Imagery in the 21st Century Oliver Grau, 2013-08-16 Scholars from science art and humanities explore the meaning of our new image worlds and offer new strategies for visual analysis We are surrounded by images as never before on Flickr Facebook and YouTube on thousands of television channels in digital games and virtual worlds in media art and science Without new efforts to visualize complex ideas structures and systems today's information explosion would be unmanageable The digital image represents endless options for manipulation images seem capable of changing interactively or even autonomously This volume offers systematic and interdisciplinary reflections on these new image worlds and new analytical approaches to the visual Imagery in the 21st Century examines this revolution in various fields with researchers from the natural sciences and the humanities meeting to achieve a deeper understanding of the meaning and impact of the image in our time The contributors explore and discuss new critical terms of multidisciplinary scope from database economy to the dramaturgy of hypermedia from visualizations in neuroscience to the image in bio art They consider the power of the image in the development of human consciousness pursue new definitions of visual phenomena and examine new tools for image research and visual analysis CyberCulture Now: Social and Communication Behaviours on the Web Anna Maj, 2019-01-04

This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 At present cyberculture is a dominating cultural paradigm and nothing seems to be able to replace it We globally share the same cyberspace but there is a question whether we all together the whole humankind are really living in the same cyberculture This book proves that we rather tend to define the contemporary state of culture as cybercultures The process of spreading technologies trends and ideas is not the same in all parts of the world The varying speeds of this process and cultural diversity of its forms are created by different social political economic and cultural contexts By representing different perspectives the authors depict a wide spectrum of the most important current problems connected with networked life global sharing of data loss of privacy new meanings of community and developments in narrative structures and social behaviours arising from new communication possibilities instantaneity of information and global viral sensitivity The Art and Science of Interface and Interaction Design

(Vol. 1) Christa Sommerer, Laurent Mignonneau, 2008-09-08 Artists and creators in interactive art and interaction design have long been conducting research on human machine interaction Through artistic conceptual social and critical projects they have shown how interactive digital processes are essential elements for their artistic creations Resulting prototypes have often reached beyond the art arena into areas such as mobile computing intelligent ambiences intelligent architecture fashionable technologies ubiquitous computing and pervasive gaming Many of the early artist developed interactive technologies have influenced new design practices products and services of today's media society This book brings together key theoreticians and practitioners of this field It shows how historically relevant the issues of interaction and interface design are as they can be analyzed not only from an engineering point of view but from a social artistic and conceptual and even commercial angle as well      Wild Sound Amy Cimini, 2022 This is the first study of U S composer Maryanne Amacher 1938 2009 an elusive and original figure in music composition sound art installation and media aesthetics Wild Sound animates her creative and speculative approaches to how sound can be heard as a fictional narrative as a long distance connection as a music composed of tones that originate inside the listener's inner ear      Tactical Biopolitics Beatriz Da Costa, Kavita Philip, 2010-08-13 Scientists scholars and artists consider the political significance of recent advances in the biological sciences Popular culture in this biological century seems to feed on proliferating fears anxieties and hopes around the life sciences at a time when such basic concepts as scientific truth race and gender identity and the human itself are destabilized in the public eye Tactical Biopolitics suggests that the political challenges at the intersection of life science and art are best addressed through a combination of artistic intervention critical theorizing and reflective practices Transcending disciplinary boundaries contributions to this volume focus on the political significance of recent advances in the biological sciences and explore the possibility of public participation in scientific discourse drawing on research and practice in art biology critical theory anthropology and cultural studies After framing the subject in terms of both biology and art Tactical Biopolitics discusses such topics as race and genetics with contributions from leading biologists Richard Lewontin and Richard Levins feminist bioscience the politics of scientific expertise bioart and the public sphere with an essay by artist Claire Pentecost activism and public health with an essay by Treatment Action Group co founder Mark Harrington biosecurity after 9 11 with essays by artists collective Critical Art Ensemble and anthropologist Paul Rabinow and human animal interaction with a framing essay by cultural theorist Donna Haraway Contributors Gaymon Bennett Larry Carbone Karen Cardozo Gary Cass Beatriz da Costa Oron Catts Gabriella Coleman Critical Art Ensemble Gwen D Arcangelis Troy Duster Donna Haraway Mark Harrington Jens Hauser Kathy High Fatimah Jackson Gwyneth Jones Jonathan King Richard Levins Richard Lewontin Rachel Mayeri Sherie McDonald Claire Pentecost Kavita Philip Paul Rabinow Banu Subramanian subRosa Abha Sur Samir Sur Jacqueline Stevens Eugene Thacker Paul Vanouse Ionat Zurr      Ars Electronica 2006 Gerfried Stocker, Christine Schöpf, 2006 Isn't it strange that we are constantly developing new technologies to simplify our lives and work but in the end we are left with the impression that everything's just become a lot more complicated Simplicity more than just the pipe dream of a society dominated by technical revolutions global networks and inundations of information No other concept of late has enjoyed such widespread popularity and so accurately expressed the needs of our times Just how are we to cope with the increasing degree of complexity in the reality we inhabit How can we tap and utilize the potential of global communication in an efficient and responsible way How can we develop systems devices and programs that are responsive to our strengths and intuitive capabilities The Ars Electronica 2006 catalog brings together the theoretical reflections of participating artists and elaborations on projects presented at the Ars Electronica Festival 2006 thus providing a dynamic overview of the entire range of facets and levels of significance of the festival theme Simplicity the

Hornyak, John J. Moore, H.F. Tibbals, Joydeep Dutta, 2018-12-14 WINNER 2009 CHOICE AWARD OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE Nanotechnology is no longer a subdiscipline of chemistry engineering or any other field It represents the convergence of many fields and therefore demands a new paradigm for teaching This textbook is for the next generation of nanotechnologists It surveys the field's broad landscape exploring the physical basics such as nanorheology nanofluidics and nanomechanics as well as industrial concerns such as manufacturing reliability and safety The authors then explore the vast range of nanomaterials and systematically outline devices and applications in various industrial sectors This color text is an ideal companion to Introduction to Nanoscience by the same group of esteemed authors Both titles are also available as the single volume Introduction to Nanoscience and Nanotechnology Qualifying instructors who purchase either of these volumes or the combined set are given online access to a wealth of instructional materials These include detailed lecture notes review summaries slides exercises and more The authors provide enough material for both one and two semester courses Introduction to Nanoscience and Nanotechnology Gabor L. Hornyak, H.F. Tibbals, Joydeep Dutta, John J. Moore, 2008-12-22 The maturation of nanotechnology has revealed it to be a unique and distinct discipline rather than a specialization within a larger field Its textbook cannot afford to be a chemistry physics or engineering text focused on nano It must be an integrated multidisciplinary and specifically nano textbook The archetype of the modern nano textbook Ubermorgen.com Inke Arns, 2009 The Mobile Audience Martin Rieser, 2011 Preliminary Material Introduction Howard Rheingold Overview Martin Rieser Pockets of Plenty An Archaeology of Mobile Media Erkki Huhtamo The Temporal and Spatial Design of Video and Film based Installation Art in the 60s and 70s Their Inherent Perception Processes and Effects on the Perceivers Actions Susanne Jaschko Forgotten Histories of Interactive Space Martin Rieser Art by Telephone From Static to Mobile Interfaces Adriana de Souza e Silva Mobile Audience Thinking the Contradictions Mary Griffiths and Sean Cubitt Towards a Language of Mobile Media Jon Dovey and Constance Fleuriot Snapshots from Curating Mobility If you build it they won't necessarily come Beryl Graham Beyond Mapping New Strategies for Meaning in Locative Artworks Martin Rieser Digital Media and Architecture An Observation Anke Jacob Urban Screens as the Visualization Zone of the City's Invisible Communication

CyberArts 2005, 2005 Playful Disruption of Digital Media Daniel Cermak-Sassenrath, 2018-04-07 This book starts with the proposition that digital media invite play and indeed need to be played by their everyday users Play is probably one of the most visible and powerful ways to appropriate the digital world The diverse emerging practices of digital media appear to be essentially playful Users are involved and active produce form and content spread exchange and consume it take risks are conscious of their own goals and the possibilities of achieving them are skilled and know how to acquire more skills They share a perspective of can do a curiosity of what happens next Play can be observed in social economic political artistic educational and criminal contexts and endeavours It is employed as a counter strategy for tacit or open resistance as a method and productive practice and something people do for fun The book aims to define a particular contemporary attitude a playful approach to media It identifies some common ground and key principles in this novel terrain Instead of looking at play and how it branches into different disciplines like business and education the phenomenon of play in digital media is approached unconstrained by disciplinary boundaries The contributions in this book provide a glimpse of a playful technological revolution that is a joyful celebration of possibilities that new media afford This book is not a practical guide on how to hack a system or to pirate music but provides critical insights into the unintended artistic fun subversive and sometimes dodgy applications of digital media Contributions from Chris Crawford Mathias Fuchs Rilla Khaled Sybille Lammes Eva and Franco

Mattes Florian Floyd Mueller Michael Nitsche Julian Oliver and others cover and address topics such as reflective game design identity and people's engagement in online media conflicts and challenging opportunities for play playing with cartographical interfaces player emergent production practices the re purposing of data game creation as an educational approach the ludification of society the creation of meaning within and without play the internalisation and subversion of roles through play and the boundaries of play New Directions in Third Wave Human-Computer Interaction: Volume 2 - Methodologies Michael Filimowicz, Veronika Tzankova, 2018-06-27 This is the first extensive compilation documenting contemporary third wave HCI covering key methodological developments at the leading edge of human computer interactions Now in its second decade as a major current of HCI research the third wave integrates insights from the humanities and social sciences to emphasize human dimensions beyond workplace efficiency or cognitive capacities Where the earliest HCI work has been strongly based on the concept of human machine coupling which expanded to workplace collaboration as computers came into mainstream professional use today HCI can connect to almost any human experience because there are new applications for every aspect of daily life Volume 2 Methodologies covers methodological approaches grounded in autoethnography empathy based design crowdsourcing psychometrics user engagement speculative design somatics embodied cognition peripheral practices and transdisciplinarity Ubermorgen.com Hans Bernhard, Lizvlx, 2009

Sensory Perception Friedrich G. Barth, Patrizia Giampieri-Deutsch, Hans-Dieter Klein, 2012-02-01 Sensory perception mind and matter aims at a deeper understanding of the many facets of sensory perception and their relations to brain function and cognition It is an attempt to promote the interdisciplinary discourse between the neurosciences and psychology which speaks the language of cognitive experiences and philosophy which has been thinking about the meaning and origin of consciousness since its beginning Leading experts contribute to such a discourse by informing the reader about exciting modern developments both technical and conceptual and by pointing to the big gaps still to be bridged The various chapters provide access to scientific research on sensory perception and the mind from a broad perspective covering a large spectrum of topics which range from the molecular mechanisms at work in sensory cells to the study of the unconscious and to neurophilosophy Culture as Capital Slavko Kacunko, 2015-03-02 By following and reproducing the cultural turn the rhetoric of cultural mix and hybridism is disseminated today primarily in its crossing of trade barriers Cultures reduced to their exchange value function as capital an accumulative speculative and ultimately financial affair In some of its media and site un specific manifestations process art which aims to encompass both old and new media art seems to resist this pressure despite nonetheless not being protected from regulations and incorporations In the present collection of his recent essays Slavko Kacunko discusses the process art by crossing the disciplines of art history and comparative media visual and cultural studies As a first approximation several historiographical remarks on closed circuit video installations underline their importance as a core category of process art In the second part the problems of process art seen as a threshold of art history are further examined in another retroanalytical step in which concepts and objects related to mirror frame and immediacy are analyzed as the triple delimitation of visual culture studies In the third part previously outlined manifestations of what is termed the post visual condition are summarized and projected to the coreless core of the emerging art and research related to the coreless beings par excellence the bacteria

Animation in Austria Florian Schmidlechner, 2025-05-23 This book provides a comprehensive account of Austrian animation history as well as an analysis of the current state of the industry in competition with American and cheaper international products in the face of dwindling budgets The book outlines the history of Austrian animated film from the actual beginnings at the time of the First World War It looks at the reconstruction of the animation industry during the 1950s and 60s and covers experimental animation from the 1970s onwards The final part of the book explores modern Austrian animation and looks ahead to the future of animation production within the country This book will be of great interest to academics students and professionals working and researching in the field of animation
