Apricots On The Nile:

Apricots on the Nile Colette Rossant, 2002 In 1937 at the age of five Colette Rossant leaves Paris to live with her grandparents in Egypt soon settling into their luxuriant food centred lifestyle She returns to Paris at 15 only revisiting Egypt 30 years later In this memoir she evokes an Egypt lost to her and to us forever Longing and Belonging Nancy E. Berg, Dina Danon, 2025-02-25 This volume explores the history of Jewish life and experience in the modern Islamic world Longing and Belonging investigates the lives of Jews among Muslims in the modern age both inside and outside the Ottoman Empire and after its demise Here modern Jewish protagonists are revealed as active participants in an expansive Islamic civilization reflecting a mutuality and cross fertilization in the region that raises new lines of inquiry and which offers enduring lessons for the world today This collection both foregrounds the experiences of Jewish communities that have long been relegated to the margins of historical and literary studies and critically uses these experiences to complicate prevailing narratives from both Jewish and Middle Eastern Studies By following communities from the coffeeshops of Cairo to the villages of Yemen from the local marriage market in Izmir to the global commerce of the Sassoons readers gain intimate insight into a world that resists a simple understanding of the modern Islamic world and of the place of Jews within it Just as much as the Sephardi and Mizrahi experience complicates prevailing paradigms in the study of Jewish modernity so too does it enrich understandings of modernity across Muslim societies The volume tells a story of longing belonging and longing to belong of multiple affinities in a world that no longer exists Contributors Esra Almas Nancy E Berg Dina Danon Keren Dotan Annie Greene Alma Rachel Heckman Hadar Feldman Samet Joseph Sassoon Edwin Seroussi Alon Tam Alan Verskin Mark Wagner Return to Paris Colette Rossant, 2010-05-11 Paris 1947 Colette Rossant returns to Paris after waiting out World War II in Cairo among her father's Egyptian Jewish relatives Initially the City of Light seems gray and forbidding to the teenage Colette especially after her thrill seeking mother leaves her in the care of her bitter malais grandmother Yet Paris will prove the place where Colette awakens to her senses Taken under the wing of Mademoiselle Georgette the family chef she develops a taste and talent for French cooking The streets of Paris soon become Colette's own as she navigates the outdoor markets and caf menus and emerges into her new gastronomical self Return to Paris is an extraordinary coming of age story that charts the course of Colette's culinary adventures replete with expertly crafted recipes and family photographs An exploration of passion in all its flavor and texture Colette's memoir will live in the hearts and palates of readers for years to come Global Jewish Foodways Hasia R. Diner, Simone Cinotto, 2018-01-01 The history of the Jewish people has been a history of migration Although Jews invariably brought with them their traditional ideas about food during these migrations just as invariably they engaged with the foods they encountered in their new environments Their culinary habits changed as a result of both these migrations and the new political and social realities they encountered The stories in this volume examine the sometimes bewildering kaleidoscope of food experiences generated by new social contacts trade political revolutions wars and migrations both voluntary and compelled This panoramic history of Jewish food highlights its breadth and depth on a global scale from Renaissance Italy to the post World War II era in Israel Argentina and the United States and critically examines the impact of food on Jewish lives and on the complex set of laws practices and procedures that constitutes the Jewish dietary system and regulates what can be eaten when how and with whom Global Jewish Foodways offers a fresh perspective on how historical changes through migration settlement and accommodation transformed Jewish food and customs

The Literary Life of Cairo Samia Mehrez,2011 Readings from literary works that re construct a century of Cairo s changing social life Unlike The Literary Atlas of Cairo which focuses on the literary geopolitics of the cityscape this companion volume immerses the reader in the complex network of socioeconomic and cultural lives in the city The seven chapters first introduce the reader to representations of some of Cairo s prominent profiles both political and cultural and their impact on the city s literary geography before presenting a spectrum of readings of the city by its multiethnic multinational and multilingual writers across class gender and generation Daunting images of colonial school experiences and startling contrasts of postcolonial educational realities are revealed while Cairo s moments of political participation and oppression are illustrated as well as the space accorded to women within the city across history and class The city s marginals are placed on its literary map alongside representations of the relationship between writing and drugs and the places paraphernalia and products of the drug world across class and time Together The Literary Atlas of Cairo and The Literary Life of Cairo produce a literary geography of Cairo that goes beyond the representation of space in literature to reconstruct the complex network of human relationships in that space

Visit to the Holy Land, Egypt, and Italy Ida Pfeiffer,1852 Book Excerpt ice It appeared he owed the gentleman 1300 florins and had wished to abscond but was luckily overtaken before the departure of the boat This affair was hardly concluded when the bell rang the wheels began to revolve and too soon alas my dear ones were out of sight I had but few fellow passengers The weather was indeed fine and mild but the season was not far enough advanced to lure travellers into the wide world excepting men of business and those who had cosmopolitan ideas like myself Most of those on board were going only to Presburg or at farthest to Pesth The captain having mentioned that a woman was on board who intended

The Jewish Quarterly ,1999 American Gardening ,1900 A new geographical, historical and commercial grammar William Guthrie,1808 Berenike and the Ancient Maritime Spice Route Steven E. Sidebotham,2019-05-07 The legendary overland silk road was not the only way to reach Asia for ancient travelers from the Mediterranean During the Roman Empire s heyday equally important maritime routes reached from the Egyptian Red Sea across the Indian Ocean The ancient city of Berenike located approximately 500 miles south of today s Suez Canal was a significant port among these conduits In this book Steven E Sidebotham the archaeologist who excavated Berenike uncovers the role the city played in the regional local and global economies during the eight centuries of its existence Sidebotham analyzes many of the artifacts botanical and faunal remains and hundreds of the texts he and his team found in excavations providing a profoundly intimate glimpse of the people who lived worked and died in this emporium between the classical Mediterranean world and Asia

Weather Patterns Terry J. Jennings,2005 One of a series of accessible illustrated guides to various weather and climate related topics aimed at Key Stage 3 readers The Fayoum R. Neil Hewison,2008 Annotation The Fayoum a large and exceptionally fertile depression in Egypt s Western Desert some 90 kilometers southwest of Cairo is a region both rich in history and outstanding in natural beauty Its historical legacy includes temples pyramids and towns from the Middle Kingdom and the Ptolemaic Period as well as churches monasteries and mosques from later times Its farmland watered by the region s landmark waterwheels is among the most generous in Egypt and its landscape is varied and beautiful The large and ancient lake Qarun nestles in the north between the soft green land and the harsh but dramatic desert scarp while two new lakes connected by Egypt s only waterfalls have been created in the once barren Wadi al Rayyan to the west bringing fishermen farmers and visitors to the desert The Fayoum s wildlife unfortunately no longer includes the crocodile which was sacred here in ancient times but boasts swamp cats and mongooses spoonbills and flamingos Neil Hewison here outlines the history and prehistory of the Fayoum and its lakes describes the agriculture and rural life of the region then guides the visitor around the province site by site never averse to taking an interesting detour along the way Originally published in 1984 this guide to one of Egypt s most distinctive and beautiful regions quickly became regarded as a classic The text has been thoroughly revised and updated for this new edition including a new section on the recently declared UNESCO World Heritage Site of Wadi al Hitan the Valley of the Whales The book is illustrated with color photographs and two maps
