavily on the democratic transformations of the 1990s. This volume is intended for researchers interested in the history and culture of Poland communist Central and Eastern Europe memory studies cultural and literary history social history and sociology.

Queering Masculinities in Language and Culture Paul Baker, Giuseppe Balirano, 2017-12-08 How do we learn what it means to be a man? And how do we learn to question what it means to be a man? This collection comprises a set of original interdisciplinary chapters on the linguistic and cultural representations of queer masculinities in a range of new and older media: television film online forums news reporting advertising and fiction. This innovative work examines new and emerging forms of gender hybridisation in relation to complex socialisation and immigration contexts including the role of EU institutions in ascertaining asylum seekers sexual orientation and the European laws on gender policy. The book employs numerous analytical approaches including critical discourse analysis corpus linguistics multimodal analysis literary criticism and anthropological and social research. The authors show how such texts can disrupt question or complicate traditional notions of what it means to be a man queering the idea that men possess fixed identities or desires instead arguing that masculinity is constantly changing and negotiated through the cultural and political overlapping contexts in which it is regularly produced These nuanced analyses will bring fresh insights for students and scholars of gender masculinity and queer studies linguistics anthropology and semiotics

Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only form analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world To the Victor, the Potatoes! Roberto Schwarz, 2019-11-26 Literary forms travel from core countries to the periphery of capitalism where they are adopted under social conditions that differ from those in the countries of their origin Besides being inevitable the resulting maladjustments lead to new and original aesthetic problems presenting to the reader the symptoms of the world's complexity When properly worked through these allow for the rise of world class art as in the case of the great Brazilian novels by Machado de Assis First published in Portuguese in 1977 as Ao vencedor as batatas Forma literária e processo social nos ciclos do romance brasileiro by Duas Cidades Editora 34 ISBN 978 85 7326 169 2 and presented here in a new English language translation To the Victor the Potatoes is a major work of one of the most significant Marxist literary critics of our time Asian American Fiction After 1965 Christopher T. Fan, 2024-04-23 After the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act loosened discriminatory restrictions people from Northeast Asian countries such as South Korea Taiwan Japan and eventually China immigrated to the United States in large numbers Highly skilled Asian immigrants flocked to professional managerial occupations especially in science technology engineering and math Asian American literature is now overwhelmingly defined by this generation's children who often struggled with parental and social expectations that they would pursue lucrative careers on their way to becoming writers Christopher T Fan offers a new way to understand Asian American fiction through the lens of the class and race formations that shaped its authors both in the United States and in Northeast Asia In readings of writers including Ted Chiang Chang rae Lee Ken Liu Ling Ma Ruth Ozeki Kathy Wang and Charles Yu he examines how Asian American fiction maps the immigrant narrative of intergenerational conflict onto the two cultures conflict between the arts and sciences Fan argues that the self consciousness found in these writers works is a legacy of Japanese and American modernization projects that emphasized technical and scientific skills in service of rapid industrialization He considers Asian American writers attraction to science fiction the figure of the engineer and notions of the postracial modernization theory and time travel and what happens when the dream of a stable professional identity encounters the realities of deprofessionalization and proletarianization Through a transnational and historical materialist approach this groundbreaking book illuminates what makes texts and authors Asian American
