Science, Entertainment and Television Documentary Vincent Campbell, 2016-05-13 The shift from traditional documentary to factual entertainment television has been the subject of much debate and criticism particularly with regard to the representation of science New types of factual programming that combine documentary techniques with those of entertainment formats such as drama game shows and reality TV have come in for strident criticism Often featuring spectacular visual effects produced by Computer Generated Imagery these programmes blur the boundaries between mainstream science and popular beliefs Through close analysis of programmes across a range of sciences this book explores these issues to see if criticisms of such hybrid programmes as representing the rotting carcass of science TV really are valid Campbell considers if in fact when considered in relation to the principles practices and communication strategies of different sciences these shows can be seen to offer more complex and rich representations that construct sciences as objects of wonder awe and the sublime

Language in the Media Sally Johnson, Astrid Ensslin, 2018-10-18 Examining the ways in which the media represents language related issues and how it shapes and constructs what people think language is this book offers a multilingual survey of the construction of language in and by the media Tackling the big issues of identity gender youth citizenship politics and ideology across a range of mediums including television radio newspapers magazines and the internet Language in the Media brings together an international team of experts to examine how the media gives language distinctive forms and values This is an essential text for students and researchers of sociolinguistics or language and communication At a time when trust in the mainstream media is at an all time low and world leaders are using new media to deride so called fake news this classic text offers insight and critical analysis into the key issues surrounding the relationship between language the media and its audience

Around the World in 80 Days Jules Verne, 2013-03-19 Part manhunt part love story part social satire but mostly a race against the clock Around the World in 80 Days is Jules Verne's most rollicking novel When Phileas Fogg a wealthy British gentleman who lives his life with mathematical predictability bets the fellow members of his club 20 000 that he can circle the earth in just eighty days he and his new valet Passepartout set out on a whirlwind tour of the globe that will challenge their luck their wits and their wallets En route they ride an elephant smack into an exotic murder cult steer an undersized sailboat through rampaging storms and outrun sharp shooting Sioux man eating wolves and Scotland Yard's dimmest detective only to see everything go hopelessly haywire until Verne springs the slickest of surprise endings It's one of the planet's favorite thrillers and Frederick Paul Walter's reader friendly translation captures its roguish wit and humor packages its Americana with exceptional accuracy one fourth of the tale takes place in the United States and is complete and unabridged down to the smallest substantive detail

Rafie Hamidpour Ph. D. D. E. Dabfe, 2010-03 Every culture experiences it at some point in time but after the Arab invasion of Persia many of its people felt lost Persians now had a choice they could accept a new culture including nationality or they could hold tight to the unique attributes making up their Persian identities Anyone who has heard of Persian pride knows they fought to maintain their Persian culture The major language in Persia is Farsi it is a branch of Indo Iranian languages which is a group of the Indo European languages

A Young Soldier's Memoirs: My One Year Growing Up in 1965 Korea Julio A. Martinez, 2010-11-18 The pages of this book vividly conjure up the sights and smells and sounds of Martinez's adventures in Korea He enthusiastically spent every free moment traveling everywhere taking hundreds of photographs teaching himself to speak read and write the language Nothing escaped his youthful eyes from ancient temples to rice planting and harvesting to little known facets of the country's rich 5 000 year old culture His exuberance with each of his discoveries is faithfully recorded as are the familiar things we all felt homesickness and fear camaraderie and purpose If you want to see the Korea of forty five years ago through the bright eyes of a nineteen year old soldier from Texas with a truly remarkable memory for every detail this is the best way to do it William Roskey Author of MUFFLED SHOTS A Year on the DMZ

Two Men in a Car (a Businessman, a Chauffeur, and Their Holidays in France) Mike Buchanan, 2017-03-27 A splendid romp Vive la France Peter Mayle author of A Year in Provence and many other bestsellers Mike Buchanan is the best kind of opinionated middle aged middle class Englishman abroad the funny kind Andy Heslop If you have a sense of humour this book will put a big smile on your face I laughed out loud many times A refreshing absence of political correctness The lovely Maureen Padley Political correctness is a curse of the modern era This book is not politically correct And it celebrates la belle France the beautiful ladies the fine food and wine the glorious scenery and weather and more besides If you're offended by the book's contents kindly moan about it to someone else not the author He's had more than his fill of being moaned at over the years Mike Buchanan is a 50 year old overweight diabetic short sighted businessman and published author who lives in Bedford He s been a Francophile for as long as he can remember and is rarely happier than when holidaying in France In August 2007 following the breakdown of his second marriage he took a holiday in France with his chauffeur the equally politically incorrect Thunderin Paul Carrington The two men enjoyed themselves so much that they took a second holiday in France in July 2008 This book relates the story of both holidays in chapters with the following titles 1 Our first week with Anne and Mark Phillips 2 Why my dinner cost 40 times more than Paul s 3 Hobnobbing with Ivana Trump in Monte Carlo 4 Would you like to have sex with my wife 5 We witness a miracle in Lourdes 6 In defence of pate de foie gras 7 Paul worries about becoming a gay icon 8 Nuits St Georges is twinned with Hitchin 9 It s always better if you have a big one

Downhill From Here Gavin Boyter,2017-04-20 Approaching his middle forties Gavin Boyter wondered what his life was all about A Scot living in London single and with no kids he was living for the job and the dwindling hope of a career in film He had been a club runner all his life pretty good but not at the front all that often He was what he called an ordinary runner and he came to wonder just what an ordinary runner might be capable of How about John O Groats to Land s End the longest linear run in Britain and how about making a film of it And how about writing a book As usual Gavin was neither the first nor the quickest but Downhill from Here is his real triumph written in such an engaging and witty voice the reader accompanies him every step of the way

For Better For Worse Jane Beck,2012-06-01 For better for worse Four words that slip so easily off the tongue but Liz like most brides never gave the worse a second thought Like most women of her generation she d bought the whole happy ever after scenario but it didn t turn out quite as she d expected Now she s wondering if all brides are doomed to disappointment or if she is in some way unique Liz s husband Paul runs a hotel and there are frequent calls on his time from both his staff and customers His business partner Antonia is constantly interfering in their lives and her jealousy of Liz is apparent to everyone but Paul When Liz finds out that Paul s oldest friend Bruno is staying in Rome she suggests they take a much needed break to visit Secretly she hopes that the holiday will help to recapture the first carefree days of their marriage Leaving their daughter Emma and son Marcus with their au pair Liz and Paul have a wonderful four day trip through France and Italy but shortly after their arrival in Rome they are plunged into a nightmare and Liz begins to experience a worse that she d never believed possible In the weeks ahead she discovers the happiness she seeks is an elusive emotion and has a long tortuous road to travel to find it But the journey is not without its excitement When a new path opens in the most sudden and unexpected way Liz begins to look forward again For Better For Worse is a work of fiction that will appeal particularly to women Jane is inspired by writers who portray real people Joanna Trollope is a favourite I hope the book will resonate with any women who have loved and lost she says

Reading
Uncensored Palladio in Light of Australian Vernacular Architecture Antonia Clarkeson,2024-12-20 In this book Clarkeson reads Palladio s drawings as being carefully crafted having integrity in their own right with their own story to tell and meant to be measured Claiming Palladio's rightful place in the history of metrology Clarkeson represents Palladio's work as part of the Italian contribution to the debate about the desired features of a universal metric measure Clarkeson turns architecture on its head to focus on feet as units of vibrant metre capturing insights from the architectural interests of Isaac Newton and Francis Howard Greenway to architectural practice in the antipodes and taking movement of and within 3 dimensional bulk spaces as the fundamental stuff of an architecture that is assertively local in its unique co ordinate cosmetic The book offers a fresh interpretation of Palladio's orders and of such classic designs as villa Cornaro palazzo villa Almerico la Rotonda and villa Antonini teatro olimpico that dispels myths and explains the bits that don't fit in the usual interpretations of Palladio's work

Brunel Steven Brindle, 2013-05-23 A celebration of the life and engineering achievements of Isambard Kingdom Brunel by two of the world's foremost authorities In his lifetime Isambard Kingdom Brunel towered over his profession Today he remains the most famous engineer in history the epitome of the volcanic creative forces which brought about the Industrial Revolution and brought modern society into being Brunel's extraordinary talents were drawn out by some remarkable opportunities above all his appointment as engineer to the new Great Western Railway at the age of 26 but it was his nature to take nothing for granted and to look at every project whether it was the longest railway yet planned or the largest ship ever imagined from first principles A hard taskmaster to those who served him he ultimately sacrificed his own life to his work in his tragically early death at the age of 53 His legacy though is all around us in the railways and bridges that he personally designed and in his wider influence This fascinating new book draws on Brunel's own diaries letters and sketchbooks to understand his life times and work

Tupperware Alison J. Clarke, 2014-09-30 From Wonder Bowls to Ice Tup molds to Party Susans Tupperware has become an icon of suburban living Tracing the fortunes of Earl Tupper's polyethylene containers from early design to global distribution Alison J Clarke explains how Tupperware tapped into potent commercial and social forces becoming a prevailing symbol of late twentieth century consumer culture Invented by Earl Tupper in the 1940s to promote thrift and cleanliness the pastel plasticwares were touted as essential to a postwar lifestyle that emphasized casual entertaining and celebrated America's material abundance By the mid 1950s the Tupperware party which gathered women in a hostess's home for lively product demonstrations and sales was the foundation of a multimillion dollar business that proved as innovative as the containers themselves Clarke shows how the party plan direct sales system by creating a corporate culture based on women's domestic lives played a greater role than patented seals and streamlined design in the success of Tupperware
