psychosocial studies Development and the Arts Margery B. Franklin, Bernard Kaplan, 2013-05-13 This volume's unifying theme is the question Is a concept of development relevant to art Bringing together contributions from the perspectives of philosophical aesthetics psychoanalysis architecture and design and the practicing artist as well as developmental theory in psychology this volume provides a unique assembly of voices from different disciplines The twelve chapters span artistic production in childhood transformations in the work of the individual artist and historical changes in art thus establishing a broad canvas for examining how concepts of development are used in relation to the arts The contributors consider specific phenomena and questions against the background of theoretical issues taking markedly different views on whether change in artistic work can be aptly characterized as development and if so what modulations of the concept may be required in light of accompanying assumptions and implications Given the nature of this discourse this richly illustrated book should lead to a radical rethinking among those who apply developmental concepts to artistic phenomena and aesthetic movements and to reconsideration of the role of art in optimal human development within the individual and within social orders The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 24 Jerome A. Winer, 2013-05-13 Volume 24 of The Annual opens with a memorial tribute to the late Merton M Gill 1914 1994 a major voice in American psychoanalysis for half a century Remembrances of Gill by Robert Holt Robert Wallerstein Philip Holzman and Irwin Hoffman are followed by thoughtful appreciations of Gill's final book Psychoanalysis in Transition A Personal View Analytic Press 1994 by John Gedo Jerome Oremland Arnold Richards and Arthur Lynch Joseph Schachter and Bhaskar Sripada and Shara Kronmal Section II offers four papers from a major conference on Mind Brain held in Osaka Japan In addition to publishing two clinical papers by the Chicago analyst John Gedo The Annual introduces readers to two prominent Japanese neuroscientists whose work is relevant to psychoanalysis Hiroshi Utena links brain development to the individual's freedom to make optimal adaptive choices whereas Makoto Iwata outlines the modular organization of vision in the brain and then illustrates each modular potential by examining the paintings of four artists Mondrian Duchamp Seurat and Rothko Kenneth Newman's sensitive consideration of analyst self-discourse as the outcome of successful management of the countertransference and Frank Summers' astute assessment of the place of self psychology in the history of psychoanalytic ideas are followed by three engaging and instructive studies in applied analysis Elaine Caruth and Milton Eber's examination of Woody Allen's The Purple Rose of Cairo as a metaphoric depiction of the blurring of boundaries in psychotherapy Frank and Annette Lachmann's study of the creative process of Henrik Ibsen as a self-transformational response to narcissistic injury and W W Meissner's exploration of the role of shame in Vincent van Gogh's life and art The volume concludes with a provocative contribution to psychoanalytic history J Bos's social constructivist rereading of the Minutes of the Vienna Psycho-Analytic Society with an eye to illuminating why and how psychoanalysis changed during its early years True to its distinguished lineage volume 24 of The Annual continues to broaden the conceptual clinical and historical vistas of its readers Moreover with its revealing reminiscences and substantive appraisals of Merton Gill this volume becomes a fascinating marker in the very psychoanalytic history it helps recount Hans Bellmer Sue Taylor, 2002 A study of Hans Bellmer's eroticized images and the psychological origins of his disturbing art The Psychology of Art Appreciation Bjarne Sode Funch, 1997 This book is more than an introduction to the psychology of art appreciation it puts into perspective the research carried out within the area and offers a new understanding of the relationship between art and viewer A number of studies within the psycho-physical cognitive psychoanalytic and existential phenomenological schools of thought are presented in order to demonstrate how their views on the appreciation of visual art vary Five different types of art appreciation ranging from a spontaneous preference for a work of art to a blissful experience of transcendence are identified and described Methods and Theories of Art History Anne D'Alleva, 2005 This is an analysis of complex forms of art history It covers a broad range of approaches presenting individual arguments controversies and divergent perspectives The book begins by introducing the concept of theory and explains why it is important to the practice of art history Reading Psychoanalysis Peter L. Rudnytsky, 2018-08-06 In a stunning fusion of literary criticism and intellectual history Peter L. Rudnytsky explores the dialectical interplay between literature and psychoanalysis by reading key psychoanalytic texts in a variety of genres He maps the origins of the contemporary relational tradition in the lives and work of three of Freud's most brilliant and original disciples Otto Rank Sándor Ferenczi and Georg Groddeck Rudnytsky a scholar with an unsurpassed knowledge of the world of clinical psychoanalysis espouses the relational turn as an alternative to both ego psychology and postmodernism Rudnytsky seeks to alter the received view of the psychoanalytic landscape in which the towering figure of Freud has continued to obscure the achievements of his followers who individually resisted and collectively went beyond him Reading Psychoanalysis offers the most detailed and comprehensive treatments available in English of such classic texts as Freud's case of Little Hans Rank's The Incest Theme in Literature and Legend and Groddeck's The Book of the It Rudnytsky's argument for object relations theory concludes by boldly affirming the possibility of a consilience between scientific and hermeneutic modes of knowledge

Kaija Saariaho: Visions, Narratives, Dialogues Jon Hargreaves, 2017-07-05 Kaija Saariaho is internationally recognized as a leading figure in contemporary music enjoying a well deserved reputation for works that are both creatively original and of considerable appeal Her music communicates with a refreshingly broad audience and this special achievement deserves careful consideration In the first symposium book in English to be dedicated exclusively to this single figure scholars from both the UK and Saariaho's native Finland bring a range of perspectives to her richly varied output Uncovering the compositional historical cultural and sociological issues that have resulted in such critical acclaim lies at the heart of this collection of essays Saariaho's approach to composition is an interdisciplinary one it embraces a number of art forms visual literary and musical in works that explore a creative dialogue between image continuity and time While such diversity is readily accommodated in a multi authored collection the consistency of an underlying compositional identity and integrity is also an important trait The grouping of these essays into three strands visions narratives and dialogues reflects the wide range of Saariaho s creative preoccupations while subscribing to a carefully structured succession of commentaries

Narratives of Art Practice and Mental Wellbeing Olivia Sagan,2014-10-17 Narratives of Art Practice and Mental Wellbeing draws on extensive research carried out with mental health service users who are also practicing artists Using narrative data gained through hours of reflective conversation it explores not whether art can contribute to positive wellbeing and improved mental health as this is now established ground but rather how art works and the role art making can play in people s lives as they encounter crises relapse recovery or beyonding The book maps the delicate ways in which finding a means to tell our story sometimes is the creative project we seek and offers a reminder of how intrinsically linked our life trajectories are with creative opportunities It describes the wide range of artistic activity occurring in health and community settings and the meanings of these practices to people with histories of mental turbulence Drawing on psychoanalytic theory the book explore the stories and various forms of visual arts practices spoken of and considers the art making processes the creative moments and the objects which in some cases have changed people s lives The seven chapters of the book offer a blend of personal testimony theory debate critique and celebration and examine key topics of deliberation within the fields of art therapy arts in health community arts practice participatory arts and widening participation within arts education It will be valuable reading for researchers students artists and practitioners in these fields The

Psychoanalysis of Aesthetic Experience George Hagman,2025-07-28 In The Psychoanalysis of Aesthetic Experience Self Relationship and Culture George Hagman eloquently provides an overview of ideas regarding the aesthetic foundation of human experience and the way in which this aesthetic perspective can shed light on human development culture and analytic clinical process The book discusses the relationship between the psychology of art and the aesthetics of psychoanalytic treatment Hagman presents a comprehensive psychoanalytic model of the psychology of aesthetics creativity beauty ugliness and the sublime as well as a theory of aesthetics across the dimensions of subjectivity self intersubjectivity and culture Starting from the point of early childhood development he argues for the importance of exploring the implications of this important psychological phenomenon for clinical practice highlighting how aesthetics can shed light on a dimension of the psychotherapeutic process that has thus been neglected This book is an illuminating and informative read for all psychoanalysts and anyone interested in the intersection of psychoanalytic practice aesthetics creativity and culture
