Arshile Gorky Painting And Drawings 1929-1942:

Arshile Gorky Hayden Herrera, 2003-01-01 Arshile Gorky traces the progress from apprentice to master of the man Andre Breton called the most important painter in American history Rethinking Arshile Gorky, A reexamination of the art of Arshile Gorky 1904-1948 and an exploration of his role in the development of modern abstraction in America Arshile Gorky Arshile Gorky, Matthew Spender, 1998 The show will be comprised of 17 paintings and 23 works on paper from this very influential period in Gorky's brief but potent career It covers a decade where Gorky's inspirations synthesize to forge a radically new development in American art Influences ranging from the Renaissance painter Paolo Uccello to Picasso Miro and the surrealists can be seen in the work As Michael Auping has asserted it is during this time that Gorky establishes a complex formal vocabulary that acts as an important link between European surrealism and the development of Abstract Expressionism The exhibition contains pieces from some of Gorky's key serial works Included are drawings and a painting from the group entitled Nighttime Enigma and Nostalgia This somber dreamlike series combines biomorphic abstraction with surrealism Also included are two paintings and related drawings entitled Khorkom named after Gorky's birthplace a town in the Armenian province of Van In three paintings from the well known Garden in Sochi series of the early 1940s Gorky invokes his father's garden in Armenia His need to reconnect himself with his ancient homeland and with his idealized childhood provides the beguiling imagery that gives Gorky's work its unique quality Re-placing Arshile Gorky Kim S. Theriault, 2002 Arshile Gorky Robert Saltonstall Mattison, Arshile Gorky, 2009 Arshile Gorky emigrated from Armenia to the United States in 1920 where he established himself as one of the greatest painters of that period Although his life was cut short by his suicide in 1948 the body of work he left behind secured his reputation as one of the greatest surrealist painters This book tells his story Art Now Gallery Guide, 1999 Art & Auction, 1998 Arshile Gorky Alexandre Beredjikian, 2007 Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 1999 The Transgenerational Consequences of the Armenian Genocide Anthonie Holslag, 2018-03-22 This book brings together the Armenian Genocide process and its transgenerational outcome which are often juxtaposed in existing scholarship to ask how the Armenian Genocide is conceptualized and placed within diasporic communities Taking a dual approach to answer this question Anthonie Holslag studies the cultural expression of violence during the genocidal process itself and in the aftermath for the victims By using this approach this book allows us to see comparatively how genocide in diasporic communities in the Netherlands London and the US is encapsulated in an historic narrative It paints a picture of the complexity of genocidal violence itself but also in its transgenerational and non spatial consequences raising new questions of how violence can be perpetuated or interlocked with the discourse and narratives of the victims and how the violence can be relived Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Looking at Modern Art Nicholas Serota, Tate Modern (Gallery), 2002 David Sylvester who died in June 2001 was one of the most prominent writers on art and makers of exhibitions during the last fifty years He has

Vise and Shadow Peter Balakian,2015-05-06 Peter Balakian is a renowned poet scholar and memoirist but his work as an essayist often prefigures and illuminates all three I think of vise and shadow as two dimensions of the lyric literary and visual imagination he writes in the preface to this collection which brings together essayistic writings produced over the course of twenty five years Vise as in grabbing and holding with pressure but also in the sense of the vise grip of the imagination which can yield both clarity and knowledge Consider the vise grip of some of the poems of our best lyric poets how language might be put under pressure as carbon might be put under pressure to create a diamond And shadow the second half of the title both as noun the shaded or darker portion of the picture or view or perspective partial illumination and partial darkness and as verb to shadow to trail secretly as an inseparable companion or a force that follows something with fidelity to cast a dark light on something a person an event an object a form in nature Vise and Shadow draws into conversation such disparate figures as W B Yeats Hart Crane Joan Didion Primo Levi Robert Rauschenberg Bob Dylan Elia Kazan and Arshile Gorky revealing how the lyric imagination of these artists grips experience shadows history and casts its own type of illumination creating one of the deepest kinds of human knowledge and sober truth In these elegantly written essays Balakian offers a fresh way to think about the power of poetry art and the lyrical imagination as well as history trauma and memory
