Transnationalism Raymond Anthony Rocco, 2006 Well known social scientist and humanist from USA Latin America and Spain such as Saskia Sassen Garc a Canclini or Monsivais worked together at an international conference held in Los Angeles Cal in order to make a compelling case for the transnational as an operative analytical category Their essays collected in this volume consider how cultural studies political analysis urban studies and the study of migrations change when using a sort of a transnational perspective that goes beyond the economic determinism underlying the liberal concept of globalization and the more critical of mundialization After an introduction that carves out a scientific space for a transnational frame of reference and clarifies its political dimensions the book deals with three main issues the interaction of global supra national and local infra national forces in global cities post metropolis and other post national spaces a critical consideration of current use of modern political discourse from the oxymoronic notion of world citizenship to the ambivalent realities of human rights and how transnational forces and spaces subvert collective imaginaries figurations identities and memories that formed the cultural core of nation alism

Transnationalism and Urbanism Stefan Krätke, Kathrin Wildner, Stephan Lanz, 2012 The formation of transnational urban spaces is a relevant and challenging field of interdisciplinary research which deserves much more debate in order to deepen our understanding of generating and restructuring urban spaces under conditions of contemporary globalisation processes This edited collection reflects current studies on the relation of transnationalism and urbanism Scholars from disciplines including Geography Ethnography and Urban Planning discuss theoretical approaches methodology and case studies on processes of the production of urban spaces through global economic value chains socio cultural practices and political governance strategies Cities are appropriate sites for an examination of the spatial dimension of transnationality because this is where global processes are concentrated localized transformed and materialize In this context urban space is not merely to be regarded as a setting for transnational practices but as a constituent force of transnationalism in all its manifestations

Transnationalism, Activism, Art Kit Dobson, Áine McGlynn, 2013-01-01 Banksy is known worldwide for his politically subversive works of art but he is far from the only artist whose creations are infused with internationally relevant activist themes How else can the arts help activate citizen participation in social justice movements Moreover what is the role of culture in a globalizing world Transnationalism Activism Art goes beyond Banksy by investigating how the three complementary political social and cultural phenomena listed in the title interact in the twenty first century Renowned and emerging critics use current theory on cultural production and politics to illuminate case studies of various media including film literature visual art and performance in their multiple manifestations from electronic dance music to Wikileaks to bestselling poetry collections By addressing how these artistic media are used to enact citizen participation in social justice movements the volume makes important connections between such participation and scholarly study of globalization and transnationalism

The “Bare Life” of Thai Migrant Workmen in Singapore Pattana Kitiarsa, 2014-01-05 Transnational labor migration often begins with the dream of securing a more stable and prosperous future a chance to survive The lure of global cities as a place to attain that dream looms large within the context of rural urban migration flows This book reveals some of the complex phenomena and processes that strip bare the lives and dreams of migrant workers living abroad whose life experiences are overwhelmingly dominated by stress and suffering and diminished gendered roles The book illuminates the intimate aspects of how Thai male migrants have transcended their harsh reality while living under Singapore s strict regulations governing foreign workers Stripped bare of the powerful sociocultural economic and legal processes that govern their existence at home these men must recraft their gendered selfhoods identities and sensibilities Using personal and interpretive ethnography the book explores how popular music sports religious beliefs cultural traditions sexual desire and intimacy are refashioned by appropriating cultural and symbolic capital into new cultural experiences It also provides an extensive look at the sudden unexplained nocturnal death syndrome SUNDS among young healthy Thai construction workers in Singapore The author s in depth analyses of migrant social life and male migrant gendered identitynegotiating processes provide an invaluable contribution to our understanding of labor transnationalism in the Southeast Asian context Highlights An important contribution to studies of the masculinization of migration Provides ample insight into the lived experience of migrant workers Explores an often forgotten side of labor migration that of sexual intimacy Adds a rich detailed understanding of village transnationalism Strangers, Migrants, Exiles Frauke Reitemeier,2012 The Roles of Immigrants and Foreign Students in US Science, Innovation, and Entrepreneurship Ina Ganguli,Shulamit Kahn,Megan MacGarvie,2020-02-19 The number of immigrants in the US science technology engineering and mathematics STEM workforce and among recipients of advanced STEM degrees at US universities has increased in recent decades In light of the current public debate about immigration there is a need for evidence on the economic impacts of immigrants on the STEM workforce and on innovation Using new data and state of the art empirical methods this volume examines various aspects of the relationships between immigration innovation and entrepreneurship including the effects of changes in the number of immigrants and their skill composition on the rate of innovation the relationship between high skilled immigration and entrepreneurship and the differences between immigrant and native entrepreneurs It presents new evidence on the postgraduation migration patterns of STEM doctoral recipients in particular the likelihood these graduates will return to their home country This volume also examines the role of the US higher education system and of US visa policy in attracting foreign students for graduate study and retaining them after graduation Alternative Chinese Opera in the Age of Globalization D. Lei,2011-02-08 Bringing the study of Chinese theatre into the 21st century Lei discusses ways in which traditional art can survive and thrive in the age of modernization and globalization Building on her previous work this new book focuses on various forms of Chinese opera in locations around the Pacific Rim including Hong Kong Taiwan and California Handbook of Research Methods and Applications in Social Capital Yaojun Li,2015-08-28 Social capital is fundamentally concerned with resources in social relations This Handbook brings together leading scholars from around the world to address important questions on the determinants manifestations and consequences of social capital Vario Wind Over Water David W. Haines,Keiko Yamanaka,Shinji Yamashita,2012-10-01 Providing a comprehensive treatment of a full range of migrant destinies in East Asia by scholars from both Asia and North America this volume captures the way migrants are changing the face of Asia especially in cities such as Beijing Hong Kong Hamamatsu Osaka Tokyo and Singapore It investigates how the crossing of geographical boundaries should also be recognized as a crossing of cultural and social categories that reveals the extraordinary variation in the migrants origins and trajectories These migrants span the spectrum from Korean bar hostesses in Osaka to African entrepreneurs in Hong Kong from Vietnamese women seeking husbands across the Chinese border to Pakistani Muslim men marrying women in Japan from short term business travelers in China to long term tourists from Japan who ultimately decide to retire overseas Illuminating the ways in which an Asian based analysis of migration can yield new data on global migration patterns the contributors provide important new theoretical insights for a broader understanding of global migration and innovative methodological approaches to the spatial and temporal complexity of human migration Housing in 21st-Century Australia Rae Dufty-Jones,Dallas Rogers,2016-03-09 Over the last two decades new and significant demographic economic social and environmental changes and challenges have shaped the production and consumption of housing in Australia and the policy settings that attempt to guide these processes These changes and challenges as outlined in this book are many and varied While these issues are new they raise timeless questions around affordability access density quantity type and location of housing needed in Australian towns and cities The studies presented in this text also provide a unique insight into a range of housing production consumption and policy issues that while based in Australia have implications that go beyond this national context For instance how do suburban based societies adjust to the realities of aging populations anthropogenic climate change and the significant implications such change has for housing How has policy been translated and assembled in specific national contexts Similarly what are the significantly different policy settings the production and consumption of housing in a post Global Financial Crisis period require Framed in this way this book accounts for and responds to some of the key housing issues of the 21st century Asia Journal of Global Studies Derrick M. Nault,2010-10 The Asia Journal of Global Studies AJGS is the official journal of the Japan based Asia Association for Global Studies AAGS The journal features research articles on Asia and other world regions from an Asian regional perspective AJGS other regular offerings include guest columns by global studies experts in Asia reader commentaries and book reviews Multidisciplinary in scope AJGS accepts contributions from authors with backgrounds in the humanities and social sciences The journal encourages historians political scientists sociologists anthropologists linguists philosophers and others to submit their work for consideration It particularly welcomes research that dissolves academic boundaries looks beyond traditional notions of the nation state and aims for a holistic view of the past present and future Home Alison Blunt,Robyn

Dowling,2022-05-30 Home articulates a critical geography of home in which home is understood as an emotive place and spatial imaginary that encompasses lived experiences of everyday domestic life alongside a wider and often contested sense of being and belonging in the world Engaging with the burgeoning cross disciplinary interest in home since the first edition was published this significantly revised and updated second edition contains new research boxes illustrations and contemporary examples throughout It also adds a new chapter on Home and the City that extends the scalar understanding of home to the urban The book develops the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of a critical geography of home drawing on key feminist postcolonial and housing thinkers as well as contemporary methodological currents in non representational thinking and performance The book s chapters consider the making and unmaking of home across the domestic scale house as home the urban city as home national nation as home and homemaking in relation to transnational migration and diaspora Each chapter includes illustrative examples from diverse geographical contexts and historical time periods Chapters also address some of the key cross cutting dimensions of home across these scales including digital connectivity art and performance more than human constructions of home and violence and dispossession The book ends with a research agenda for home in a world of COVID 19 The book provides an understanding of home that has three intersecting dimensions that material and imaginative geographies of home are closely intertwined that home power and identity are intimately linked and that geographies of home are multi scalar This framework the examples used to illustrate it and the intended audience of academics and students across the humanities and social sciences will together shape the field of home studies into the future

Entrepreneurship Mario Franco,2016-11-09 Entrepreneurship has been seen as a phenomenon allowing economic development job creation increased productivity and innovation but many studies do not include the causes of these events Consequently the objective of this book is to fill this gap by combining several studies from more practice oriented perspectives The various chapters presented here follow several approaches which researchers explore in different contexts and link to specific experiences in entrepreneurship This book intends to contribute to better understanding of the phenomenon of entrepreneurship and innovation and to show how these business practices can stimulate economic development in various countries and regions worldwide

Art and Masculinity in Post-War Britain Gregory Salter,2020-05-18 In this book Gregory Salter traces how artists represented home and masculinities in the period of social and personal reconstruction after the Second World War in Britain Salter considers home as an unstable entity at this historical moment imbued with the optimism and hopes of post war recovery while continuing to resonate with the memories and traumas of wartime Artists examined in the book include John Bratby Francis Bacon Keith Vaughan Francis Newton Souza and Victor Pasmore Case studies featured range from the nuclear family and the body to the nation Combined they present an argument that art enables an understanding of post war reconstruction as a temporally unstable long term phenomenon which placed conceptions of home and masculinity at the heart of its aims Art and Masculinity in Post War Britain sheds new light on how the fluid concepts of society nation masculinity and home interacted and influenced each other at this critical period in history and will be of interest to anyone studying art history anthropology sociology history and cultural and heritage studies

Reproducing Chinese Culture in Diaspora Shu-min Huang,2010-01-01 Reproducing Chinese Culture in Diaspora describes how a group of anti communist Chinese nationals managed to establish a farming community in Thailand s northern hills after voluntary exile from communist China in 1949 Though successful from an agricultural sustainability standpoint this community of Chinese exiles has rigidly maintained its cultural ideals driving away younger generations and ultimately threatening to derail the community s continued existence

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew,2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re visioning itself as New

Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore's mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore's beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies

By the Scruff of the Neck Henri Licht, 2015-02-01 Told through the eyes of a young boy By the Scruff of the Neck begins its tale in post Second World War Holland of the 1940s and goes on to give a candid and often humorous account of a Catholic childhood and the dynamics of family life In contrast the impact of the German occupation of Holland provides an insight into the privations of the time as well as the subsequent decision by the family to emigrate to Australia in 1952 The comparisons between life in Holland and in Australia are at times harsh yet the continuing thread of courage and optimism lightens the otherwise difficult migrant experience This is a book many will easily relate to whether they are past or current migrants or whether they are members of long standing Australian families Human foibles are common to most and here there is no holding back in dealing with the issues of growing up and of coming to terms with being a New Australian

Transnationalism Eliezer Ben Rafael, Yitzhak Sternberg, 2009 This book deals with transnationalism and captures its singularity as a generalized phenomenon The profusion of transnational communities is a factor of fluidity in social orders and represents confrontations between contingencies and basic socio cultural drives It has created a new era different from the past at essential respects This is an age of enriching cultural diversity fraught with threatening risks inextricably linked to contemporary globalization National sovereignty is eroded from above by global processes from below by aspirations of sub national groups and from the sides by transnational allegiances This is the backdrop against which this book delves into the fundamental issues relating to the nature scope and overall significance of transnationalism

Approaching Transnationalisms: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Approaching Transnationalisms : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
