Around My House:

That's My House Christie Amoyo, 2022-04-30 For so long I thought God didn't care about my family's finances. Boy was I wrong! As I read the Bible about His provision for us, there came a shift in my head and then in my heart. I realized that He is our true provider. God has no limits and we need to believe in His provision for us in every area of our lives. No dream or vision is too big for Him and you'll never find out what He actually wants you to do with your finances until you ask Him. Then you will be amazed at how He uses it to answer your prayers and the prayers of others. We have to start somewhere. It takes many little steps for us to see the fullness of what He wants for us. Your finances can be a turning point in your relationship with God. As you physically take steps to trust Him, you will see a physical manifestation of the harvest of blessings in your life.

Repair My House Michael H. Crosby, 2012 Repair my house. From a crucifix in a ruined chapel, St. Francis heard this instruction which set him on a mission of evangelical renewal. In the light of unprecedented crisis afflicting the Catholic church, Michael Crosby calls us all to undertake a wholesale project of repair and renewal. The crisis is visible in the sex abuse scandal and the questions it has raised about internal structures of authority and clerical culture. Meanwhile, a spate of new atheists has challenged traditional worldviews. The percentage of those identifying themselves as former Catholics grows at an alarming rate. In response, Fr. Crosby sees a challenge to return to the core evangelical message of Jesus Christ. This message is supported, not contradicted, by discoveries in science and cosmology. He envisions a new way of being Catholic and a set of practices that draws on the contemplative, compassionate, and life-giving spirit of the Kingdom that God's will may be realized on earth as it is in heaven.
