Ibn Hazm of Cordoba Camilla Adang, Maribel Fierro, Sabine Schmidtke, 2012-12-10 This volume represents the state of the art in research on the controversial Muslim legal scholar theologian and man of letters Ibn azm of Cordoba d 456 1064 who is widely regarded as one of the most brilliant minds of Islamic Spain Remembered mostly for his charming treatise on love he was first and foremost a fierce polemicist who was much criticized for his idiosyncratic views and his abrasive language Insisting that the sacred sources of Islam are to be understood in their outward sense and that it is only the Prophet Mu ammad whose example may be followed Ibn azm alienated himself from his peers As a result his books were burned and he was forced to withdraw from public life Contributors are Camilla Adang Hassan Ansari Samuel Martin Behloul Alfonso Carmona Leigh Chipman Maribel Fierro Alejandro Garc a Sanju n Livnat Holtzman Samir Kaddouri Joep Lameer Christian Lange Gabriel Martinez Gros Luis Molina Salvador Pe a Jose Miguel Puerta Vilchez Rafael Ram n Guerrero Adam Sabra Sabine Schmidtke Delfina Serrano Bruna Soravia Dominique Urvoy Kees Versteegh and David Wasserstein

Odyssey in International Markets Christian Volpe Martincus,2010-01-01 Despite progress in communication technologies lack of information still severely handicaps companies seeking to operate in international markets Furthermore the investments that these companies must make to gather the information required to trade with foreign markets may yield reduced returns and may consequently be low from a social point of view as third parties may derive benefits from this same information Thus lack of information may negatively affect trade and thereby productivity and economic growth For these reasons firms carrying out export projects may require support to overcome information barriers This is precisely the service that export promotion organizations provide But there is little evidence on how well these organizations perform this task Export promotion is costly and the resources used might be better employed elsewhere In order to ascertain that these resources are in fact being well invested it must be first determined whether the policy initiatives they finance have an impact on those variables that are supposed to affect in this case exports Making this determination is the aim of this report This study first makes a comprehensive analysis of export promotion organizations in some three dozens of countries and regions and second it provides robust evaluations using state of the art econometrics and original data sets purposely compiled of the impacts that policies have had on export outcomes of countries and firms Findings reported in this study suggest that trade promotion has been effective in facilitating export expansion especially along the extensive margin At the same time the report points the need for further research to gain deeper insights into its relative merits

Selected Poems of Shmuel HaNagid Shmuel HaNagid,2016-06-30 The first major poet of the Hebrew literary renaissance of Moslem Spain Shmuel Ben Yosef Ha Levi HaNagid 993 1056 c e was also the Prime Minister of the Muslim state of Granada battlefield commander of the non Jewish Granadan army and one of the leading religious figures in a medieval Jewish world that stretched from Andalusia to Baghdad Peter Cole s groundbreaking versions of HaNagid s poems capture the poet s combination of secular and religious passion as well as his inspired linking of Hebrew and Arabic poetic practice This annotated Selected Poems is the most comprehensive collection of HaNagid s work published to date in English The Multiple

Troubles of Man The multiple troubles of man my brother like slander and pain amaze you Consider the heart which holds them all in strangeness and doesn't break I'd Suck Bitter Poison from the Viper's Mouth I'd suck bitter poison from the viper's mouth and live by the basilisk's hole forever rather than suffer through evenings with boors fighting for crumbs from their table

Rethinking Catholicism in Renaissance Spain Xavier Tubau, 2022-09-23 Rethinking Catholicism in Renaissance Spain claims that theology and canon law were decisive for shaping ideas debates and decisions about key political and religious problems in Renaissance Spain This book studies Catholic thought during the Spanish Renaissance with the various contributors specifically exploring the ecclesiology and heresiology of the period Today these two subjects are considered to be strictly branches of theology but at the time they were also dealt with in the field of canon law Both ecclesiology which studied the internal structure of the Church and heresiology which identified theological errors played an important role in shaping ideas debates and decisions concerning the major political and religious problems of the late medieval and early modern periods In contrast to the conventional monolithic view of Spanish Catholic thought on ecclesiastical matters the chapters in this book demonstrate that there was a wide spectrum of ideas in the field of theology and canon law The topics analyzed include Church and Crown relations diplomatic controversies doctrinal debates on slavery ecclesiological disputes in dialogue with the Council of Trent and theories for distinguishing heresies and repressing them This book will be essential reading for those interested in disciplines such as Church history political history and the history of political and legal thought

The Labor Wars in Cordoba, 1955-1976 James Brennan, 2009-07-01 Cordoba is Argentina's second largest city a university town that became the center of its automobile industry In the decade following the overthrow of Juan Peron's government in 1955 the city experienced rapid industrial growth The arrival of IKA Renault and Fiat fostered a particular kind of industrial development and created a new industrial worker of predominantly rural origins Former farm boys and small town dwellers were thrust suddenly into the world of the modern factory and the multinational corporation The domination of the local economy by a single industry and the prominent role played by the automobile workers unions brought about the greatest working class protest in postwar Latin American history the 1969 Cordobazo Following the Cordobazo the local labor movement was one characterized by intense militancy and determined opposition to both authoritarian military governments and the Peronist trade union bureaucracy These labor wars have been mythologized as a Latin American equivalent to the French student strikes of May/June 1968 and the Italian hot summer of the same period Analyzing these events in the context of recent debates on Latin American working class politics Brennan demonstrates that the pronounced militancy and even political radicalism of the Cordoban working class were due not only to Argentina's changing political culture but also to the dynamic relationship between the factory and society during those years Brennan draws on corporate archives in Argentina France and Italy as well as previously unknown union archives Readers interested in Latin American studies labor history industrial relations political science industrial sociology and international business will all find value in this important analysis of labor politics Empire No More! Ken Coates,2004 Wars and threats of war seethe all around us American military doctrine has been transmuted into a formal commitment to Full Spectrum Dominance or unchallengeable superiority in any contest on or in land sea air space or information Old treaties for disarmament have gone down like skittles There follows a deadly competition to perfect usable nuclear weapons and to repudiate the no first use pledges which were once thought to offer a slender link to rationality and human survival If the peace is endangered human rights are in parlous condition The United Nations finds itself widely ignored and overruled by brute force The Geneva Conventions are not only violated but the complaints of the Red Cross are not even read by responsible ministers In the final paroxysms of the old East West arms race Ken Coates was a founder of European Nuclear Disarmament which tried to take both peace and human rights seriously Full Spectrum Dominance makes this commitment more difficult and more necessary than ever BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Religion and Society in Spain, c. 1492 John Edwards,2024-10-28 The articles in this volume explore both individual and corporate aspects of religion in Spain during the 15th and 16th centuries Jewish Christian and Muslim John Edwards looks in particular at the status experience and attitudes of the conversos those who had converted to Christianity to avoid expulsion from Spain and at the activities of the Inquisition In the second part of the book he expands his analysis to examine the social economic and political basis of religious conflict in the period The primary focus of the book is on the cities of Andalucia Cordoba above all but its concerns extend to Castile and Aragon as well Directory of Museums Kenneth Hudson,Ann Nicholls,1975-06-18 Messianism and Puritanical Reform Mercedes Garcia-Arenal,2006-06-01 This is a book about revolutionary movements of a messianic and millenarian character led by a mahdi in Islamic terms a charismatic messianic leader It also addresses the question of mediation between God and men and the political repercussions of this question in the history of the pre Modern Muslim West Mahdism is considered in relation to sufi ideas terminology and symbols which shape notions of authority and of legitimate power when claiming direct intimate contact between the holy and the divine The relationship between mahdism and the legitimacy of power the process by which the messianic paradigm becomes inseparable from the claim to the caliphate are amply discussed The contents of the book range from the times of the Muslim conquest of North Africa and Iberia to the first part of the XVIIth century with the end of Muslim Iberia and the beginnings of European intervention in Morocco Index to the Correspondence of the Foreign Office Great Britain.

Foreign Office,1972 Tasting the Cape - Guide to the Cape Winelands Jean-Pierre Rossouw,2012-10-03 Tasting the Cape is a guide to the world renowned Cape winelands a travelling companion and more Filled with insights from one of South Africa s most influential food and wine critics the book offers the wine lover a new and accessible approach to South African wines by grouping the featured estates by character the formal types the wacky ones and the quiet achievers Tasting the Cape will not only introduce you to the legends of the Cape winelands and the history of the estates they call home but will also show you how to navigate your way through the region depending on your interests and the type of wine you are interested in tasting suggesting routes that combine wine with scenic drives and history This completely new way of experiencing the Cape winelands combines useful knowledge about wine with a flavour of the places and people that make this one of the world's most fascinating and dynamic wine producing areas The Fall of the Caliphate of Córdoba Peter C. Scales,1993-12-31 This book throws the weight of historical expertise into an analysis of a crucial and yet often neglected period of Spanish history the breakup of the Muslim Caliphate of Cordoba in the early eleventh century Defining Boundaries in al-Andalus Janina M. Safran,2013-04-09 Al Andalus the Arabic name for the medieval Islamic state in Iberia endured for over 750 years following the Arab and Berber conquest of Hispania in 711 While the popular perception of al Andalus is that of a land of religious tolerance and cultural cooperation the fact is that we know relatively little about how Muslims governed Christians and Jews in al Andalus and about social relations among Muslims Christians and Jews In Defining Boundaries in al Andalus Janina M Safran takes a close look at the structure and practice of Muslim political and legal religious authority and offers a rare look at intercommunal life in Iberia during the first three centuries of Islamic rule Safran makes creative use of a body of evidence that until now has gone largely untapped by historians the writings and opinions of Andalusi and Maghribi jurists during the Umayyad dynasty These sources enable her to bring to life a society undergoing dramatic transformation Obvious differences between conquerors and conquered and Muslims and non Muslims became blurred over time by transculturation intermarriage and conversion Safran examines ample evidence of intimate contact between individuals of different religious communities and of legal juridical accommodation to develop an argument about how legal religious authorities interpreted the social contract between the Muslim regime and the Christian and Jewish populations Providing a variety of examples of boundary testing and negotiation and bringing judges jurists and their legal opinions and texts into the narrative of Andalusi history Safran deepens our understanding of the politics of Umayyad rule makes Islamic law tangibly social and renders intercommunal relations vividly personal Annual Report of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church Methodist Episcopal Church.
