The Nuclear Non-proliferation Treaty Ian Bellany, Coit D. Blacker, Joseph Gallacher, 2014-05-01 This study looks at the interpretations and effects of the Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty and offers readings of its possible future effects

Success and Failure in Arms Control Negotiations April Carter, 1989 Governments have been negotiating about disarmament or more limited forms of arms control for forty years Despite these negotiations weapons of increasing deadliness and sophistication continue to be developed Through the use of case studies of particular negotiations Partial and Comprehensive Test Ban SALT I and II INF and START and MBFR CFE the book explores both the reasons for success and the obstacles leading to failure and assesses the importance of different types of explanation Dr Carter not only analyses the reasons why negotiations fail she also examines the conditions under which they are likely to succeed The result is a balanced comprehensive treatment of the problems and prospects for arms control

The Arms Race and Arms Control, 1983, 1983

Nuclear Fallacies Robert W. Malcolmson, 1985 The world changed irrevocably after Hiroshima in ways we are only now beginning to understand Our perceptions of life have been dramatically altered The polemics of various factions around the nuclear issue often serve only to obscure further the realities of life in the nuclear age

Hearings on National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1990--H.R. 2461 ... Before the Committee on Armed Services, House of Representatives, One Hundred First Congress, First Session United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services. Procurement and Military Nuclear Systems Subcommittee,1990 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1984-10 Maintaining Outer Space for Peaceful Uses Nandasiri Jasentuliyana,United Nations University,1984 State ,1985 Arms Control At Sea J Richard Hill,2024-04-01 Originally published in 1989 this book reviews the history of maritime control measures from before the First World War and provides a critical examination of both the objectives of maritime power and the concepts of disarmament peace zones parity verifiability and peaceful co existence It argues that the objectives or maritime power are not necessarily incompatible with international security and that strategic deterrence can contribute to improved security Limitation measures it is argued can in some cases be double edged endangering other security fields and having a destabilizing effect The book stresses the need for non absolute solutions in order to achieve a reasonable level of security and makes proposals for both structural and confidence building measures along those lines Peace Movements: International Protest and World Politics Since 1945 April Carter,2014-09-11 There is a long tradition of opposition to war and organized peace campaigns date from 1815 Since 1945 however modern weapons technology has threatened world wide destruction and has stimulated widespread protests This book sketches in the background of thinking about peace and resistance to war before 1945 and then examines how public opposition to nuclear weapons and testing grew in the 1950s and early 1960s Later chapters cover the major resurgence of nuclear disarmament campaigns in the 1980s The book also looks at how peace protest has spread from its origins in North America and North West Europe to embrace many parts of the world opposition to nuclear testing has indeed been particularly strong in Japan Australia New Zealand and the Pacific islands The period 1945 to 1990 was dominated by the Cold War between the USA and USSR and the role of the Soviet sponsored World Peace Council caused difficulties for indeptendent peace groups in the West During the 1980s the emergence of autonomous peace activity in a number of East European countries and even on a very small scale in the USSR itself transformed the possibilities for East West co operation between citizens to urge disarmament and political change A chapter examines these developments Opposition to all forms of militarism has spread in the last 30 years This book charts the struggles to extend the right to conscientious objection to military service and draft resistance to particular wars for example in Southern Africa and Israel It also looks in some detail at the growing opposition to the war in the Vietnam The recent protests against the Gulf War are surveyed briefly in an epilogue The History of American Foreign Policy from 1895 Jerald A. Combs,Jessica Elkind,2024-04-01 Now in its fifth edition this volume offers a clear concise and nuanced history of U S foreign relations since the Spanish American War and places that narrative within the context of the most influential historiographical trends and debates The History of American Foreign Policy from 1895 includes both revised and new sections that incorporate insights from recent scholarship on the United States in the world

These sections devote more attention to the international framework as well as the domestic constraints under which American foreign policymakers operated This edition also emphasizes the role of non state actors such as missionaries aid workers activists and business leaders in shaping policies and contributing to international relations As a result the text considers a broader and more diverse range of people and voices than many other histories of U S foreign policy Expanded final chapters bring the story of U S foreign relations to the present and explore some of the contemporary challenges facing American and global leaders including terrorism the effects of climate change China s increasing influence and globalization Updated controversial issues sections and suggestions for further reading at the end of each chapter reflect important contributions from new studies This engaging text is an invaluable resource for students interested in the history of American foreign policy and international relations The Second Cold War Aaron Donaghy,2021-04-29 The compelling account of the last great Cold War struggle between America and the Soviet Union that took place between 1977 and 1985 Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1983
