Approaches To Popular Film:

Approaches to Popular Film Joanne Hollows, Mark Jancovich, 1995-05-15 Introductory textbook for A level and undergraduate courses Approaches to Popular Film Joanne Hollows, Mark Jancovich, 1995 Introductory textbook for A level and undergraduate courses Approaches to Popular Film Joanne Hollows, Mark Jancovich, 1995 Popular Iranian Cinema before the Revolution Pedram Partovi, 2017-07-14 Critics and academics have generally dismissed the commercial productions of the late Pahlavi era best known for their songs and melodramatic plots as shallow derivative entertainment. Instead they have concentrated on the more recent internationally acclaimed art films claiming that these constitute Iranian national cinema despite few Iranians having seen them. Film discourse and even fan talk have long attempted to marginalize the mainstream releases of the 1960s and 1970s with the moniker filmfarsi ironically asserting that such popular favorites were culturally inauthentic. This book challenges the idea that filmfarsi is detached from the past and present of Iranians. Far from being escapist Hollywood fare merely translated into Persian it claims that the better films of this supposed genre must be taken as both a subject of and source for modern Iranian history. It argues that they have an appeal that relies on their ability to rearticulate traditional courtly and religious ideas and forms to problematize in unexpectedly complex and sophisticated ways the modernist agenda that secular nationalist elites wished to impose on their viewers. Taken seriously these films raise questions about standard treatments of Iran's modern history. By writing popular films into Iranian history this book advocates both a fresh approach to the study of Iranian cinema as well as a rethinking of the modernity tradition binary that has organized the historiography of the recent past. It will appeal to those interested in Iranian cinema, Iranian history and culture and more broadly readers dissatisfied with a dichotomous approach to modernity.

Technoscience in Contemporary Film Aylish Wood, 2002 This analysis of images of science and technology from popular films of the 1980s and 1990s argues that films as diverse as the science fiction film Jurassic Park contribute to popular understandings of science and technology. Interpreting Rock Movies Andrew Caine, 2004 Andrew Caine details the reaction to British and American pop films during the 1950s and 1960s to provide a valuable insight into British film criticism, teenage culture during the 1950s and 1960s and the generic status of rock films, teen movies and cultural hierarchies.

Film as Religion John C. Lyden, 2003-06-01 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2003 Film as Religion argues that popular films perform a religious function in our culture. Like more formal religious institutions films can provide us with ways to view the world and values to confront it. Lyden contends that approaches which interpret films only ideologically or theologically miss the mark in understanding their appeal to viewers. He develops an alternative method which shows how films can be understood as representing a religious worldview in their own right. Lyden surveys the state of the study of religion and film offering an overview of previous methods before presenting his own. Rather than seeking to uncover hidden meanings in film detectable only to scholars Lyden emphasizes how film functions for its audiences: the beliefs and values it conveys and its ritual power to provide emotional catharsis He includes a number of brief cases studies in which he applies this method to the study of film genres including westerns and action movies children s films and romantic comedies and individual films from The Godfather to E T showing how films can function religiously Monsters in the Closet Harry M. Benshoff,1997-11-15 Monster in the Closet is a history of the horrors film that explores the genre s relationship to the social and cultural history of homosexuality in America Drawing on a wide variety of films and primary source materials including censorship files critical reviews promotional materials fanzines men s magazines and popular news weeklies the book examines the historical figure of the movie monster in relation to various medical psychological religious and social models of homosexuality While recent work within gay and lesbian studies has explored how the genetic tropes of the horror film intersect with popular culture s understanding of queerness this is the first book to examine how the concept of the monster queer has evolved from era to era From the gay and lesbian sensibilities encoded into the form and content of the classical Hollywood horror film to recent films which play upon AIDS related fears Monster in the Closet examines how the horror film started and continues to demonize or quite literally monsterize queer sexuality and what the pleasures and costs of such representations might be both for individual spectators and culture at large New Hollywood Violence Steven Jay Schneider,2004-11-27 New Hollywood Violence is a groundbreaking collection of essays devoted to an interrogation of various aspects dimensions and depictions of violence in New Hollywood filmmaking New Hollywood refers to the return to genre filmmaking following America s flirtation with European art cinema in the late 1960s and early 1970s and is characterized by vast production budgets and special effects Focusing on the motivations the formal and stylistic qualities and the cultural politics of violence as well as the effects on viewers the collection is divided into four sections Surveys and schemas Spectacle and style Race and gender and Politics to ideology An Afterword by Stephen Prince reflects on the various essays and points the way towards areas of future exploration Film Stars Andrew Willis,2004-09-04 This book takes as its focus film stars from the past and present from Hollywood its margins and beyond and analyzes them through a close consideration of their films and the variety of contexts in which they worked Essays spread the net wide looking at past stars from Rosalind Russell and Charlton Heston to present day stars including Sandra Bullock Jackie Chan and Jim Carrey as well as those figures who have earned a certain film star cachet such as Prince and the martial artist Cynthia Rothrock The Dolby Era Gianluca Sergi,2004 Since the 1970s Hollywood cinema has been the site of remarkable developments in film sound New revolutionary sound technologies have been developed a new generation of filmmakers have learned to use them as powerful storytelling tools and audiences have enjoyed a different way of experiencing films both theatrically and at home For the first time through historical analysis and interviews with key players such as Ray Dolby founder and creator of Dolby Laboratories Ioan Allen the initiator of the Dolby Stereo program sound designer Gary Rydstrom Titanic Terminator 2 Toy Story Saving Private Ryan Finding Nemo and supervising sound editor Bruce Stambler The Fugitive Batman Forever Clear and Present Danger The Fast and the Furious XXX this book aims at providing a substantial account of sound in contemporary Hollywood cinema since the early 1970s Film as Religion, Second Edition John C. Lyden, 2019-11-26 Argues that popular films perform a religious function in our culture The first edition of Film as Religion was one of the first texts to develop a framework for the analysis of the religious function of films for audiences Like more formal religious institutions films can provide us with ways to view the world and the values to confront it Lyden argues that the cultural influence of films is analogous to that of religions so that films can be understood as representing a religious worldview in their own right Thoroughly updating his examples Lyden examines a range of film genres and individual films from The Godfather to The Hunger Games to Frozen to show how film can function religiously Growing Up With Audrey Hepburn Rachel Moseley, 2002 Growing up with Audrey Hepburn is the first full length academic study of one of the most loved stars of Hollywood cinema A study of both Hepburn's star persona and films it is also an audience study using interviews to explore accounts given by British women who have admired her in the 1950s and 1960s and more recently in the 1990s The New Avengers Jacinda Read, 2000-12-15 Jacinda Read studies the rape revenge film and suggests that the rape revenge cycle can be read as one of the ways in which Hollywood has attempted to make sense of feminism and the shape of heterosexual femininity in the post 1970 period Doing Film Studies Sarah Casey Benyahia, Claire Mortimer, 2013 This title examines what it really means to study film encouraging the reader to question the dominant theories as well as understanding the key approaches to cinema The book provides an overview of the construction of film studies and examines the application of theories to film texts Cognitive Approaches to German Historical Film Jennifer Marston William, 2016-12-07 This book explores how minds at the movies understand minds in the movies and introduces readers to some fundamental principles of Cognitive Studies namely conceptual blending Theory of Mind and empathy perspective taking through their application to film analysis A cognitive approach to recent popular historical films demonstrates cinema's potential to stimulate viewers critical thinking about crucial events of the past century Diverging from the focus on narrative processing in traditional cognitivist theory this book examines film reception and production in the context of the latest developments in cognitive and social psychology Turning to German cinema as a case study for this interdisciplinary partnership Jennifer Marston William offers a fresh look at some internationally successful films of the twenty first century including Nowhere in Africa Goodbye Lenin Sophie Scholl Downfall The Lives of Others and The Baader Meinhof Complex New Communication Approaches in the Digitalized World Mehmet Serdar Erciş, Enes Emre Başar, 2020-06-04 The collection of essays reviews explores and reports on the state of the digitalized world and a number of communication issues It is a readable non technical publication which offers a comprehensive presentation of communication issues trends data and likely future developments in the digitalized world Defining Cult Movies Mark Jancovich, 2003-11-08 This collection concentrates on the analysis of cult movies how they are defined who defines them and the cultural politics of these definitions The definition of the cult movie relies on a sense of its distinction from the mainstream or ordinary This also raises issues about the perception of it as an oppositional form of cinema and of its strained relationships to processes of institutionalization and classification In other words cult movie fandom has often presented itself as being in opposition to the academy commercial film industries and the media more generally but has been far more dependent on these forms than it has usually been willing to admit The international roster of essayists range over the full and entertaining gamut of cult films from Dario Argento Spanish horror and Peter Jackson s New Zealand gorefests to sexploitation kung fu and sci fi flicks
