Archaeological Guide to Taxila Sir John Hubert Marshall, 1985 A Guide to Taxila Sir John Marshall, 1960

Handbuch der Orientalistik Kurt A. Behrendt, 2004 Kurt Behrendt in this book for the first time and convincingly offers a description of the development of 2nd century B C E to 8th century C E Buddhist sacred centers in ancient Gandhara today northwest Pakistan A Guide to Taxila John Hubert Marshall, 1960 The Hellenistic Settlements in the East from Armenia and Mesopotamia to Bactria and India Getzel M. Cohen, 2013-06-02 This is the third volume of Getzel Cohen's important work on the Hellenistic settlements in the ancient world Through the conquests of Alexander the Great his successors and others Greek and Macedonian culture spread deep into Asia with colonists settling as far away as Bactria and India In this book Cohen provides historical narratives detailed references citations and commentaries on all the Graeco Macedonian settlements founded or refounded in the East Organized geographically Cohen pulls together discoveries and debates from dozens of widely scattered archaeological and epigraphic projects making a distinct contribution to ongoing questions and opening new avenues of inquiry Major Archaeological Discoveries Along the Chinese Silk Road Xiao Li, 2023-09-11 The book explores largely overlooked areas of Silk Road studies by searching for multidisciplinary evidence on the connotations of Silk Road culture and by rewriting social complexities along the Silk Road in different historical periods It investigates the impacts of conflicts and communication between Silk Road civilizations presents the latest archaeological discoveries and research findings in the field of Silk Road studies and develops a new Silk Road archaeological system By doing so it defines a new direction for Silk Road archaeological studies The Archaeology of South Asia Robin Coningham, Ruth Young, 2015-08-31 This book synthesises the archaeology of South Asia from the Neolithic period c 6500 BCE to the third century BCE Archaeology and Religion in Early Northwest India Daniel Michon, 2015-08-12 This book explores the ways in which past cultures have been used to shape colonial and postcolonial cultural identities It provides a theoretical framework to understand these processes and offers illustrative case studies in which the agency of ancient peoples rather than the desires of antiquarians and archaeologists is brought to the fore Resistance at the Edge of Empires Cameron A. Petrie, 2020-12-28 From 1985 to 2001 the collaborative research initiative known as the Bannu Archaeological Project conducted archaeological explorations and excavations in the Bannu region in what was then the North West Frontier Province NWFP of Pakistan now Khyber Pakhtunkhwa This Project involves scholars from the Pakistan Heritage Society the British Museum the Institute of Archaeology UCL Bryn Mawr College and the University of Cambridge This is the third in a series of volumes that present the final reports of the exploration and excavations carried out by the Bannu Archaeological Project This volume presents the first synthesis of the archaeology of the historic periods in the Bannu region spanning the period when the first large scale empires expanded to the borders of South Asia up until the arrival of

Islam in the subcontinent at the end of the first and beginning of the second millennium BC The Bannu region provides specific insight into early imperialism in South Asia as throughout this protracted period it was able to maintain a distinctive regional identity in the face of recurring phases of imperial expansion and integration The Geography of Gandhāran Art Wannaporn Rienjang, Peter Stewart, 2019-03-15 Gandhāran art is usually regarded as a single phenomenon a unified regional artistic tradition or school Indeed it has distinctive visual characteristics materials and functions and is characterized by its extensive borrowings from the Graeco Roman world Yet this tradition is also highly varied Even the superficial homogeneity of Gandhāran sculpture which constitutes the bulk of documented artistic material from this region in the early centuries AD belies a considerable range of styles technical approaches iconographic choices and levels of artistic skill The geographical variations in Gandhāran art have received less attention than they deserve Many surviving Gandhāran artefacts are unprovenanced and the difficulty of tracing substantial assemblages of sculpture to particular sites has obscured the fine grained picture of its artistic geography Well documented modern excavations at particular sites and areas such as the projects of the Italian Archaeological Mission in the Swat Valley have demonstrated the value of looking at sculptures in context and considering distinctive aspects of their production use and reuse within a specific locality However insights of this kind have been harder to gain for other areas including the Gandhāran heartland of the Peshawar basin Even where large collections of artworks can be related to individual sites the exercise of comparing material within and between these places is still at an early stage The relationship between the Gandhāran artists or workshops particular stone sources and specific sites is still unclear Addressing these and other questions this second volume of the Gandhara Connections project at Oxford University's Classical Art Research Centre presents the proceedings of a workshop held in March 2018 Its aim is to pick apart the regional geography of Gandhāran art presenting new discoveries at particular sites textual evidence and the challenges and opportunities of exploring Gandhāran's artistic geography Archaeological Guide to Taxila Sir John Marshall, 1985 Between the Empires Patrick Olivelle, 2006-07-13 This volume is the result of an international conference organized by the South Asia Institute at the University of Texas Patrick Olivelle has collected and edited the best papers to emerge from the conference Part I of the book looks at what can be construed from archaeological evidence Part II concerns itself with the textual evidence for the period Taken together these essays offer an unprecedented look at Indian culture and society in this distant epoch The Art of Ancient India Susan L. Huntington, John C. Huntington, 2014-01-01 To scholars in the field the need for an up to date overview of the art of South Asia has been apparent for decades Although many regional and dynastic genres of Indic art are fairly well understood the broad overall representation of India's centuries of splendor has been lacking The Art of Ancient India is the result of the author's aim to provide such a synthesis Noted expert Sherman E Lee has commented Not since Coomaraswamy's History of Indian and Indonesian Art 1927 has there been a survey of such completeness Indeed this work restudies and reevaluates every frontier of ancient Indic art _ from its prehistoric roots up to the period of Muslim rule from the Himalayan north to the tropical south and from the earliest extant writing through the most modern scholarship on the subject This dynamic survey generously complemented with 775 illustrations including 48 in full color and numerous architectural ground plans and detailed maps and fine drawings and further enhanced by its guide to Sanskrit copious notes extensive bibliography and glossary of South Asian art terms is the most comprehensive and most fully illustrated study of South Asian art available The works and monuments included in this volume have been selected not only for their artistic merit but also in order to both provide general coverage and include transitional works that furnish the key to an all encompassing view of the art An outstanding portrayal of ancient India s highest intellectual and technical achievements this volume is written for many audiences scholars for whom it provides an up to date background against which to examine their own areas of study teachers and students of college level for whom it supplies a complete summary of and a resource for their own deeper investigations into Indic art and curious readers for whom it gives a broad based introduction to this fascinating area of world art

Alternative Economies of Heritage Denise Thwaites, Bethaney Turner, Tracy Ireland, 2025-02-25 Alternative Economies of Heritage is a groundbreaking edited volume that critically evaluates how the work of heritage can be reimagined as a multifarious field of thought and action to resist the reductive economies of colonial capitalism In a global context of cultural financialisation and ecological crisis where sustainable anti colonial and creative approaches are required to solve urgent problems this volume provides readers with an enriched understanding of heritage as a transforming and multidisciplinary domain which continues to question what is valued discarded or shared with future generations Bringing together researchers from the academy and industry and from varied international contexts this volume asks how does heritage as a complex intersection of contemporary practices with their own diverse histories recognise and circulate cultural value between generations and communities This volume brings together critical and creative perspectives from 29 authors showcasing diverse coexisting heritage economies across six continents that offer new horizons for cultural inheritance It also platforms perspectives from professional and grassroots community based heritage practitioners which may be of interest to non academic readers from not for profit and public sectors Readers of Alternative Economies of Heritage may include students and scholars of heritage and museum studies contemporary art urbanism environmental humanities archaeology anthropology digital humanities and Indigenous studies among other disciplines
