in the urban fringe of Abuja Nigeria engaged with a series of development projects spanning 15 years 2003 to 2018 which focused on the enhancement of food security for farming households The groups were at the heart of these development projects and the book presents the many insights that were gained by farmers and project agents working within these partnerships and provides advice for those seeking to do the same The book also explores how the social groups attempted to lever benefits from being near to the fastest growing city in Africa and a centre of economic and political power While much has been written about social groups and their embeddedness within wider social networks in Africa and in other parts of the world the exploration of the role of social groups within development projects is an area that remains relatively uncharted and this book seeks to fill that important gap in knowledge It provides an important contribution for all those researching and working with social groups in the developing world Frank Kokori: The Struggle for June 12 Kokori, Frank, 2014-07-19

Kokori The Struggle for June 12 is the candid account of Chief Frank Kokori former General Secretary of The Nigeria Union of Petroleum and Natural Gas Workers NUPENG It details the roles he and other individuals played in the quest to re validate the June 12 1993 presidential election which was annulled by Gen Ibrahim Babangida The book details in depth the events before during and after the election up until the incarceration of Chief Kokori as well as the political fall out which followed

Oil, Politics and Violence Max Siollun, 2009 An insider traces the details of hope and ambition gone wrong in the Giant of Africa Nigeria Africa s most populous country When it gained independence from Britain in 1960 hopes were high that with mineral wealth and over 140 million people the most educated workforce in Africa Nigeria would become Africa s first superpower and a stabilizing democratic influence in the region However these lofty hopes were soon dashed and the country lumbered from crisis to crisis with the democratic government eventually being overthrown in a violent military coup in January 1966 From 1966 until 1999 the army held onto power almost uninterrupted under a succession of increasingly authoritarian military governments and army coups Military coups and military rule which began as an emergency aberration became a seemingly permanent feature of Nigerian politics The author names names and explores how British influence aggravated indigenous rivalries He shows how various factions in the military were able to hold onto power and resist civil and international pressure for democratic governance by exploiting the country s oil wealth and ethnic divisions to its advantage Publisher s description

Policing Major Events James F. Albrecht, Martha Christine Dow, Darryl Plecas, Dilip K. Das, 2014-11-20 Whenever a major event requires police intervention questions are raised about the nature of the police response Could the police have prevented the conflict been better prepared reacted more quickly Could they have acted more forcefully or brought the altercation under control more effectively Based upon real case studies of events from all

The Possibility of Convivence in Nigeria Felix Ikeagwuchi Agbara, 2011 Despite the present day democratic government s commitment to human rights socio cultural and religious clashes still pose a threat to Nigeria As a panacea a split according to ethnic and religious boundaries has been suggested on the other hand upholding the different strands might spell greater benefits for the country's development. The basic assumption of both views is that ethnic and religious pluralism have led to conflicts but that they are fuelled by politics inequitable distribution of economic goods and the negative forces of globalization. In this project examining these conflicts and the efforts made to resolve them particular attention will be paid to dialogue and reconciliation. The key practice suggested is convivence a symbiosis of interactive and interpenetrative approaches based on intercultural and interreligious hermeneutical perspectives The Routledge

Research Companion to Planning and Culture Greg Young, 2016-03-23 It has become increasingly evident that effective planning for sustainable communities environments and economies pivots on the ability of planners to see the possibilities for culture in comprehensive social historical and environmental terms and to more fully engage with the cultural practices processes and theorisation that comprise a social formation. More broadly an approach to planning theory and practice that is itself formed through a close engagement with culture is required. This Research Companion brings together leading experts from around the world to map the contours of the relationship between planning and culture and to present these inextricably linked concepts and issues together in one place. By examining significant trends in varying national and international contexts the contributors scrutinise the theories and practices of both planning and culture and explore not only their interface but significant divergences and tensions. In doing so this collection provides the first comprehensive overview and analysis of planning and culture interdisciplinary and international in scope. It is comprised of six parts organised around the themes of global and historical contexts key dimensions of planning and cultural theory and practice and cultural and planning dynamics. Each section includes a final chapter that provides a case study lens which pulls the themes of the section together with reference to a significant planning issue or initiative AF Press Clips, 1983 Lonely Planet Africa

Nigeria: State by State Chiegeonu Aga, Into Africa, Out of Academia Kwan Kew Lai, 2020-10-05 In 2006 Kwan Kew Lai left her full time position as a professor in the United States to provide medical humanitarian aid to the remote villages and the war torn areas of Africa This memoir follows her experiences from 2006 to 2013 as she provided care during the HIV AIDs epidemics after natural disasters and as a relief doctor in refugee camps in Kenya Libya Uganda and in South Sudan where civil war virtually wiped out all existing healthcare facilities Throughout her memoir Lai recounts intimate encounters with refugees and internally displaced people in camps and in hospitals with limited resources telling tales of their resilience unflinching courage and survival through extreme hardship Her writing provides insight into communities and transports readers to heart aching beautiful parts of Africa not frequented by the usual travelers This is a deeply personal account of the huge disparities in the healthcare system of our global village and is a call to action for readers to understand the interconnectedness of the modern world the needs of less developed neighbors and the shortcomings of their healthcare systems

Bubbles to Concept Jerome Ezeanonye Nwokeji, 2011 In this informative and creative book Architect Jerome Ezeanonye Nwokeji presents unique design theorems formed and developed through fundamental evolutionary techniques Nwokeji uses basic principals in nature as a guide to originate new ideas and guide design professionals architects landscape architects and urban planners designers in achieving outcomes that are distinct and harmonious to the environment BUBBLES TO CONCEPT breaks new ground with its fresh perspective and ideas It is sure to become an impressive resource in the practice of architecture and urban design Author Bio Jerome Ezeanonye Nwokeji is a Consultant Architect and Urban Planner Designer who lives in Abuja Nigeria Dr Nwokeji was trained at The University of Oklahoma Norman Oklahoma Ohio State University Columbus Ohio and A I U Honolulu Hawaii where he received his Doctorate He won a UNESCO architectural competition in 1985 Dr Nwokeji also studied and apprenticed with the late architect and professor Richard Miller who had been an apprentice to Frank Lloyd Wright Dr Nwokeji is happily married to his wife Thelma and the union is blessed with five lovely children Udenna Uzo Anuli Mmeli and Nonye to God be the glory He was inspired to write BUBBLES TO CONCEPT by his desire to bring back originality in creative design Dr Nwokeji hopes to motivate other professionals and share the insightful knowledge he has gained over the years in the world of architecture and urban design Publisher's website <http://www.strategicpublishinggroup.com/title/BubblesToConcept.html> Misguided Expectations Ibifaka Ben-Kalio, 2013-08-08 Told through Orafi's eyes this is a tale of misguided expectations. It also explores the pros and cons of the Nigerian National Youth Service Corps program. Orafi is a naive young girl from Port Harcourt who goes out of her state for the very first time to Lagos for her National Youth service. She is academically bright but socially inept. In the course of the service year, however, she makes life-long friends and learns valuable lessons about life, love, loyalty, support, family, and friendship. Reaching Beyond Nora E. Milner, 2011-08-12 A conspiracy of the greatest proportions threatening to destroy mankind. Murder on an international space vessel. Plundering the riches of an African nation. The first Court of Outer Space. Has the treachery so common on Earth found a new home in space? These seemingly unrelated events weave themselves into a mystery that encompasses every continent of Earth and the far reaches of outer space. The United States stands on the brink of its greatest conquest yet: the arrival of a crew on Mars and the exploration of the Red Planet. But powerful forces are at work to stop the West from reaching beyond. The extent to which these forces will go to stop the conquest of Mars is unimaginable and unforeseeable: that is to everyone but a small tribe of Gypsies in Europe. Rebecca's Reads highly recommends REACHING BEYOND as a wondrous galactic story filled with suspense, deception, murder on an international space station scale. REACHING BEYOND is a trendsetter in the contemporary legal thriller genre. Rebecca Brown Being and Becoming Ukpokolo, Chinyere, 2016-02-27 This book illuminates the complex and constantly shifting social and cultural dynamics that shape people's identity. Specifically, the volume focuses on the intersections of gender with culture and identity and, at different historical epochs, on the way men and women define themselves and are defined by diverse peoples and cultures across time and space in sub-Saharan Africa. The discussions presented in this anthology primarily focus on being as a state or condition defined by sex identity and how this identity shifts and hence becoming assuming diverse meanings in disparate societies, contexts, and time. The discourse therefore moves from how the perception of the self in cultural and historical contexts has informed actions and, at some other times, shaped interpretations given to historical facts to how changing economic realities also shape the definitions and constructions of social and relational issues in sub-Saharan Africa. The historical trajectories of Islamic religion, colonialism, and Christian missionary activities in sub-Saharan Africa have shaped the worlds of the peoples of the region and impacted on gender relations.
