Art And Technics:

"Art, Technology and Nature " Camilla Skovbjerg Paldam, 2017-07-05 Since 1900 the connections between art and technology with nature have become increasingly inextricable Through a selection of innovative readings by international scholars this book presents the first investigation of the intersections between art technology and nature in post medieval times Transdisciplinary in approach this volume s 14 essays explore art technology and nature s shifting constellations that are discernible at the micro level and as part of a larger chronological pattern Included are subjects ranging from Renaissance wooden dolls science in the Italian art academies and artisanal epistemologies in the followers of Leonardo to Surrealism and its precursors in Mannerist grotesques and the Wunderkammer eighteenth century plant printing the climate and its artistic presentations from Constable to Olafur Eliasson and the hermeneutics of bioart In their comprehensive introduction editors Camilla Skovbjerg Paldam and Jacob Wamberg trace the Kantian heritage of radically separating art and technology and inserting both at a distance to nature suggesting this was a transient chapter in history Thus they argue the present renegotiation between art technology and nature is reminiscent of the ancient and medieval periods in which art and technology were categorized as aspects of a common area of cultivated products and their methods the Latin ars the Greek techne an area moreover supposed to imitate the creative forces of nature originated in a Leonardo journal project of the same name is a compendium of the work of women artists who have played a central role in the development of new media practice The book includes overviews of the history and foundations of the field by among others artists Sheila Pinkel and Kathy Brew classic papers by women working in art and technology papers written expressly for this book by women whose work is currently shaping and reshaping the field and a series of critical essays that look to the future Artist contributors Computer graphics artists Rebecca Allen and Donna Cox video artists Dara Birnbaum Joan Jonas Valerie Soe and Steina Vasulka composers Cecile Le Prado Pauline Oliveros and Pamela Z interactive artists Jennifer Hall and Blyth Hazen Agnes Hegedus Lynn Hershman and Sonya Rapoport virtual reality artists Char Davies and Brenda Laurel net artists Anna Couey Monika Fleischmann and Wolfgang Strauss Nancy Paterson and Sandy Stone and choreographer Dawn Stoppiello critics include Margaret Morse Jaishree Odin Patric Prince and Zoe Sofia Culture, Technology & Creativity in the Late Twentieth Century Philip Hayward,1990 Addressing how technology and creativity interrelate in the arts and culture of the late 20th century this anthology combines a general introduction with a set of case studies from a range of international critics Fusing Art and Technology: Co-Creating Futures for New Generations Anh, Trinh Thuy,2025-08-29 Immersive technologies including virtual reality VR and augmented reality AR are revolutionizing human computer interactions Due to these technological advancements there are increased opportunities and an increased interest in artistic experimentation There is also an increasing concern about the direction that human intelligence is taking At the same time TechArt can address educational challenges transform traditional systems and ensure equity As such art and technology can co create sustainable futures for the new generation Fusing Art and Technology Co Creating Futures for New Generations aims to bridge the existing gap in resources that critically examine the fusion of art and technology By focusing on the creative sustainable and culturally enriching advances in the ArtTech field it illuminates paths for future collaboration and innovation addressing the challenges and opportunities at the intersection of these disciplines Covering topics such as aesthetic value human intelligence and social development this book is an excellent resource for artists technologists cultural institution professionals policymakers researchers professionals scholars academicians and more At the Limits of Presentation Martta Heikkilä,2008 This study explores the significance of art in Jean Luc Nancy s philosophy The main object of the work is to discuss the notion of art and its contribution to some of Nancy s central ontological ideas Art s importance is considered in its own right the main questions being whether art does have ontological significance and if so how one should describe this with respect to the theme of presentation According to the work s central argument with his thinking on art Nancy attempts to give one viewpoint to what is called the metaphysics of presence and to its deconstruction On which grounds may one say that art is not reducible to philosophy These topics are examined by highlighting the differentiation between the notions of presentation and representation with regard to the influence of Martin Heidegger and Jacques Derrida on Nancy s thought Is Art Good for Us? Joli Jensen,2002 Are the arts good for us This book questions our taken for granted assumptions about the transformational powers of high culture by critiquing an instrumental American heritage of beliefs about the arts Jensen argues that faith in high culture s unproven ability to transform people and society allows social critics to keep faith with the idea of a democratic society while deploring popular culture Employing perspectives from Tocqueville and Dewey she argues that the arts are good but they don t do good Instead of expecting the arts to improve things and blaming the media for ruining them we need to recognize that it is up to us not the arts to make the world a better place

The Work of Art in a Digital Age: Art, Technology and Globalisation Melissa Langdon, 2014-08-20 This book explores digital artists articulations of globalization Digital artworks from around the world are examined in terms of how they both express and simulate globalization's impacts through immersive participatory and interactive technologies. The author highlights some of the problems with macro and categorical approaches to the study of globalization and presents new ways of seeing the phenomenon as a series of processes and flows that are individually experienced and expressed. Instead of providing a macro analysis of large scale political and economic processes, the book offers imaginative new ways of knowing and understanding globalization as a series of micro affects. Digital art is explored in terms of how it re-centers articulations of globalization around individual experiences and offers new ways of accessing a complex topic often expressed in general and intangible terms. The Work of Art in a Digital Age: Art Technology and Globalization is analytic and accessible with material that is of interest to a range of researchers from different disciplines. Students studying digital art, film, globalization, cultural studies, or digital media trends will also find the content fascinating.
