Matthew P. Canepa

Armenian People Ancient Mod Vol 2:

The Two Eyes of the Earth Matthew P. Canepa, 2017-03-10 This pioneering study examines a pivotal period in the history of Europe and the Near East Spanning the ancient and medieval worlds it investigates the shared ideal of sacred kingship that emerged in the late Roman and Persian empires Bridging the traditional divide between classical and Iranian history this book brings to life the dazzling courts of two global powers that deeply affected the cultures of medieval Europe Byzantium Islam South Asia and China Geographers of the Ancient Greek World: Volume 2 D. Graham J.

Shipley, 2024-04-18 Ancient Greek geographical writing is represented not just by the surviving works of the well known authors Strabo Pausanias and Ptolemy but also by many other texts dating from the Archaic to the Late Antique period Most of these texts are however hard for non specialists to find and many have never been translated into English This volume the work of an international team of experts presents the most important thirty six texts in new accurate translations In addition there are explanatory notes and authoritative introductions to each text which offer a new understanding of the individual writings and demonstrate their importance no longer marginal but in the mainstream of Greek literature and science The book includes twenty eight newly drawn maps images of the medieval manuscripts in which most of these works survive and a full Introduction providing a comprehensive survey of the field of Greek and Roman geography Monasticism in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Republics Ines Angeli Murzaku, 2015-08-27 This book looks at Eastern and Western monasticism s continuous and intensive interactions with society in Eastern Europe Russia and the Former Soviet Republics It discusses the role monastics played in fostering national identities as well as the potentiality of monasteries and religious orders to be vehicles of ecumenism and inter religious dialogue within and beyond national boundaries Using a country specific analysis the book highlights the monastic tradition and monastic establishments It addresses gaps in the academic study of religion in Eastern European and Russian historiography and looks at the role of monasticism as a cultural and national identity forming determinant in the region Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil

Vandekerckhove, 2019-11-26 In Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove offers an account of the origins development and spatial distribution of fortified sites in the Armenian Kingdom 1198 1375 Despite the abundance of archaeological remains the Armenian heritage had previously not been closely studied However through the examination of known and newly identified castles this work has now increased the number of sites and features associated with the Armenian Kingdom By the construction of numerous powerful castles the Armenians succeeded in establishing an independent kingdom which lasted until the Mamluk conquest in 1375 Dweezil Vandekerckhove convincingly proves that the medieval castles in Cilicia are of outstanding architectural interest with a significant place in the history of military architecture The Armenian Rebellion at Van Justin McCarthy, 2006-09-29 Presents a long overdue examination of the actions at Van an ancient city in southeastern Anatolia where the Armenian Revolt is believed to have been a precursor to a great massacre of the people of the East The City Lament Tamar M. Boyadjian, 2018-12-15 Poetic elegies for lost or fallen cities are seemingly as old as cities themselves In the Judeo Christian tradition this genre finds its purest expression in the book of Lamentations which mourns the destruction of Jerusalem in Arabic this genre is known as the ritha al mudun In The City Lament Tamar M Boyadjian traces the trajectory of the genre across the Mediterranean world during the period commonly referred to as the early Crusades 1095 1191 focusing on elegies and other expressions of loss that address the spiritual and strategic objective of those wars Jerusalem Through readings of city laments in English French Latin Arabic and Armenian literary traditions Boyadjian challenges hegemonic and entrenched approaches to the study of medieval literature and the Crusades The City Lament exposes significant literary intersections between Latin Christendom the Islamic caliphates of the Middle East and the Armenian kingdom of Cilicia arguing for shared poetic and rhetorical modes Reframing our understanding of literary sources produced across the medieval Mediterranean from an antagonistic orientalist model to an analogous one Boyadjian demonstrates how lamentations about the loss of Jerusalem whether to Muslim or Christian forces reveal fascinating parallels and rich cross cultural exchanges Newsletter ,1995 Queens of the Armenians Hayk Khach'atryan, Barbara J. Merguerian, 2001 The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting René Brimo, 2016-12-13 The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting is a new critical translation of Ren Brimo's classic study of eighteenth and nineteenth century patronage and art collecting in the United States Originally published in French in 1938 Brimo's foundational text is a detailed examination of collecting in America from colonial times to the end of World War I when American collectors came to dominate the European art market This work helped shape the then fledgling field of American art history by explaining larger cultural transformations as manifested in the collecting habits of American elites It remains the most substantive account of the history of collecting in the United States In his introduction Kenneth Haltman provides a biographical study of the author and his social and intellectual milieu in France and the United States He also explores how Brimo's work formed a turning point and initiated a new area of academic study the history of art collecting Making accessible a text that has until now only been available in French Haltman's elegant translation of The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting sheds new critical light on the essential work of this extraordinary but overlooked scholar Conflict and Cooperation in the South Caucasus Region Houman A. Sadri, 2023-12-19 Conflict and Cooperation in the South Caucasus Region From Theory to Policy combines IR theory and policy in a readable format Houman A Sadri discusses the distinctive challenges of the South Caucasus region and offers a survey of relevant IR theories Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgia are covered in depth since independence These former Soviet republics have experienced major conflicts and cooperation since independence in the early 1990s The 2008 Russian invasion of Georgia and the Armenian Azeri Wars captured headlines and affected markets but the completion of energy pipelines exposed the complexity of cooperation in connecting the regional and global political economy Conflict and Cooperation in the South Caucasus Region has three major purposes 1 To provide a survey of the major developments of the Caucasus States 2 To analyze the application of IR prominent theories and 3 To offer practical policy options for policymakers seeking to understand the South Caucasus region What does the remainder of the 21st Century hold for Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgian Where are the main sources of threats How can these threats be effectively dealt with

The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S. Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Preserving Armenia's rich literary tradition from a multitude of viewpoints has been the aim of this three volume work This third volume joins the previous two in making excerpts of Armenian masterpieces accessible in beautifully rendered English translations while enabling readers to enjoy the immediacy of these works through lively discussions of the authors and their times Here the focus is on the eighteenth through twentieth centuries The volume begins with a comprehensive overview of the entire historical social and literary panorama of the periods covered the Armenian Renaissance the development of modern Armenian with its Western and Eastern versions the emergence of a national identity and democratic thinking with their impact on literature and theater and such literary schools as Romanticism Realism and Aestheticism Biographies of more than 130 prominent authors appear in these pages together with critical comments concerning their works and extensive excerpts from the works themselves The texts are edited annotated with footnotes and presented in a format that permits easy comprehension Literature unveils a rich pageant of works in historical perspective The varied experiences from the Armenian past come alive allowing for new understandings and comparisons to literatures of other nations

Poets, Heroes, and their Dragons (2 vols) James R. Russell, 2021-02-08 The present volume is a collection of articles published by Professor James R Russell of Harvard University in various journals over the past decades James Russell has been one of the pioneers in the field of Armenian and Iranian Studies where he has demonstrated the importance of Iranian civilization for pre Christian Armenia The connection between the two civilizations has been part of the tireless work of Professor Russell and I hope this publication shows the immense importance of his work for both Armenian and Iranian Studies I would like to thank Professor Hourri Berberian Director of the UC Irvine Armenian Studies Program as well as Mr Mamigonian and the National Association for Armenian Studies and Research NAASR for supporting the publication of this book This volume was previously published by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies University of California Irvine

From the Indian Ocean to the Mediterranean Sebouh David Aslanian, 2011 Drawing on a rich trove of documents including correspondence not seen for 300 years this study explores the emergence and growth of a remarkable global trade network operated by Armenian silk merchants from a small outpost in the Persian Empire Based in New Julfa Isfahan in what is now Iran these merchants operated a network of commercial settlements that stretched from London and Amsterdam to Manila and Acapulco The New Julfan Armenians were the only Eurasian community that was able to operate simultaneously and successfully in all the major empires of the early modern world both land based Asian empires and the emerging sea borne empires astonishingly without the benefits of an imperial network and state that accompanied and facilitated European mercantile expansion during the same period This book brings to light for the first time the trans imperial cosmopolitan world of the New Julfans Among other topics it explores the effects of long distance trade on the organization of community life the ethos of trust and cooperation that existed among merchants and the importance of information networks and communication in the operation of early modern mercantile communities The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity Oliver Nicholson,2018-04-19 The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity is the first comprehensive reference book covering every aspect of history culture religion and life in Europe the Mediterranean and the Near East including the Persian Empire and Central Asia between the mid 3rd and the mid 8th centuries AD the era now generally known as Late Antiquity This period saw the re establishment of the Roman Empire its conversion to Christianity and its replacement in the West by Germanic kingdoms the continuing Roman Empire in the Eastern Mediterranean the Persian Sassanian Empire and the rise of Islam Consisting of over 1 5 million words in more than 5 000 A Z entries and written by more than 400 contributors it is the long awaited middle volume of a series bridging a significant period of history between those covered by the acclaimed Oxford Classical Dictionary and The Oxford Dictionary of the Middle Ages The scope of the Dictionary is broad and multi disciplinary across the wide geographical span covered from Western Europe and the Mediterranean as far as the Near East and Central Asia it provides succinct and pertinent information on political history law and administration military history religion and philosophy education social and economic history material culture art and architecture science literature and many other areas Drawing on the latest scholarship and with a formidable international team of advisers and contributors The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity aims to establish itself as the essential reference companion to a period that is attracting increasing attention from scholars and students worldwide

Genocidal Conscription Christopher Harrison,2023-07-03 Genocidal Conscription examines how some states have employed mandatory military service as a tool to capture and kill the victims of genocide by recruiting the perpetrators from other minorities and shifting blame away from the state The book highlights several unique intersections that connect military history Holocaust studies and genocide The study details an original framework that encompasses intentions and outcomes of wartime casualties Clausewitzian wastage and genocidal massacres Christopher Harrison traces and compares how two genocidal regimes at war the Ottoman Empire during World War One and Axis era Hungary in World War Two implemented certain policies of military service to capture and destroy their targets amidst the carnage of modern warfare Following this historical comparative study the author then summarizes relevant implications and ongoing concerns The conclusion includes insights into conscription by contemporary authoritarian regimes By examining these histories and crises the book suggests that several states are at risk of carrying out genocidal conscription today While difficult and unlikely due to political disincentives the implication of this analysis considers reforms which may prevent states from repeating similar policies and actions again

Civilizations of the Ancient Near East Jack M. Sasson,1995 Consists of articles organized in eleven parts the ancient Near East in Western thought the environment population social institutions history and culture economy and trade technology and artistic production religion and science language writing and literature visual and performing arts and retrospective essays Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 A General History of the Baptist Denomination in America and Other Parts of the World David Benedict,1848 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1897 A Dictionary of Greek and Roman Geography William Smith,1873
