Hijmans,2024-04-02 With this analysis of Sol images Steven E Hijmans paints a new picture of the solar cult in ancient Rome The paucity of literary evidence led Hijmans to prioritize visual sources and he opens this study with a thorough discussion of the theoretical and methodological issues involved Emphasizing the danger of facile equivalencies between visual and verbal meanings his primary focus is Roman praxis manifest in for instance the strict patterning of Sol imagery These patterns encode core concepts that Sol imagery evoked when deployed and in those concepts we recognize the bedrock of Rome s understandings of the sun and his cult Case studies illustrate these concepts in action and the final chapter analyzes the historical context in which previous now discredited views on Sol could arise This is part I of a two part set The Social Life of Art Peter Stupples,Jane Venis,2014-11-10 This study examines not only the objects and processes that make up the artworlds of human history but also the social and cultural circumstances the historicised contexts that bring about their making frame their functioning inform their properties and influence their effects both at the time of their creation and throughout their subsequent biographies In the short span that art has played a part in human life one may conceive of time as a social river with a strong current towards the capricious mainstream and eddies and quiet pools near the banks The current will flow faster in spate and slower in drought But it will be forever in motion It will be unpredictable Nothing will stop its inexorable force Art runs in that social river subject to the flow and chance of time Seeing Comics through Art History Maggie Gray,Ian Horton,2022-06-17 This book explores what the methodologies of Art History might offer Comics Studies in terms of addressing overlooked aspects of aesthetics form materiality perception and visual style As well as considering what Art History proposes of comic scholarship including the questioning of some of its deep rooted categories and procedures it also appraises what comics and Comics Studies afford and ask of Art History This book draws together the work of international scholars applying art historical methodologies to the study of a range of comic strips books cartoons graphic novels and manga who as well as being researchers are also educators artists designers curators producers librarians editors and writers with some undertaking practice based research Many are trained art historians but others come from have migrated into or straddle other disciplines such as Comparative Literature American Literature Cultural Studies Visual Studies and a range of subjects within Art Design practice Arts of Power Randolph Starn,Loren Partridge,2023-12-22 Jacob Burckhardt claimed that the state in Renaissance Italy became a work of art In this book the authors illuminate the corollary that art in Italy became a work of state They study centres of power under three distinctive governments a civic republic of the 14th century a princely court of the 15th and an absolutist state of the 16th The authors argue that no less than armies laws and taking art for what it actually is a piece of stone or wood a sheet of paper with some lines drawn on it a painted canvas this lively and accessible account shows how seemingly meaningless objects can be transformed into celebrated works of art Breaking with conventional notions of artistic genius Koenraad Jonckheere explores how stories and emotions give meaning to objects and why changing historical circumstances result in such shifting opinions over time Tracing its story from ancient times to present A New History of Western Art reframes the evolution of European art and radically reshapes our understanding of art history Published in association with Hannibal Books Art History, After Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman, Sherrie Levine, 2012 For this in depth examination of artist Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman surveys a broad range of sources to assess an artist whose work was understood from the outset to oppose the values of the art world in the 1980s but who by the end of the decade was exhibiting in some of the most successful commercial galleries in New York

White , 2024-11-14 Justin J White explores the nature of images in ancient Israel through a reconceptualization of the relationship between image and text He proposes that in ancient Israel texts evoked images as a core part of their rhetoric Rather than conceptualizing texts and images as ontologically or functionally distinct media he argues that both media are mixed media even while neither medium is reducible to the other In order to make this argument he focuses on the visual aspects of textual rhetoric what he terms the poetics of visuality He builds his argument across three text specific axes of visual rhetoric ekphrasis the visual imagination and material agency He makes the claim that each of these three axes are endemic to Israelite literature and mutually contribute to the formation of a robust ontology of visual representation in ancient Israel
