Arjunawijaya A Kakawin Of Mpu Tantular Vol 2 Translation:

Arjunawijaya S Supomo, 2025-04-14 The present translation of the kakawin Arjunawijaya appeared earlier as the author's PhD thesis for the Australian National University in 1971. The poem under study only became better known to Western scholars in 1849 when R. Friederich described it. Although many scholars in the field have been familiar with the poem ever since, no separate study has been devoted to it. It is now published together with the translation and its explanatory notes. The punctuation marks which the author introduces in the body of the text are admittedly still tentative and experimental in nature. In the introduction to the text, the author discusses its dating and origins and includes a comparison with the Old Javanese Uttara Kanda poem. Separate chapters are devoted to a description of contemporary life and ideas as reflected in this poem. According to the author, Tantular's poem is partly a reflection of the real world in which he lived and is not to be seen merely as a tale. As Pigeaud has suggested in his Java in the 14th Century: a study in Cultural History (The Hague, 1960), 1963. Javanese Literature in Surakarta Manuscripts Nancy K. Florida, 2018-08-06. Detailing the contents of the 1,204 texts inscribed in these 478 manuscripts, Nancy K. Florida's fully indexed catalogue of Javanese language manuscripts guides the reader through a wide range of materials. Arjunawijaya: Translation Mpu Tantular, 1977. Women of the Kakawin World Helen Creese, 2015-01-28. In this fascinating study, the lives and mores of women in one of the least understood but most densely populated areas of the world are unveiled through the eyes of generations of court poets. For more than a millennium, the poets of the Indic courts of Java and Bali composed epic kakawin poems in which they recreated the court environment where they and their royal patrons lived. Major themes in this poetry form include war, love, and marriage. It is a rich source for the cultural and social history of Indonesia. Still being produced in Bali today, kakawin remains of interest and relevance to Balinese cultural and religious identities. This book draws on the epic kakawin poetry tradition to examine the institutions of courtship and marriage in the Indic courts. Its primary purpose is to explore the experiences of women belonging to the kakawin world, although the texts by nature reveal more about the discourses concerning women's sexuality and gender than of the historical experiences of individual women. For over a thousand years, these royal courts were major patrons of the arts. The court-sponsored epic works that have survived provide an ongoing literary testimony to the cultural and social concerns of court society from its earliest recorded history until its demise at the end of the nineteenth century. This study examines the idealized images of women and sexuality that have pervaded Javanese and Balinese culture and provides insights into a number of cultural practices such as sati or bela (self-immolation of widows). Islam: Essays on Scripture, Thought and Society Street, Peter Riddell, 2021-09-20.
